INTRODUCTION

This work is an update of a draft document prepared in the year 2000 and which was posted among the records of Archives.org at https://archive.org/details/1672samueljudkin00gran. This update was prompted by the work of Frances Cullom who made the breakthrough analysis of the parentage of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman. The update grew beyond my expectations due to the vast increase in available online records that has occurred in recent years.

The material for this work is organized in four parts. The first is the text, the second is the descendants chart, the third is the sources, and the fourth is a set of appendices.

The text provides full and literal transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Seven generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or with a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants chart is organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marriage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list. Twelve generations of descendants are listed. However, as the size of this chart grew, I changed my approach by limiting the number of descendants listed when the Judkins surname changed by marriage to one generation after such change.

The source list provides a chronological listing of sources as they were found or consulted. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list the documents that have been found for the surname Judkins for marriages, deeds, and probates in Surry and Sussex Counties, Virginia. The records are listed in chronological order and include an identification of the Judkins named in the record, to the extent such an identification has been made. The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed. This is to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and to provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Judkins found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1672 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia" indicates that this was the Samuel Judkins who died in 1672 in Surry County, Virginia. A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "James Judkins (Brunswick County, Virginia)."

No work of this size is done without help. Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize those fellow researchers by identifying their contributions in the text and source list.. The quotations from published works are made with the permission of the author.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is work is not complete and there are many descendants of 1672 Samuel Judkins who remain unidentified. I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any descendants of 1672 Samuel Judkins in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

I. 1672 Samuel Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wife Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman, And His Descendants

The parents of 1672 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, have not as yet been identified. Given the early appearance of Samuel Judkins in Virginia, he was probably the first immigrant of his family to Virginia.

James City County was one of the original shires of Virginia created in 1634, but almost all of the records prior to 1865 were lost in the burning of Richmond on April 3, 1865.

Surry County was formed before November 25, 1652, from James City County and the first record of Samuel Judkins is found in that county.

On March 7, 1667/68, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 1/304, Samuel Judkins purchased a patent deed from Thomas Barlowe:

> "I Tho. Barlow doe assigne this pattent unto Samuell Judkin wth. ye. sd. Land in itt Expressed & doe bind myselfe my heirs execrs. Admrs. that ye. sd. Judkin shall quietly Injoy ye. sd. Land wth:oute any trouble or Molestation & doe warrant ye. same Land unto ye. sd. Judkin his heirs or assigns for ever & doe alsoe Ingage that my wife shall Acknowledge ye. sd. Land unto ye. sd. Judkin in ye. open Courte of Surry as witnes my hand this 7th. day of March 1667. Tho Barlow.
> Syned & delivered in pr:sence of Thomas Ayacclee?, Arthur Long.
> Acknowledged in Cort. 7th. July 1668 by ye. subscribed Tho. Barlowe & Elizabeth his wife record. 15 sd. month"

As set forth in this record and below, the surname Judkins was sometimes written in the records as Judkin and a few times as Jerkins.

In her email dated January 10, 2015, Frances Cook Cullom traced the chain of title of this land in the following five transfers and located it on the east side of Gray's Creek in Surry County, across the James River from Jamestown.

The first transfer was to Thomas Woodhouse by Patent Deed 2/1 dated March 24, 1644, as set forth in Cavaliers And Pioneers, Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents And Grants 1623-1800, by Nell Marion Nugent:

> "Thomas Woodhouse, 200 acs. James City Co., 24 Mar. 1644, Page 1. Upon the Southerly side of James River, about 2 mi. from the river, N. E. upon land of Henry Short (or Hart). Due by virtue of former patent, dated 20 Mar. 1640, for the same land."

This patent was then apparently re-granted to Thomas Woodhouse by Patent Deed 2/146 dated July 3, 1648, as set forth in Cavaliers And Pioneers, Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents And Grants 1623-1800:

> "Thomas Woodhouse, 200 acs. James City Co., July 3, 1648, Page 146. About 2 mi. distant from James River on the S. side, adj. Henry Hart. By virtue of former patent."

The second, third, and fourth transfers were from Thomas Woodhouse to John Zaines and then from John Zaines to Thomas Zaines and then from Thomas Zaines to Thomas Underwood, as set forth in Surry County Records: Surry County, Virginia 1652-1684, by Eliza Timberlake Davis:

> "Page 211. 5 May 1663. Thos. Woodhouse had a patent for 200 acres of land on east side of Gray's Creek dated 4 7ber 1651. He assigns this patent to John Zaines 11 April 1652, who being deceased, the land belongs to Thos. Zaines of Southampton, who made Coll. Thos. Swann his atty., and Thos Swann on 5 May 1663, in open Court at Surry Co, assigned to Thos. Underwood. Wit.: Law. Baker, Thos. Warren."

Thomas Underwood then re-patented the land by Patent Deed 5/384 dated June 15, 1664, as set forth in Cavaliers And Pioneers, Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents And Grants 1623-1800:

> "Thomas Underwood, 200 acs., 15 June 1664, p. 384, (430). Beg. by the ready swamp, thence S. by E. &c. Granted to Thomas Woodhouse 4 Sept. 1651 (or 1654) & sold to John Zaizes & by Col. Swant, Atty. of sd. Zamis, sold to sd. Underwood."

The fifth transfer was from Thomas Underwood to Thomas Barlow, as set forth in Surry County Records: Surry County, Virginia 1652-1684:

> "Page 284. 2 May 1667. Thos. Underwood assigns ye Patent unto Thos. Barrlowe with the said land expressed that sd Barlow shall quietly possess ye sd land. Nath. Stanton, John Legrand."

As set forth above, Thomas Barlow then assigned the patent to Samuel Judkins on March 7, 1667/68.

Interestingly, as more fully set forth below, Samuel Judkins and Robert Judkins, two sons of 1672 Samuel Judkins, re-patented the land again by Patent Deed 7/467 dated April 20, 1685:

> "To all &c whereas &c Know ye that I the said ffrancis Lord Howard Baron of Effingham Governor &c doe wth the consent & advice of the Council of State accordingly give and grant unto Samuell Jerkins and Robert Jerkins twoe hundred acres of land situated lying and being in the County of Surry on the East side of Grays Creeke according to the most anntient and lawfull bounds thereof formerly granted Thomas Zaines decd and was lately found to Escheate to his most sacred Majtie as by an Inquisition recorded in Mr Secretaries office under the hands & seales of Mr William Randolph deputie Escheater of the said Countie & a jury sworne before him for ye purpose dated the 22th of September 1683 may appeare under same granted to the said Samuell & Robert Jerkins whoe have made their Composition according to Law. To have and to hold &c __ bee held &c yeilding & paying &c dated the 20th Aprill 1685"

The 1668, 1669, and 1670 Tithe Lists for Surry County, Virginia, did not list any person named Judkins.

The will of Samuel Judkins was dated on February 13, 1671/72, probated on May 7, 1672, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/13, and provided as follows:

> "Samuell Judkin being Sick makes his Last will & testamt I Give my Soule to God that Gave it me & my body to ye Ground & my Land I Give to my three sons Samuell, Robert & Charles to be Equally devided amongst them & to ye heires of there Bodyes Lawfully begotten & yt my Sonn Samuell being my Eldest Sonn & his Mother Lidia being my wife I make them my Executrs to pay my debts & to divide all my moveables amongst them onely my Sonn Samuell Shall Live upon ye plantation yt he is now uppon & his mother shall Live with him likewise, I Give to my wife my feather bed & all ye furniture yt belongs to it & ye Bras Kittle ____ to divide ye moveables of Cattle & hogs & ye moveables yt are about ye house or mye plantation, my haveing as Good a share as any of them & soe in hast I Rest Leaving my Soule to ye protection of God & his Sonn Jesus Christ

Wife: Lydia (____) Judkins

Children:
1) Samuel Judkins, eldest son,
2) Robert Judkins, and
3) Charles Judkins.

On May 7, 1672, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 4, Lidia Judkins was granted a probate of the will of her husband Samuel Judkins:

> "Probat granted Lidia Judkins Upon ye. will of her decd. husband Sam: Judkins P:ved by ye. oath of John Hunicutt.
> Ye. Cort being informed yat. Jarratt Greenewalt is sick whoe was ye. other testimony to P:ve Sam: Judkins will itt is ordrd. yat. Capt. Spensor Examine him & take his oath & returne itt to ye. Clarke to record."

On September 10, 1672, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 2/20, Thomas Pittman, Sr., bound himself not to make use of the estate of Lydia Judkins and to allow her the use of that property:

> "Bee itt knowne unto Almen by these presents that I Tho: Pitman of ye County of

Surry gent: doe bind my selfe not to make use of any pte of ye estate of Lidia Judkins but that it shall be Lawfull for ye sd Lidia to dispose of all ye estate that she now injoyed in ye time of her widdow hood to ____ Cheafely upon ____ & the ____ further more I doe ingage my selfe to ____ this my Act (?) & deed att Surry County Cort uppon ____ ye sd Lidia Judkins shall request me to itt in witness my hand this tenth day Septem 1672

Signed & sd ____ in ye presense of Samuell Judkins Tho. Pitman

Wm. Hayes (?)

Acknowledged in Surry County Cort by ye Subs Tho: Pitman the Senr 7th Janry(?) 1672"

This record indicates that Lydia (Gray) Judkins married Thomas Pittman, Sr., shortly after September 10, 1672.

On March 3, 1673/74 at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 47, Thomas Pittman obtained a judgment against the estate of Samuel Judkins for 400 pounds of tobacco:

"Capt. Tho. Pittman haveing made appear to this Cort yt. he hath pd. Mr. Wm. Sherwood ffour hundred pounds of tobo. & Cask wch. ye. Estate of Judkins deced. was Indebted to ye. sd. Sherwood, Judgmt. is therefore granted ye. sd. Pittman agt. ye. Estate of ye. sd. Judkins wth. Costs Alias Exec."

On October 2, 1674, [7br. 2d 1674] at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 70, the court ordered the transfer of the estate of Charles Judkins from Thomas Pittman to Charles' brother Samuel Judkins:

"It is Ordrd. wth. the Consent of Lt. Tho. Pittman that Samll. Judkins take the Estate of his Brother Charles Judkins into his Custody, & that he pRsent security for the same at ye. Next Cort, And the said Pittman is discharged from the said Estate."

If Samuel Judkins was at least 18 years of age when this appointment was made, then he would have been born before about October 2, 1656, and if he was at least 21 years of age, then he would have been born before about October 2, 1653.

On May 4, 1675, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 93, Samuel Judkins was appointed constable:

"May 4th. 1675. pRsent as on the other side.
Constables appoynted & accordingly ordrd. to be sworne.
Jno. Phillips in leiu of Wm. Newitt, Robt. Lee in leiu of Jno. Emerson.

Samll. Judkins in leiu of Mr. Pettway, Rich. Avery in leiu of Jno. Smith. Capt. Baker absent."

This record indicates that Samuel Judkins was born before May 4, 1654, which in turn indicates that Samuel Judkins and Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman were probably married before about 1654. If Lydia was at least 14 years of age at her marriage, then she would have been born probably before about 1639 or 1640.

On March 4, 1678/79, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 2/201, Thomas Pittman conveyed certain property to Charles Judkins, orphan, pursuant to a request of his deceased wife:

"I ye Subscribed doe hereby present to be recorded for Charles Judkins Orphan, one feather bed bolster & Rugs wth: Certaine(?) valens to be delivered to the said Judkins when he comes of Age or (if I dye before that time) Imediatly after my decease but to remaine in my owne possession untill the said Charles comes of Age if I live soe long, this being done of my owne accord at the Request of my deced wife dated this 4th March 1678

This record indicates that Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman had died prior to March 4, 1678/79, and that Charles Judkins had been born after March 4, 1657/58.

In her email dated July 15, 2012, Frances Cook Cullom enclosed her excellent research and analysis which established that Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman was a daughter of Thomas Gray, Sr., which identification has now been accepted as a basis for membership in The Jamestowne Society. The gist of the argument is the following:

1) Prior identifications of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman as possibly a daughter of William Gray, the son of Thomas Gray, do not withstand scrutiny.

2) Thomas Gray patented 800 acres of land in 1652.

3) Thomas Gray died before May 11, 1659, but no copy of his will has been found in the Surry County records nor any record of the administration of his estate.

. 4) Thomas Gray's sons William Gray and John Gray asserted that the relevant 800 acres of land passed to them pursuant to the will of their father. However, no copy of the will has been found and either the custodian of the will had failed to submit it for probate or the clerk had failed to record the will in the county court records and so title to the land could not be shown to have passed to the two sons and thus a cloud on title existed as to who had legal interests in the land.

5) In 1678 Thomas Gray's sons William Gray and John Gray "re-patented" that 800 acres to clear title of the land to their names, but the normal chain of title of land would not have been affected by that "re-patenting" and the cloud on title would have remained.

6) James Judkins was a son of 1710 Charles Judkins of Surry County and a grandson of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman.

7) William Dennis was a son of ____ (Judkins) Dennis and a grandson of 1705 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and a great grandson of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman.

8) No deed or documents of transfer have been found conveying to James Judkins or William Dennis any interest in the relevant 800 acres of land.

9) William Gray, Jr., was a son of William Gray and nephew of John Gray and grandson of Thomas Gray.

10) William Gray, Jr., inherited the interests of William Gray and John Gray in the relevant 800 acres of land.

11) In 1725 William Gray, Jr., purchased from James Judkins and William Dennis their interests in the 800 acres of land.

12) The only way that James Judkins and William Dennis would have had an interest in that 800 acres of land would have been through inheritance from Lydia.

13) That inheritance by James Judkins and William Dennis could have occurred only if Lydia had acquired her interest in that 800 acres land as a daughter and an heir of Thomas Gray and beneficiary under his will.

The more detailed analysis is as follows:

Point 1:

Lydia, the wife of Samuel Judkins, has been identified as possibly the daughter of William Gray, the second son of Thomas Gray, Sr., named William. As set forth below, "Judkins Of Surry" by Dr. B. C. Holtzclaw made that tentative identification. This identification may have been based on the will of William Gray's son John Gray dated and probated in 1708 which referred to John's sister Lydia. However, as Ms. Cullom noted and as set forth above, Lydia (____) (Judkins) Pittman had died before March 4, 1678/79, and so could not have been the same person as the Lydia referred to In John Gray's will as his sister and living in 1708.

In addition, as set forth above, Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman was born probably before 1739 or 1740. Virginia Immigrants And Adventurers 1607-1635: A Biographical Dictionary, by Martha W. McCartney, stated that Thomas Gray's first son named William Gray was three years old in 1625, indicating a date of birth in about 1622. That would make him a little young to have Lydia as his daughter. Also, Thomas Gray married his third wife Rebecca before September 11, 1626, and his four children with her would have been too young to be parents of Lydia.

The result is that Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman was not a daughter of a son of Thomas Gray and if she was a descendant of Thomas Gray, she would have to have been a daughter.

Point 2:

On March 14, 1652, at Patent Deed 3/158, Thomas Grey patented 800 acres of land on the south side of the James River:

> "To all et whereas et Now Know yee that the said Richard Bennett Esqr. give and grant unto Thomas Grey Eight hundred Acres of Land lying on the South Side of James river at the head of Smith ffort Creeke and in the County of Surry bounded viz. North upon sd Creeke East, South, South East and North East upon sd Land of John Kemp South East upon sd Southernmost branch of Smiths ffort Creeke South upon sd Maine woods and west upon sd branch of sd Maine Creeke, The said Land being due as ffoll. four hundred acres part thereof being formerly granted unto the said Grey by patent Dated the 30th of July 1639 and four hundred Acres thereof being formerly granted unto Samuel Abbott by pattent Dated the 10th of Aprile 1644 and purchased of the said Abbott by the said Grey to have and to hold et yeilding & paying et which payment is to be made Seven yeares after the first grant or Seating thereof before provided et Dated the 14th of March 1652."

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents And Grants, Volume One: 1623-1666, abstracted by Nell Marion Nugent, also listed the grant of this patent deed to Thomas Grey on March 14, 1652, at Book 3, page 158:

> "Thomas Grey, 800 acs. Surry Col, on S. side of James riv. at the head of Smiths Fort Cr., 14 Mar. 1652, p. 158. Upon land of John Kemp. 400 acs. granted sd. Grey 30 July 1639 & 400 acs. formerly granted Samuel Abbott, 10 Apr. 1644 & purchased by sd. Grey."

Points 3 & 4 & 5:

Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1607-1624/5, 4th edition, compiled by John Frederick Dorman, stated that Thomas Gray probably died before November 2, 1658, and was dead by May 11, 1659:

> "Thomas[1] Gray was probably dead before 2 Nov. 1658[11] when Francis[2] Gray transferred a patent to his brother Thomas[2]. On 11 May 1659 Luke Mizell testified in court that while he was servant to Tho. Gray, Sr., deceased, he "did often hear sd Gray and his wife say that [Thomas] Gates had given 50 acres to their son Thomas and daughter Jane."[12]
> [11] Surry Co. Deeds, Wills &c 1, 1652-72, p. 121.
> [12] Ibid., p. 131."

No will of Thomas Gray or administration of his estate has been found in the Surry County, Virginia, records. Surry County Records: Surry County, Virginia 1652-1684, by Eliza Timberlake Davis, does not list a will or estate administration for Thomas Gray; Surry County Virginia Court Records (Deed Book I) 1652 thru 1663, Book I, by Weynette Parks Haun, similarly does not list any court order granting administration of his estate; and neither Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1607-1624/5, 4th edition, by John Frederick Dorman nor Virginia Immigrants And Adventurers 1607-1635: A Biographical Dictionary, by Martha W. McCartney, listed a will or an administration of his estate.

On September 26, 1678, at Patent Deed 6/653, William Grey and John Grey obtained a confirmation and renewal of Patent Deed 3/158 alleging that the land passed to them under the will of their father Thomas Gray:

> "To all &c whereas &c Now Know yee that I the said Horst: Jeffreye Esq. give & grant unto Wm. Grey & Jno Grey Eight hundred Acres of Land Lying on ye South Side James River at ye head of Smiths fort Creeke & in ye County of Surry bounded (Viz) north upon ye Creeke E, S. S. E & N: E: upon ye land of John Kemp S: E: upon ye Southernmost branch of Smiths fort Creeke S: upon ye > Main woods & West upon a branch of ye Maine Creeke & West Said Land being formerly Granted to Thomas Grey by pattent bearing Date ye 14 day of March 1652 as by ye said patent still remains at Large Appears & it descended to ye said Wm & Jno Grey by will [__?] ye said Thomas Grey their ffather dec'd so is now Confirmed. Endorsed in his majts name &c To have & to hold &c yeilding & paying &c provided &c dated ye 26th of September 1678"

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume Two: 1666-1695 also listed this renewed Patent Deed to William Grey and Jonathan Grey:

> "Wm. Grey & Jno. Grey, 800 acs. Surry Col, S. side James Riv., at head of Smith's Fort Cr., 26 Sept. 1678, p. 653. Adj. John Kemp. Granted to Thomas Grey. their father. 14 Mar. 1652. & due the abovenamed by will. & now confirmed & renewed."

The absence of any recorded will for Thomas Gray and the absence of any administration of his estate created a dilemma for his sons William Gray and John Gray. If they asserted an intestacy, then the rule of primogeniture would cause the land to descend to the oldest son of Thomas Gray and the younger sons William Gray and John would have been excluded from ownership. But if, as they asserted in their patent renewal, the land descended equally to William and John under their father's will, then that will would have to be probated to clear title into their names in equal shares. The patent renewal of the land in the names of William and John appears to have been an attempt to finesse that problem by having title "confirmed" in their joint names. But this patent renewal was out of the chain of title and, as the re-patent recited, because the old patent was still "at large". Therefore, title remained in the name of Thomas Gray and a cloud on title remained regarding the ownership of the land following Thomas Gray's death.

Point 6:

The will of Samuel Judkins dated on February 13, 1671/72, and probated on May 7, 1672, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/13, listed Charles Judkins as one of his children:

> "Samuell Judkin being Sick makes his Last will & testamt . . . . & my Land I Give to my three sons Samuell, Robert & Charles to be Equally devided amongst them & to ye heires of there Bodyes Lawfully begotten

The will of Charles Judkins dated on March 18, 1709/10, and probated on May 2, 1710, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 6/9, listed James Judkins as one of his children:

> "In the Name of God Amen I Charles Judkins of Southwark Parish Surry County Do make this my Last Will and Testament
> . . . .
> Item I Give unto my Sonn James my Long gunn,
> . . . .
> In Witness Whereof I have hereunto Sett my hand and Seale this 13th day of March 1709/10.
> . . . ."

The result of these documents is to confirm that James Judkins was a grandson of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman.

Point 7:

On April 20, 1685, at Patent Deed 7/467, Samuel Jerkins and Robert Jerkins obtained a joint patent for 200 acres of land on the east side of Gray's Creek:

> "To all &c whereas &c Know ye that I the said ffrancis Lord Howard Baron of Effingham Governor &c doe wth the consent & advice of the Council of State accordingly give and grant unto Samuell Jerkins and Robert Jerkins twoe hundred acres of land situated lying and being in the County of Surry on the East side of Grays Creeke according to the most anntient and lawfull bounds thereof formerly granted Thomas Zaines decd and was lately found to Escheate to his most sacred Majtie as by an Inquisition recorded in Mr Secretaries office under the hands & seales of Mr William Randolph deputie Escheater of the said Countie & a jury sworne before him for ye purpose dated the 22th of September 1683 may appeare under same granted to the said Samuell & Robert Jerkins whoe have made their Composition according to Law. To have and to hold &c __ bee held &c yeilding & paying &c dated the 20th Aprill 1685"

Cavaliers And Pioneers, Volume Two: 1666-1695 also listed this patent to Samuell Jerkins & Robert Jerkins dated April 20, 1685, at Patent Book 7/467:

> "Samuell Jerkins & Robert Jerkins, 200 aces., Surry Col, on E. side of Gray's Cr., 20 Apr. 1685. p. 467. Granted Thomas Zaines, dec'd., & found to escheate by inquisition under Mr. William Randolph, Depty. Esch'r., &c."

On May 1, 1705, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1700-1711, page 56, the will of Samuel Judkins was probated:

> "The Last will and testament of Samuel Judkins proved by the oathes of Saml. Cook, John Blewer(?) and Morgan Lewis and a probate thereof granted Samuel Judkins Extor. thereof hee haveing made oath as the Law directs."

Although this court record indicates the proof of a will and the probate of the same, no copy of that will has as yet been found in the Surry County records.

Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 1684-1733 and Other Court Papers, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on November 9, 1725, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 7/612, Henry Jones and his wife Katherine Jones and William Dennis sold to Thomas Crews 100 acres of land on Grays Creek.

Wills and Administrations of Surry County, Virginia 1671-1750, by Eliza Timberlake Davis, stated that the will of Thomas Crews dated January 21, 1727/28, and probated on July 17, 1728, at Surry County, W.B. 4/__, provided in part as follows:

> "To son, John Crews, a tract of land called Gray's [which I bought of Henry and Catherine Jones and Wm. Dennis and Samuel Jenkins] - 100 acres."

Although this deed recites a conveyance from Samuel Jenkins [Judkins], no record of the conveyance of the 100 acres of land from Samuel Judkins to Thomas Crews has as yet been found.

Nevertheless, these four records taken together trace the ownership of one-half of the 200 acres patented in 1685 from 1705 Samuel Judkins to his heirs Samuel Judkins, Catherine (Judkins) Jones, and William Dennis and then from those heirs to Thomas Crews and then from Thomas Crews to John Crews, thereby identifying William Dennis as a son of ____ (Judkins) Dennis and a great grandson of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman.

Point 8:

Ms. Cullom stated in her summary that her search of the Surry County records found no deed transferring any interest in the relevant 800 acres of land to either James Judkins or William Dennis.

Similarly, neither Wills and Administrations of Surry County, Virginia 1671-1750, by Eliza Timberlake Davis, nor Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 1684-1733 and Other Court Papers, by William Lindsay Hopkins, listed any such conveyance to James Judkins or William Dennis.

Points 9 & 10:

As set forth above, Patent Deed 3/158 dated September 26, 1678, to William Grey and John Grey listed them as sons of Thomas Grey.

Similarly, Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1607-1624/5, revised and edited by Virginia M. Meyer & John Frederick Dorman, listed William Gray and John Gray as sons of Thomas Gray.

The will of John Gray dated May 16, 1683, and probated on July 3, 1683, at Surry County, Virginia, W.& D. Book 2/330, gave a reversionary interest in his estate to his brother William Gray and gave his land to his cousin John Gray, the son of William Gray. In this case the term cousin was used in the sense of nephew.

The will of John Gray, son of William Gray, dated on June 23, 1708, and probated on November 9, 1708, at Surry County, Virginia, W. & D. Book 5/403, referred to his father William Gray and to his brother Gilbert Gray.

The will of William Gray, brother of John Gray who died in 1683 and father of John Gray who died in 1708, was dated on June 3, 1719, probated on November 18, 1719, at Surry County, Virginia, W. & D. Book 7/226, and listed his sons William Gray, Jr., and Gilbert Gray.

These documents establish that William Gray, Jr., and Gilbert Gray were grandchildren of Thomas Gray and heirs and beneficiaries of the land "re-patented" by William Gray, Sr., and John Gray, Sr., in 1678.

Point 11:

Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 1684-1733 and Other Court Papers, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on March 22, 1725, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 7/635, James Judkins sold "to William Gray for 12 pounds sterling . . . . 800 acres whereon William Gray, Jr. and Gilbert Gray now live in Southwarke Parish (land is a patent granted to William Gray and John Gray, decd. the son of Thomas Gray, decd., dated 26 Sep 1678 and a patent dated 14 Mar 1652)."

This record reflects a clear reference to the relevant 800 acres of land originally patented by Thomas Gray in 1652.

Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 1684-1733 and Other Court Papers, by William Lindsay Hopkins, also stated that on December 15, 1725, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 7/619, William Dennis of North Carolina sold "to William Gray of Surry County for 5 pounds sterling . . . . 800 acres whereon William Gray, Jr. and Gilbert Gray now live in Southwarke Parish and bounded by a patent granted to William Gray and John Gray, decd., son of Thomas Gray, decd., on 26 Sep 1678 and 14 Mar 1652."

Again, this record reflects a clear reference to the relevant 800 acres of land originally patented by Thomas Gray in 1652 and the sales by James Judkins and William Dennis of their interests in that 800 acres to William Gray, Jr.

Points 12 & 13:

In summary, the only interest in the relevant 800 acres of land patented by Thomas Gray in 1652 that James Judkins and William Dennis would have had was as descendants and heirs of Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman. Lydia's interest in that land would have derived from the will of Thomas Gray which was not probated or recorded. And for Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman to have been a beneficiary under the will of Thomas Gray. Since she could not have been a child of one of Thomas Gray's sons, she had to have been his daughter.

Returning to other documentation regarding 1672 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, his wife Lydia, and their descendants, Southside Virginia Families, Volume II, page 287 to 288, "Judkins of Surry" by Dr. B. C. Holtzclaw, provided the following summary of this Judkins family of Surry County, Virginia:

> "The progenitor of this family was Samuel Judkins whose will dated 1671 was probated in Surry County May 7, 1672. It mentions his eldest son, Samuel, sons, Robert and Charles, and wife, Lydia Gray. The widow, Lydia Judkins, married (2) Capt. Thomas Pittman and was dead prior to March 4, 1678/9 (Bk. 2, p. 201). Lydia may have been a daughter of Capt. William Gray (1661-1719) whose will was witnessed by Nicholas Maget, Robert Judkins and Saml. Maget, all connected with this family
> I. Samuel Judkins, eldest son of Samuel and Lydia, was born 1657-8, as he was a tithable in 1674. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Petway of Surry Co. and died in Surry in 1705, his inventory being dated May 18, 1705 (Bk. 3, p. 339). He had two sons, namely:
> 1. Samuel Judkins, b. 1683-4 (tithable first 1700), m. Ann ____, died in Surry Co. 1740, his will dated April 13, 1740, and probated October 15, 1740, mentioning son Samuel, daughters, Ann Champion and Sarah Holt, granddaughter Lucy Champion, and wife Ann. (See Champion, Vol I, p. 128)
> 2. John Judkins, b. about 1686-90, m. Martha and died in Surry Co. 1760. His will dated Dec. 12, 1758 and probated May 20, 1760. His wife, Martha, died in 1772, her will being dated Jan. 19, 1767 and probated November 19, 1772. The two wills show the following children:
> (1) Nicholas Judkins, born about 1710-12 (first appears in the records in 1733, D. & W. 1730-38, p. 306), m. Elizabeth ____, died in Surry County 1765. His will, dated May 20, 1763 and probated in Surry June 18, 1765, mentions sons, John and Jacob, daughters Mary, Martha, Ann and Elizabeth Judkins, and wife Elizabeth.
> (2) William Judkins, died in Surry County in 1760. His will, dated Dec. 10, 1760 and probated Dec. 16, 1760, mentions sons, Joes, Thomas, Jordan and Mark, daughters, Hannah, Rebecca and Sarah Judkins; brothers, Joseph and Samuel Judkins, executors.

(3) Joseph Judkins, died in Surry County in 1779. His will dated October 3, 1778 and probated Feb. 23, 1779 was as follows:

"To my daughter, Sally Lane, 1 negro & 250 pounds cash to Sally Lane for her and John Lane to buy land; said land to go to her death to my grandson Judkins Lane.

To my son, James Judkins and to my daughter Sally Lane all the rest of my estate to be equally divided between them.

Executors: John Lane, James Judkins and Sally Lane" (W.B. II)

(4) Samuel Judkins, probably identical with a Samuel whose will was probated in 1782 in Surry Co.

(5) Jesse Judkins whose will was probated in Surry in 1781.

(6) Charles Judkins.

(7) John Judkins, will probated in Surry 1794.

(8) Mary Judkins, m. a Barham (probably Robert Barham Jr. whose wife's name was Mary).

(9) Ann Judkins m. ____ Mouring.

(10) Sarah Barham. m. probably Charles Barham. John Judkins' will mentions not only his daughters, Mary and Sarah Barham, but also leaves bequests to Charles Barham and to his grandson, Robert Barham.

(11) ____ Judkins (probably) m. William Thompson. John Judkins' will leaves a bequest to William Thompson and legacies to his grandchildren, Philip, Frederick, Rebecca and Patty Thompson.

II. Robert Judkins, second son of Samuel and Lydia, was born 1660-1661, as he first appears as a tithable in 1677. He married Elizabeth ____ and died in Surry County in 1693, his will, dated May 19, 1693 and probated Jan. 2, 1693/4 mentioning his sons, William and Robert, daughters Elizabeth and Sarah and wife, Elizabeth (Book 3, p. 343). The son William m. Margaret Harris and died in 1721, leaving two daughters, Elizabeth who married John Berriman and Hannah. The widow Margaret married (2) Bartlett Morland by Aug. 16, 1721; she m. (3) by 1729 James Vaughan. (cf. Va. Mag. 46, p. 360, D & W 1715-30, p. 971).

Robert Judkins, son of Robert and Elizabeth, married Faith, daughter of Nicholas Maget and moved to Sussex Co. where he died 1761. His will, probated Feb. 20, 1761 (Sussex Bk. A, p. 188) mentions his wife, Faith, sons, William, Robert and John, and daughter, Sarah Judkins. Robert's and Faith's son, William, is probably identical with a William Judkins who died in Sussex Co. in 1790, his will, dated October 10, 1786, and probated Sept. 2, 1790, mentioning wife, Sarah, sons, James, John and Nicholas. Three of the children of William and Sarah Judkins are mentioned in the Albemarle Parish Register as follows: William, b. Oct. 22, 1748; John, b. Oct. 3, 1746; Mary, b. Nov. 29, 1750. Robert Judkins, the other son of Robert and Faith, married Sarah ____ and had the following children recorded in the Albemarle Parish: Elizabeth, b. Jan. 5, 1759 and Susannah, b. May 2, 1751.

III. Charles Judkins, son of Samuel and Lydia, was born in 1670 or 1671, as he first appears as a tithable in 1687. He married Jean or Jane ____, and died in Surry in 1710, his will mentioning his wife, Jane, and sons, James, Charles, Thomas and William. His widow was married (2) to William Williams prior to Sept. 12, 1711 (Va. Mag. 48, p. 360). The will leaving his property to his brothers, William, James and Charles. Of the other sons, William Judkins is probably identical with a William Judkins with wife, Catherine, the birth of two of whose children is recorded in the Albemarle Parish Register, namely, William, born March 22, 1739/40, and James, b. March 5, 1742. Charles Judkins, son of Charles and Jane, married Sarah Gray, lived in Albemarle Parish, and died in Sussex Co. in 1774. His will dated Nov. 6, 1773 and probated in Sussex June 16, 1774, mentions sons, John, Charles and Gray; daughters Sarah and Mary Judkins and Frances Hobson; son-in-law Amos Atkinson; grandchildren, Margaret Drake, Sarah and Jemina Atkinson, Allen, Berney and Mary Dunn; and son-in-law Thomas Dunn. The births of the following of Charles and Sarah Judkins' children are recorded in the Albemarle Parish Register: 1. John, b. Dec. 19, 1737; 2. Frances, born about 1740; 3. Susannah, b. July 14, 1740; 4. Charles, b. Feb. 16, 1742; 5. Gray, b. Aug. 28, 1748. The Register records the death of Charles Judkins as Feb. 24, 1774. It also records the births of the children of two of his sons as follows: (1) children of John and Mary Judkins: Charity, b. Jan. 14, 1764, Martha, b. Dec. 4, 1765, Gray, b. April 11, 177, and Howell, born Oct. 28, 1772; (2) Lucy, daughter of Charles Judkins Jr. and Martha, was born Oct. 2, 1769. (Charles Judkins, who married Sarah Gray, above, may have been a son of John Judkins, d. 1760 and wife, Martha, but it seems more probable that he was son of Charles and Jane)."

Many of the descendants of Samuel Judkins and Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman resided in Surry and Sussex County, Virginia. A map of those two counties prepared by the Virginia Historical Society is set forth below:

MAP OF SURRY AND SUSSEX COUNTIES

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1672 Samuel Judkins and Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman were the following:

1) Samuel Judkins, born possibly before October 2, 1653, and before May 4, 1654,

2) Robert Judkins, born before June 9, 1661, and

3) Charles Judkins, born after March 4, 1657/58, and before June 9, 1670.

A. 1705 Samuel Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wife Elizabeth (Pettway) Judkins, And His Descendants

1705 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1672 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Lydia (Gray) (Judkins) Pittman. (1672 Samuel[1])

The will of Samuel Judkins dated February 13, 1671/72, and probated on May 7, 1672, at Surry County, W.B. 2/13, listed Samuel Judkins as his eldest son:

> "Samuell Judkin being Sick makes his Last will & testamt I Give my Soule to God that Gave it me & my body to ye Ground & my Land I Give to my three sons Samuell, Robert & Charles to be Equally devided amongst them & to ye heires of there Bodyes Lawfully begotten & yt my Sonn Samuell being my Eldest Sonn & his Mother Lidia being my wife I make them my Executrs to pay my debts & to divide all my moveables amongst them onely my Sonn Samuell Shall Live upon ye plantation yt he is now uppon & his mother shall Live with him likewise, . . . .

The 1674 Tithe List for Surry County, Virginia, as published in The Virginia Genealogist, listed Samuel Judkins with one tithe:

Tithables were persons over age 16 and this record indicates that Samuel Judkins was born before 1659.

On October 2, 1674, [7br. 2d 1674] at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 70, the court ordered the transfer of the estate of Charles Judkins

from Thomas Pittman to Charles' brother Samuel Judkins:

> "It is Ordrd. wth. the Consent of Lt. Tho. Pittman that Samll. Judkins take the Estate of his Brother Charles Judkins into his Custody, & that he pRsent security for the same at ye. Next Cort, And the said Pittman is discharged from the said Estate."

If Samuel Judkins was at least 18 years of age when this appointment was made, then he would have been born before about October 2, 1656, and if he was at least 21 years of age, then he would have been born before about October 2, 1653.

On December 4, 1674, [9br. 4th 1674] at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 77, Edward Pettway became surety for Samuel Judkins in connection with the estate of Charles Judkins:

> "Edwd. Pttway did before Lt. Coll. Jordan & Mr. Rand. Holt pRsent himselfe Security for the Estate of Charles Judkins in the hands of Samll. Judkins and the ClRke Ordrd to take bond."

On May 4, 1675, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 93, Samuel Judkins was appointed constable:

> "May 4th. 1675. pRsent as on the other side.
> Constables appoynted & accordingly ordrd. to be sworne.
> Jno. Phillips in leiu of Wm. Newitt, Robt. Lee in leiu of Jno. Emerson.
> Samll. Judkins in leiu of Mr. Pettway, Rich. Avery in leiu of Jno. Smith.
> Capt. Baker absent."

This record indicates that Samuel Judkins was born before May 4, 1654.

The 1675 Tithe List for Surry County, Virginia, listed Samuel Jerkins with one tithe on June 10, 1675:

> "A List of Tithables taken by the subscriber the 10th of June 1675

Colonial Surry, by John B. Boddie, listed the pardon on February 6, 1676/77, of Samuel Judkins and Robert Judkins for their part in Bacon's Rebellion:

> ". . . .
> By January 11, 1676/7 Berkeley was once more in complete control of the colony. On that date he began a series of court-martials, which resulted in the death of a large number of chief rebels and caused Charles II later on to exclaim that "the old fool had executed more men than he himself had caused to die for the death of his father, Charles I."

. . . .
On January 29, 1676/7 Col Herbert Jeffreys, Col. Francis Morrsion, and Sir John Berry, Royal Commissioners, arrived in Virginia, being appointed to investigate grievances, suppress the rebellion, and summon Sir William Berkeley back to England, relieving him of the Governorship that he had exercised so long.
[Berkeley] refused to have the Commissioners at his mansion at Green Spring, and . . . . Col. Swann offered them his hospitality at Swann's Point in Surry County. The Commissioners brought a pardon for the rebels from the King, but they could not halt the Governor's thirst for revenge, and he carried on his series of trials and executions,
. . . .
The less prominent Baconians, to the number of 40, laid hold of the King's pardon February 6, 1676/7, as indicated by the following record (Book 2, p. 149):

> "We whose names are hereunto subscribed having heard and read of his Majesty's gracious and most surpassing acts of Pardon and Mercy . . . . do with all humility and earnestness implore and lay hold on his Majesty's most gracious act of pardon aforesaid . . . . and in conformity to his Majesty's royal instructions (pray it) may be entered on record.

> W E Cl Crt.

Of the above 40 men, it is again noteworthy that practically all were from Southwark Parish.
Robert and Samuel Judkins were brothers, and step-sons of the aged Thomas Pittman, Senior, who had been a Lieutenant in the county militia.

Surry County Records: Surry County, Virginia 1652-1684, by Eliza Timberlake Davis, also listed the pardon dated February 6, 1676/77, of Samuel Judkins and Robert Judkins for their part in Bacon's Rebellion:

> "Page 149. 6 Feb. 1676. List of pardoned Rebells in the "Late Disloyal Rebellious Collony," etc.
> Samuel Judkins

On February 17, 1676/77, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 133, Samuel Judkins was still acting as constable when he was ordered to punish Elizabeth Regan:

> "Att a meeting of ye. Justices at Southwarke for ye. Co. Surry FebRy. 17th. 1676 pRsent Lt. Coll. Jordan, Major Browne, Mr. Caufeild, Capt. Spensor Mr. Harrison ComRs.
> Mr. Meriwether & Mr. Mason prsent.
> Complainte being made to this Cort that one Eliz. Regan the wife of Danll. Regan hath severall times & in severall places fomented many Malignant & rebellious Words tending to sedition, Doe Therefore Ordr. that Samll. Judkins Counstable or his Headborough doe forthwith carry her the sd. Regan to the Comon Whipping place, and there give her tenn lashes on her bare back, well laid on."

No tithe lists were taken in Virginia in 1676 because of Bacon's Rebellion.

On July 4, 1676, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 134, Stephen Allen was appointed constable in place of Samuel Judkins:

> Counstables appoynted: Instead of Samll. Judkins, Stephen Allen
> Robt. Lee, Owen Mireeke (sic)
> Wm. Hancock, Tho. Clay to be sworne before ye. Next ComR."

On May 1, 1677, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1671-1691, page 140, Samuel Judkins and Edward Pettway were appointed to appraise the estate of Susanna Jones:

> "May 1st. 1677.
> Mr. Edward Pettway & Samll. Judkins are ordrd. to meete & appraise the Estate of Susanna Jones deced. & to be sworne before ye. xt. ComR.

The 1677 Tithe List for Surry County, Virginia, listed Samuel and Robert Judkins as two tithes on June 9, 1677:

> "A List of tithables taken by me Subscriber the 9th of June 1677
> Samll. & Rob: Judkins 2
> . . . ."

The 1678 Tithe List for Surry County, Virginia, listed Samuel Judkins with one tithe on June 8, 1678:

"A List of Tithables taken ye 8th of June 1678
. . . .

Colonial Surry, by John B. Boddie, stated that Samuel Judkins served on the grand jury on December 30, 1678:

On December 30, 1678, Thoms Sowerby, Samuel Judkins, John Watkins and John King, members of the Grand Jury, presented to the Court, Thomas Hunt and Robert Lee for not attending church.

The 1679 Tithe List for Surry County, Virginia, listed Samuel Judkins with one tithe on June 10, 1679:

"A List of tithables taken ye 10th of June 1679

The legal description of this land makes clear that this was the same land as that purchased by 1794 John Judkins in 1744 by Surry County Deed 4/249 and, as set forth below, the same land as that devised by 1782 Samuel Judkins in his will to his son 1811 John Judkins.

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on November 21, 1773, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/379, Samuel Judkins, Sr., William Judkins, and Samuel Judkins, Jr., all witnessed a deed from Randolph Price to Mary Adams for 35 acres of land bounded in part by Samuel Judkins. If William Judkins was at least 21 years old when he witnessed this deed, then his date of birth would be before November 21, 1752, which in turn indicates that 1782 Samuel Judkins and Martha (____) Judkins were probably married before 1752.

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787 also stated that on October 25, 1774, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/450, Samuel Judkins, Sr., acted as a witness to a bill of sale from Mary Pyland the Elder to Mary Pyland the Younger for one Negro wench named Rachel.

The will of 1782 Samuel Judkins was dated on February 1, 1782, probated on July 23, 1782, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/276, and provided as follows:

> "In the Name of God Amen I Saml Judkins being very low and weak but in perfect sense and memory thanks be to God do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament
> First and principle I commit my Soul to Almighty God and for what Estate it hath pleased the Lord to bless me with I give and bequeath and dispose of as followeth Item I give and bequeath to my Son William Judkins the Plantation whereon I now live and all the Land belonging thereunto and fifty acres more or less as I bought of Nicholas Judkins joining to my Plantation and the North End of a Tract of Land as I bought of Richard Rowell from Prices Mill to the first deep Bottom of the South side of the Road as goes over Digbees Swamp up the bottom with mark't Trees to my Line that formerly belong'd to me and the sd Land containing fifty Acres more or less I give it all to him and his Heirs for ever. This record identifies the children of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Martha (____) Judkins as follows:

Children:
1) Joseph Judkins,
2) John Judkins, and
3) Rebecca Judkins,

Grandchildren:
1) Martha Wilkins Judkins,
2) Robert Judkins,
3) John Judkins,
4) Ann Lamb Judkins.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Samuel Judkins and ____ (____) Judkins had the following children:

1) William Judkins, and
2) Mary Anne Judkins.

In her letter dated December 10, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington stated that Samuel Judkins, the son of 1740 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, married Martha ____ and had the following child:

3) Joseph Judkins.

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Samuel Judkins was born before 1719, married Martha ____, possibly Wilkins, before December 12, 1756, and died before July 27, 1782, that his will was probated on July 27, 1782, at Surry County, Virginia, and that 1782 Samuel Judkins and Martha (____) Judkins had the following children:

1) William Judkins, born before December 12, 1756,
2) Samuel Judkins,
3) Joseph Judkins, born about 1762,

4) John Judkins,

5) Rebekkah Judkins, and

6) Mary A. Judkins.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1782 Samuel Judkins and Martha (____) Judkins were the following:

1) William Judkins, born probably before November 21, 1752, and before December 12, 1756,

2) Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins, born before December 12, 1756.

3) Samuel Judkins,

4) Joseph Judkins, born in about 1762,

5) John Judkins, born before about 1765 or in about 1768, and

6) Rebecca Judkins.

i. 1784 William Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia

1784 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4])

The will of Ann (____) Judkins dated December 12, 1756, and probated on March 15, 1757, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/87 listed William Judkins as one of her grandchildren:

> ". . . . Item I give to my Grandson William Judkins Two pounds Ten Shillings Current Money . . . ."

This record indicates that William Judkins was born before December 12, 1756.

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on November 21, 1773, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/379, Samuel Judkins, Sr., William Judkins, and Samuel Judkins, Jr., all witnessed a deed from Randolph Price to Mary Adams for 35 acres of land bounded in part by Samuel Judkins. If William Judkins was at least 21 years old at the time of witnessing this deed, then he was probably born before November 21, 1752.

The will of 1782 Samuel Judkins dated February 1, 1782, and probated on July 23, 1782, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/276 listed William Judkins as one of his children:

1) James Judkins.

On November 23, 1818, at Surry County, Virginia, Executors Bonds 1816-1831, page 14, Thomas Rowell, John Mallecote and Willis Thompson filed their bond for the appointment of Thomas Rowell as executor of the will of James Judkins.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Mary Anne Judkins was a daughter of Samuel Judkins and _____ (____) Judkins.

In her letters dated December 31, 1990, and January 29, 1995, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mary Ann Judkins was a daughter of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Martha (____) Judkins, was born before December 12, 1756, married James Judkins of Surry County on October 8, 1774, at Surry County, Virginia, and died before May 20, 1780, that James Judkins was born in 1751, married first Mary Ann Judkins on October 8, 1774, married possibly second Lucy Cockes on February 2, 1778, married third Mary Rowell on May 20, 1780, and died before November 23, 1818, that his will was probated at Surry County, Virginia W.B. 3/340, and that Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and James Judkins had the following children:

1) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman, born on October 18, 1776, and

2) Joseph Judkins, and that James Judkins and Mary (Rowell) Judkins had the following children:

1) Dolly Judkins,

2) Sally (Judkins) Chappell,

3) Elizabeth "Betsy" (Judkins) Inman,

4) Mary "Polly" Judkins, and

5) James Judkins, Jr., born about 1795, and that it was possible that Joseph Judkins was the son of Lucy (Cockes) Judkins.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the only child of Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and James Judkins was the following:

1) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman or Berryman, born on October 18, 1776.

The only child of 1818 James Judkins and his first wife Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins is discussed immediately below and the children of 1818 James Judkins and his second wife Lucy (Cockes) Judkins and his third wife Mary (Rowell) Judkins are discussed in Section I.A.2.c.ii below.

(I) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman Or Berryman, Her Husband Nathaniel Berriman Or Berryman, Jr., And Her Descendants

Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman or Berryman was a daughter of Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and 1818 James Judkins of Surry County, Virginia,. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4], Mary Ann[5])

The marriage bond of Martha Wilkins Judkins and Nathaniel Berriman was dated on May 14, 1798, at Surry County, Virginia, with John Judkins as surety:

> "Know all Men by these presents that We Nathaniel Berriman and John Judkins are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency James Wood esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars to be paid to the said James Wood Governor as aforesaid & to his successors (for the use of the Commonwealth) to which payment well and truly to be made We bind ourselves, our heirs, executors & administrators jointly & severally firmly by these presents - Sealed with our seals & dated this 14th day of May 1798
> The Condition of the above obligation is such that whereas there is a Marriage shortly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Nathl Berriman and Martha Wilkins Judkins Now if there be no lawful cause to obstruct the said Marriage then the above obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force & virtue
>
> Sealed & delivered ) Nathl. Berriman > in presence of ) John Judkins > John Faulcon jr"

The 1810 Census for Surry County, Virginia, listed two Nathaniel Berrimans, one of whom had no females in his household and the other of whom had the following household:

| Name of Head of Family | Free White Males | Age | Free White Female | Age | All Other Free Persons | Slaves |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Nathl Berriman | 1 | 26-45 | 1 | 26-45 | | |
| | 1 | 16-26 | 1 | 0-10 | | |
| | 1 | 10-16 | | | | |
| | 2 | 0-10 | | | | |

This record indicates that Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman and Nathaniel Berriman were born between about 1765 and 1784.

The will of 1818 James Judkins dated October 24, 1818, and probated on November 23, 1818, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/340 listed Mary Wilkins Berriman as one of his children:

> ". . . . 1st Item I give and bequeath to my Daughter Martha Wilkins Berriman Ten dollars to her and her heirs forever.

Nathaniel Berriman has not as yet been found in the 1820 Census.

Marriages of Surry County, Virginia, 1768-1825, compiled by Catherine L. Knorr, listed the marriage of Nathaniel Berriman and Sally Lane on October 26, 1825, in Surry County, Virginia:

> "25 October 1825. Nathaniel Berriman and Sally Lane. Sur. Wyatt Lane. Married 26 October by Rev. Be4verly Booth, Baptist Minister. p. 129"

This record indicates that Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman had died before October 25, 1825.

On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs and listed Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berryman as her niece and stated that Martha had married Nathaniel Berryman and that Martha was then deceased:

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to &

prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

The nominated executors apparently did not qualify and on November 22, 1841, at Surry County, Virginia, Administrators Bonds 1836-1846, page 112, John A. Hunnicutt, William M. West, and William P. Underwood filed their bond for the appointment of John A. Hunnicutt as administrator of the estate of Nathaniel Berriman.

On November 22, 1841, at Surry County, Virginia, Accounts, Bonds, Administration Bonds 1835-1930, Image 150, the court appointed William H. Berriman, Patrick H. Adams, Nathaniel B. Rowell, and John J. McAllister to appraise the estate of Nathaniel Berriman.

Newspapers.com listed an article by Sig Dashiell dated November 12, 1986, published in the Daily Press, Newport News, Virginia, and which quoted the following from Hardesty's Historical and Geographical Enclyclopedia, Special Virginia Edition, published in 1884:

"Berrymans dominate Surry's line of descendants

Our Surry neighbors of a century ago, who probably have descendants in this area today, are profiled in Hardesty's Encyclopedia, published in 1884. My copy belonged to my grandfather, Dr. George Hines Jordan (1834-1889). Now backless and tattered, it features the history of and personal sketches from the counties of new Kent, Charles City, Surry and Isle of Wight:

"Rev. Robert Wilkins Berryman, one of the old inhabitants of Surry County, is a farmer and minister of the gospel in the Methodist Protestant Church, having been ordained in 1858. During his ministry he has had charge of at least twenty churches, has taken into the church 150, baptized 50, married 719, and conducted 635 funeral services.

His grandfather came from England, first to Bacon's Castle, where helived a few years, and in 1748 settled on the farm now owned by Robert W. Berryman, which has been in possession of the family ever since. It contains 100 acres, one-half of which is improved, and is adapted to raising all kinds of grain, fruits, peanuts, etc., and has plenty of timber for farming purposes. It is two and a half miles southeast of the courthouse, and four miles from the James River. Berryman's birth occurred in Surry County March 30, 1816. His father Nathaniel Berryman, born July 14, 1778, died July 24, 1841, and his mother, whose maiden name was Martha A. Judkins, born Aug. 18, 1776, died Nov. 8, 1821. His first marriage was with Irena Bennett, Dec. 14, 1837, and they had one child, Thomas E. born Sept. 21, 1839. She was born Oct. 9, 1820, and died May 23, 1840. In Surry County, March 3, 1841, was solemnized his marriage with Sarah E., daughter of Thomas M. and Nancy (Thomas) Thompson. Her mother, born in 1789, died Sept. 23, 1868. Sarah E. Thompson was born in Surry county May 4, 1819.

The children of Berryman's last marriage are ten, born: Martha Ann, June 13, 1842; John N. born 1844, died 1864; James W. S. 1845-1847; Mary E. A. Feb. 22, 1847; George R. T. March 25, 1849; Albert C. D. January 31, 1851, is a minister at Scottsville, Albermarle county, Virginia; Luther W. April 30, 1853; Willie M. M., Feb. 4, 1855; Henry J. J., Jan. 24, 1857; Emma S. Jan. 23, 1859. Address Rev. R. W. Berryman, at Surry C. H., Surry County, Virginia."

"Thomas Edward Berryman, whose birth occurred in Surry County, Sept. 21, 1839, entered the service of Virginia, in 1862, was in most of the fierce battles of the State, and with General Lee at Appomattox. He was magistrate of Cobham district from May, 1869 to 1875. His parents are Robert W. and Irena (Bennett) Berryman, and he was united in the bonds of wedlock, April 11, 1861, with Eliza Augusta Bell, who was born in Surry county, June 1, 1835, the daughter of Joseph H. and Martha Ann (Thomas) Bell.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Berryman are L. Irena, born May 6, 1862; John Edward, Jan. 5, 1866, Martha Augusta, Oct. 4, 1867; Mary E., 1871-1872; Robert J., 1873-1874.

The family of Berryman has had many eminent representatives in Virginia, among them: James C. Berryman, judge of the probate court and minister of the gospel; and Revs. Edward T., John D. William J. and R. W. Berryman. Thomas E. Berryman's farm of 85 acres lies near Wall's Bridge, and is more than half under cultivation, and is adapted to raising the grains and fruits of this part of the country. The uncultivated part has plenty of timber for farming purposes. The post office address of Thomas E. Berryman is High Gate, Surry County, Virginia."

"George Robert Berryman was born in Surry County, Virginia, March 25, 1849. Martha E. Doyle was born in Isle of Wight county, Virginia, and they were married in that county May 1, 1879. Three children were born to them, but death has bereft them of their first-born, Mattie Doyle, born April 11, 1880, died Dec. 24, 1881; Robert William was born Nov. 30, 1881; George was born Christmas Day 1883.

The parents of Berryman are Rev. Robert W. and Sarah E. (Thompson) Berryman, the former born in 1816. Mrs. Berryman is the daughter of William T. and Melissa P. (Shelby) Doyle. T. E. Berryman, half-brother of George R. served four years in Company G, 13th Virginia Cavalry.

John N. George R's brother, was a member of the same company, was captured and taken to Point Lookout, Md., then to Elmira, N.Y. afterwards to Atlanta, Ga., exchanged, and died in the hosptial in 1865. Berryman is engaged in the pursuits of agriculture, with address at Jones Wharf, Surry county, Virginia."

"Luther Wyatt Berryman, son of Robert W. and Sarah E. (Thompson) Berryman, was born in Surry county, Virginia, April 30, 1853. On the 25th of February, 1879, in the county of her birth, he married Charlotte O. Turner, who was born in Isle of Wight county March 23, 1852. The children born to them were three, of whom only one is living, Birdie Belle who was born January 29, 1880. The parents of Mrs. Berryman are Zachriah W. and Charlotte Turner. L. W. Berryman is engaged in the pursuits of agriculture, his farm containing 125 acres of land, well adapted to raising grains, nuts, fruits, etc., and situated one and a quarter miles southeast fo the court house. His mail should be sent to Surry C. H., Surry County, Virginia."

"William Matthew Berryman is a farmer and merchant of Surry County, and was born in this county Feb. 4, 1855, a son of Robert W. Berryman, whose record is found in these pages. In Surry County, October 27, 1881, he wedded Mary Catherine Burrow, who was born at Cabin Point, this county, July 10, 1857. Her parents are William T. and Susan C. (Hargrave) Burrow. To Mr. and Mrs. Berryman has been given one little one, whom they have named Mabel, born on the 8th of March, 1884.

Berryman's farm consists of 405 acres, 150 improved, situated on the James river, producing fine crops of grain, peanuts, fruits, etc. and the unimporoved land well timbered. His dwelling and store are built on a tract of land of forty acres, one mile from the river. The post office address of William M. Berryman is Jones Wharf, Surry county, Virginia."

History Of Southeast Missouri, published by The Goodspeed Publishing Company in 1888, stated that J. C. Berryman was a Judge of the County Court from from 1850 to 1860 and included the following biographical information:

> "Nathaniel J. Berryman, treasurer of Madison County, MO., a native of North carolins, born in 1832, is a son of James C. and Elizabeth (Lawrence) Berryman. The father was born in White County, Va., in 1806, and in his youth went to North Carolina, where he was married, and in 1844 immigrated to Missouri, and located in Wayne County. At the end of one year he moved to Fredericktown, Mo., and purchased a farm of 200 acres at Buckeye mines. He was county judge several years, and was one of Madison County's substantial citizens. He died in 1884. His wife, Elizabeth Lawrence, was a native of North Carolina, born in 1810, and died in 1845, in Wayne County. James C. Berryman afterward married Miss Matilda Baird, who also died. Mr. Berryman was the father of eighteen children, eight by his first marriage, Nathaniel being the second child. He attained his growth on the farm, and in 1858 went to California to seek for wealth, remaining in the Eureka State until about 1862. He then returned to Madison County, and during the war was not engaged in any enterprise. In 1867 he married Miss Carrie Newberry, a native of Madison County, born in 1842, and the daughter of Hon. William M. Newberry. To them were born four children: Teresa, James, Robert and Joseph. In 1869 Mr. Berryman was appointed postmaster at Fredericktown, and held this position fifteen years under Republican rule, he being a Democrat. In November, 1882, he was elected county treasurer of Madison County, and was re-elected in 1884. Mr. Berryman is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and K. of H., and his wife is a member of the Christian Church."

Newspapers.com listed an article by Sig Dashiell dated November 12, 1986, published in the Daily Press, Newport News, Virginia, and which quoted the following from Hardesty's Historical and Geographical Enclyclopedia, Special Virginia Edition, published in 1884:

> Our Surry neighbors of a century ago, who probably have descendants in this area today, are profiled in Hardesty's Encyclopedia, published in 1884. My copy belonged to my grandfather, Dr. George Hines Jordan (1834-1889). Now backless and tattered, it features the history of and personal sketches from the counties of new Kent, Charles City, Surry and Isle of Wight:
>
> "Rev. Robert Wilkins Berryman, one of the old inhabitants of Surry County, is a farmer and minister of the gospel in the Methodist Protestant Church, having been ordained in 1858. During his ministry he has had charge of at least twenty churches, has taken into the church 150, baptized 50, married 719, and conducted 635 funeral services.
> His grandfather came from England, first to Bacon's Castle, where helived a few years, and in 1748 settled on the farm now owned by Robert W. Berryman, which has been in possession of the family ever since. It contains 100 acres, one-half of which is improved, and is adapted to raising all kinds of grain, fruits, peanuts, etc., and has plenty of timber for farming purposes. It is two and a half miles southeast of the courthouse, and four miles from the James River. Berryman's birth occurred in Surry County March 30, 1816. His father Nathaniel Berryman, born July 14, 1778, died July 24, 1841, and his mother, whose maiden name was Martha A. Judkins, born Aug. 18, 1776, died Nov. 8, 1821. His first marriage was with Irena Bennett, Dec. 14, 1837, and they had one child, Thomas E. born Sept. 21, 1839. She was born Oct. 9, 1820, and died May 23, 1840. In Surry County, March 3, 1841, was solemnized his marriage with Sarah E., daughter of Thomas M. and Nancy (Thomas) Thompson. Her mother, born in 1789, died Sept. 23, 1868. Sarah E. Thompson was born in Surry county May 4, 1819.

The children of Berryman's last marriage are ten, born: Martha Ann, June 13, 1842; John N. born 1844, died 1864; James W. S. 1845-1847; Mary E. A. Feb. 22, 1847; George R. T. March 25, 1849; Albert C. D. January 31, 1851, is a minister at Scottsville, Albermarle county, Virginia; Luther W. April 30, 1853; Willie M. M., Feb. 4, 1855; Henry J. J., Jan. 24, 1857; Emma S. iii. 1793 Samuel Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wife Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams, And His Descendants

1793 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4])

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on November 21, 1773, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/379, Samuel Judkins, Sr., William Judkins, and Samuel Judkins, Jr., all witnessed a deed from Randolph Price to Mary Adams for 35 acres of land bounded in part by Samuel Judkins.

The marriage record of Samuel Judkins and Hannah Presson, daughter of John Presson, was dated on February 14, 1784, at Surry County, Virginia, with William Judkins as surety and Thomas Bland, Jr., as witness:

> "Know all Men by these presents That We Samuel Judkins and William Judkins are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency Benja: Harrison Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the Sum of fifty pounds Current Money to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Benja Harrison and to his Successors We bind ourselves our Heirs Executors & Administrators firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals and dated this 14th Day of Feby 1784
> Whereas there is a Marriage Suddenly intended to be Solemnized according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England under the Commonwealth of Virginia between the above bound Samuel Judkins and Hannah Presson Daughter of John Presson Now the Condition of the above Obligation is Such that if there be no lawful Cause to obstruct the said Marriage then this obligation to be void or else to remain in full force.

On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs and listed Samuel Judkins as her brother, Samuel's wife as Hannah Judkins, and their son as Robert Judkins:

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

On March 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 258 to 259, in the case of Judkins vs. Blow, a complaint was filed to sell certain land of Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams and divide the proceeds among the heirs of her first husband Samuel Judkins:

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orators and oratrixes Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, William S. Sebrell and Virginia M his wife, and Robert E. Butts, Augustus J. Butts, Eveline Butts & Edward Butts infants suing by Edward Butts their father and next friend, that some years ago Saml. Judkins departed this life, leaving a last will & testament, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will, the testator divised to his wife Hannah for life the plantation whereon he lived at the time of his death, but at the same time directed that if the said Hannah should marry, then the testator's son Robert should immediately have one half of the said plantation, and the balance on the termination of the said life estate: and the said testator by his Said will further directed that if his son Robert should die before he arrived to the age of twenty one years, that his estate should be equally divided between his brothers, and sisters & cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: and your orators and oratrixes state that the said Hannah Judkins did marry after the death of the said testator, and afterwards departed this life; & that the said Robert departed this life, under age & without issue in the life time of the said Hannah: under these circumstances, the one half of the said plantation of which the said Hannah did possess, passed under the said will, to his brother's, of whom he had two, to wit, Joseph & John, his sister Rebecca & his cousin Martha W Judkins: the said Joseph Judkins some time since departed this life intestate, leaving two sons, namely your orators Joseph & John W. Judkins: and a widow [following text crossed out] named Mary who afterwards married James S. Clark, both of whom are now dead, and your orator James S. Clark is the son & heir at law of the said James S. Clark dec'd: [end of crossed out text] the said Joseph Judkins at the time of his death left also a daughter named Ann L. who afterwards married Edward Butts, and died leaving five children, to wit, your orators & oratrixes Virginia M. Sebrell, Robert E. Butts, Augustus J. Butts, Eveline Butts & Edward Butts: John Judkins, the other brother of the testator Samuel, departed this life intestate many years ago, leaving two children, namely Elizabeth W. Judkins & John P. Judkins: the said Elizabeth married one Collin Bishop, and died without issue leaving her brother the said Jno. P. Judkins her sole heir at law: the said John P. Judkins sometime thereafter departed this life, without issue, leaving a widow, named Ann, who is now the wife of Henry Blow, and your orators & oratrixes, together with the children of the said Martha W. Judkins hereafter named his heirs at law - Rebecca Judkins, the sister of the testator Samuel, departed this life some time in the year ___ unmarried & without issue in the life time of her brother John leaving a will by which she makes no disposition of her interest in the said land, in consequence of which the same passed by law to the children & heirs of her deceased brothers the said Joseph & John Judkins, together with the children of her niece the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Martha W. Judkins afterwards married Nathaniel Berryman, by who she had seven children, that is to say, Wm. J. Berryman, Mary A. W. Berryman, John D. Berryman, Martha E. Berryman, James C. Berryman, Edwd. T. Berryman &

Robert W. Berryman, the four last of whom are infants: afterwards, the said Martha W. departed this life, leaving her said seven children her heirs at law & entitled to her interest in the said land: your orators & oratrixes further state that the piece or parcel of land contains in all only about fifteen or twenty acres, which, when divided will not amt. pr share even to the third or fourth of one hundred dollars: the said piece or parcel of land with its appurtenances, as your orators & oratrixes are advised, is subject in the first instance, to division into four parts, one of which parts will be subdivided and distributed among your orators & oratrixes as the heirs at law of the said Joseph Judkins deceased: one other of the said parts is subject to division as herein before mentioned: one other of the said parts is subject to division among the heirs of the said Rebecca Judkins as herein before mentioned, and the remaining part belongs to the said children & heirs of the said Martha W. Berryman But so it is your orators & oratrixes have hitherto been unable in this respect to obtain their just rights.

In Tender consideration whereof &c To the end therefore that the said Henry Blow & Ann his wife, Wm. J. Berryman, Mary A. W. Berryman, Jno. D. Berryman Martha E. Berryman, James C. Berryman, Edwd. T. Berryman, & Robert W. Berryman (the four last named persons being infants by some person their guardian ad litem) may be made defendants hereto, & may upon their corporal oaths full & perfect answer make to all & singular the premises & that as fully as if the same were here again repeated & interrogated: your orators & oratrixes pray that your worships will decree a sale & division of the said piece or parcel of land with its appurtenances according to the rights of the several parties, aforesaid, & that you will make such other or further order or decree in the premises as to the court may seem just &c. may it please &c."

This is substantially the same family listing as in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey set forth above, but with the addition of the children of Ann L. (Judkins) Butts and the children of Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berryman. This record identifies the following family relationships:

1) Original testator Samuel Judkins,
2) Hannah Judkins, widow of Samuel Judkins and who died before March 22, 1830,
3) Robert Judkins, son of Samuel and Hannah Judkins and who died before age 21,

g) Robert W. Berryman, born after March 22, 1809.

The court in Judkins vs. Blow thereafter ordered a sale of the land and a division of the net proceeds among the surviving heirs, the land was sold for $31, and the net proceeds after expenses of $14.95 was divided among the heirs set forth above.

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Samuel Judkins was a son of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Martha (____) Judkins, married Hannah Presson on February 14, 1784, at Surry County, Virginia, and died before September 24, 1793, at Surry County, Virginia, that Hannah (Presson) Judkins married second William Adams on October 15, 1795, and that 1793 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Hannah (Presson) Judkins had the following child:

1) Robert Judkins.

From the evidence set forth above, the only child of Samuel Judkins and Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams was:

1) Robert Judkins, born before January 3, 1793.

(I) Robert Judkins

Robert Judkins was a son of 1793 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4], 1793 Samuel[5])

The will of Samuel Judkins dated January 3, 1793, and probated on September 2 or 24, 1793, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/52 listed Robert Judkins as his son:

> ". . . . On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs and listed Joseph Judkins as her brother, that Joseph died before 1798, and that Joseph's children were Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins and Ann L. (Judkins) Butts:

"To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children &

heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

In her letters dated December 10 and 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Joseph Judkins was a son of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Martha (____) Judkins, that he was born about 1762, married Mary Presson on November 23, 1785, at Surry County, Virginia, and died before July 28, 1795, at Surry County, Virginia, that Mary (Presson) Judkins married second James Sampson Clarke on July 24, 1798, and that Joseph Judkins of Surry County and Mary (Presson) Judkins had the following children:

1) John Wilkins Judkins, born in 1793,
2) Ann Lamb (Judkins) Butts, born before March 11, 1794, and
3) Joseph P. Judkins, born in 1795.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Joseph Judkins and Mary (Presson) (Judkins) Clarke were the following:

1) John Wilkins Judkins, born in 1793 in Virginia,
2) Ann Lamb (Judkins) Butts, and
3) Joseph P. Judkins

(I) 1852 John Wilkins Judkins, His Wife Sally R. (Berryman) Judkins, And His Descendants

1852 John Wilkins Judkins was a son of 1795 Joseph Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Mary (Presson) (Judkins) Clarke. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4], 1795 Joseph[5])

The will of 1795 Joseph Judkins dated on March 22, 1795, and probated on July 28, 1795, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/116 listed John Wilkins Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . Item I give and bequeath unto my Son John Wilkins Judkins when he arrives to the age of eighteen years old, the Plantation left me by my brother William Judkins last Will and Testament, also the plantation whereon I now live after my Wifes death to him and his heirs forever.

My will and desire is that the plantation left me by my brother William Judkins last Will and Testament should be rented out until my son John Wilkins Judkins arrives to the age of eighteen years old, for to educate my Children . . . ."

On March 23, 1814, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 4/322, John W. Judkins purchased from Randolph Fitchett, as administrator of the estate of James S. Lane, 60 acres of land adjacent to the land of the estate of Jacob Judkins and which had been mortgaged by Charles Judkins on November 23, 1807:

On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs and listed Joseph Judkins as her brother, that Joseph Judkins died before 1798, and that Joseph's son was John W. Judkins:

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

The court in the case of Judkins v. Bailey appointed commissioners to sell the slaves and divide the proceeds among Rebecca Judkins' heirs and the following accounting was filed showing the division of the net proceeds among those heirs, including John W. Judkins:

On March 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 258 to 259, in the case of Judkins vs. Blow, a complaint was filed to sell certain land of Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams and divide the proceeds among the heirs of her first husband Samuel Judkins and listed John W. Judkins as a son of Joseph Judkins and Mary (____) (Judkins) Clark:

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orators and oratrixes Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, William S. Sebrell and Virginia M his wife, and Robert E. Butts, Augustus J. Butts, Eveline Butts & Edward Butts infants suing by Edward Butts their father and next friend, that some years ago Saml. Judkins departed this life, leaving a last will & testament, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will, the testator divised to his wife Hannah for life the plantation whereon he lived at the time of his death, but at the same time directed that if the said Hannah should marry, then the testator's son Robert should immediately have one half of the said plantation, and the balance on the termination of the said life estate: and the said testator by his Said will further directed that if his son Robert should die before he arrived to the age of twenty one years, that his estate should be equally divided between his brothers, and sisters & cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: and your orators and oratrixes state that the said Hannah Judkins did marry after the death of the said testator, and afterwards departed this life; & that the said Robert departed this life, under age & without issue in the life time of the said Hannah: under these circumstances, the one half of the said plantation of which the said Hannah did possess, passed under the said will, to his brother's, of whom he had two, to wit, Joseph & John, his sister Rebecca & his cousin Martha W Judkins: the said Joseph Judkins some time since departed this life intestate, leaving two sons, namely your orators Joseph & John W. Judkins: and a widow [following text crossed out] named Mary who afterwards married James S. Clark, both of whom are now dead, and your orator James S. Clark is the son & heir at law of the said James S. On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs and listed Joseph Judkins as her brother, that Joseph Judkins died before 1798, and that Joseph's daughter was Ann L. (Judkins) Butts, and that Ann was then deceased:

Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

The court in the case of Judkins v. Bailey appointed commissioners to sell the slaves and divide the proceeds among Rebecca Judkins' heirs and the following accounting was filed showing the division of the net proceeds among those heirs, including Edward Butts:

On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs and listed Joseph Judkins as her brother, that Joseph Judkins died before 1798, and that Joseph's son was Joseph P. Judkins:

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

The court in the case of Judkins v. Bailey appointed commissioners to sell the slaves and divide the proceeds among Rebecca Judkins' heirs and the following accounting was filed showing the division of the net proceeds among those heirs, including Joseph Judkins:

The will of 1811 John Judkins of Surry County was dated on April 20, 1811, probated on September 24, 1811, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/431, and provided as follows:

"In the name of God Amen I John Judkins of Southward Parish, in the county of Surry being sick and weak but thank God, of sound mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and Testament in manner and form following - Imprimis I hereby charge my personal estate with the payment of any legal claim which may be made on my estate, I also charge it with the maintenance of my wife and children and of the expense of my son John Pettway Judkins' education, until the first day of January which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen or until my estate be sooner divided pursuant to some provision herein after made. Item, It is my desire that my said son John Pettway Judkins should receive a good clasical Education, and be brought up to some liberal proffession, if in the opinion of my executrix hereafter named (during her widowhood) and in the opinion of my executor herein after named he is capable of taking such an Education, and shall prove himself virtusus and studious, which I trust and hope in God he may for his own honor and future welfare - But in case my executrix (during her widowhood) and my executor should at any time deem it advisable to discontinue my said son from School, I request he may be put to such occupation as they, or either of them, may judge most advisable - Item, My will and desire is that my household and kitchen furniture should not be sold except such part as my loving wife may, during her widowhood, direct, but that the same divided equally between my said loving wife, my daughter Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins and my son John Pettway Judkins, as soon as may be, after the first day of January which will be in the year, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, or upon either the marriage of my loving wife (should that happen before said first day of January, or sooner termination of my said sons education) one third part thereof I lend to my said loving wife, Ann during her life, after her death the part assigned to her, I give equally to my two children before named - I also give the remaining two thirds to my said children to them and their heirs forever - Item, In case the sales of my brandy which may be on hand at the time of my death, and such part of my stocks as my executrix and executor may deem advisable to sell (which I hereby authorize them to sell either publicly or privately) together with what money I may have in the house and due me and the annual proceeds of my whole estate, (until a division of the same may take place) should prove insufficient to support my wife and my said two children, and defray the expenses attending my son John Pettway Judkins' education, I desire that my executrix and executor may sell a negroe or negroes of my estate if they in their judgement think proper for that purpose - Item, it is my will and desire that between the first day of November which will be the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and the first day of January next following), or in any year sooner (within the same period of time) should my loving wife marry or my said sons education be sooner terminated that the remaining part of all the Stocks, the crop that may be on hand and other personal estate, except my riding chair and harness, be divided into three equal portions, one of which portions I lend to my loving wife during her natural life, as also my riding chair and harness - At the death of my wife, I give and bequeath the said property equally between my Daughter and son herein before named. The remaining two thirds (except my negroes) I desire may be sold for the equal benefit of my said two children - Item, It is my will and desire that at the time of my wifes marriage or my sons attaining the age of twenty one years, and not sooner, that one third part of my lands not divised to my daughter (having regard as well to quality as quantity) be laid off, which I lend to my beloved wife Ann during her natural life - Item, After assigning to my wife Ann one third part of my negroes (to be held by her during her life) I give and bequeath the remaining two thirds to be equally divided between my two children Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins and John Pettway Judkins, to them and their heirs forever - Item, I give and devise to my daughter Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins, when she shall attain the age of twenty one years or marry, in fee simple, all the Land I received in the division of the Land formerly Robert Judkins deceased, containing by a late survey forty six and a half acres - I also in like manner give to my said daughter the land I purchased of Nathaniel Berriman junior, the latter containing by a late survey thirty nine and one quarter acres, to her and her heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and devise to my son John Pettway Judkins when he shall attain the age of twenty one years or marry with the consent of my executrix and executor, in fee simple, all the land and plantation whereon I now live, and the land adjoining thereto, given me by my father's will, also one other tract of land containing by estimation one hundred acres, be the same more or less, adjoining the lands of John Faulcon (Mill Neck) Burwell Barhams and Thomas Lanes, I give it all to him and his heirs and assigns forever, subject nevertheless to the life right of his mother as given in this my will - Item, If either of my children should die under age and without living issue, my will and desire is that the survivor shall receive all the estate devised to the one so dying. - Item, In case my daughter Elizabeth W. Judkins and my son John P. Judkins should both die under age, and without living issue, I in that case give and devise unto my loving wife Ann, if she be living in fee simple, all the estate that came to me by my marriage with her, to wit, negro boy Davy, negro woman Hannah and her issue, if any, one feather Bed and furniture - I in like manner also give and devise to my said wife, and to her heirs and assigns forever that part of my plantation whereon I now life (sic), which I purchased of James Gray, containing one hundred and twenty six acres, be the same more or less - The remainder of the estate devised to my said children I, under the like circumstances, desire may pass to my relatives in the manner prescribed by the Law of decents for the distribution of Intestes estates - Item, Should my daughter Elizabeth W. Judkins marry before a division of my personal estate takes place, it is my will and desire that my executrix and my executor allow her annually until a division is made, such sum as they may judge right, not exceeding seventy dollars per annum - Lastly, I nominate, constitute and appoint my loving wife Ann executrix to this my last will and Testament, during her widowhood, but should she marry I hereby direct that she nor her husband shall not act as such nor shall either of them in any manner have the direction of my children - I also appoint my friend John Faulcon executor of this my will - In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twentieth day of April in the year of Christ one thousand eight hundred and eleven

On March 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 258 to 259, in the case of Judkins vs. Blow, a complaint was filed to sell certain land of Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams and divide the proceeds among the heirs of her first husband Samuel Judkins and listed John Judkins as a brother of Samuel Judkins and his wife as Ann (____) (Judkins) Jones:

"To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orators and oratrixes Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, William S. Sebrell and Virginia M his wife, and Robert E. Butts, Augustus J. Butts, Eveline Butts & Edward Butts infants suing by Edward Butts their father and next friend, that some years ago Saml. Judkins departed this life, leaving a last will & testament, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will, the testator divised to his wife Hannah for life the plantation whereon he lived at the time of his death, but at the same time directed that if the said Hannah should marry, then the testator's son Robert should immediately have one half of the said plantation, and the balance on the termination of the said life estate: and the said testator by his Said will further directed that if his son Robert should die before he arrived to the age of twenty one years, that his estate should be equally divided between his brothers, and sisters & cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: and your orators and oratrixes state that the said Hannah Judkins did marry after the death of the said testator, and afterwards departed this life; & that the said Robert departed this life, under age & without issue in the life time of the said Hannah: under these circumstances, the one half of the said plantation of which the said Hannah did possess, passed under the said will, to his brother's, of whom he had two, to wit, Joseph & John, his sister Rebecca & his cousin Martha W Judkins:
. . . .
John Judkins, the other brother of the testator Samuel, departed this life intestate many years ago, leaving two children, namely Elizabeth W. Judkins & John P. Judkins: the said Elizabeth married one Collin Bishop, and died without issue leaving her brother the said Jno. P. Judkins her sole heir at law: the said John P. Judkins sometime thereafter departed this life, without issue, leaving a widow, named Ann, who is now the wife of Henry Blow, and your orators & oratrixes, together with the children of the said Martha W. Judkins hereafter named his heirs at law - Rebecca Judkins, the sister of the testator Samuel, departed this life some time in the year ___ unmarried & without issue in the life time of her brother John leaving a will by which she makes no disposition of her interest in the said land, in consequence of which the same passed by law to the children & heirs of her deceased brothers the said Joseph & John Judkins, together with the children of her niece the said Martha Wilkins Judkins:

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that John Judkins of Surry County was a son of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Martha (____) Judkins, that he was born about 1768, married Ann (Pettway) Spratley in April 1795 at Surry County, Virginia, and died before September 1811 at Surry County, Virginia, that Ann (Pettway) (Spratley) Judkins married for her third husband James Jones in May 1813, and that John Judkins of Surry County and Ann (Pettway) (Spratley) Judkins had the following children:

1) Elizabeth Wilkins (Judkins) Bishop, and

2) John Pettway Judkins, born in 1796.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1811 John Judkins and Ann (Pettway) (Spratley) (Judkins) Jones were the following:

1) Elizabeth Wilkins (Judkins) Bishop, and

2) John Pettway Judkins, born in about 1796.

(I) Elizabeth Wilkins (Judkins) Bishop And Her Husband Collin Bishop

Elizabeth Wilkins (Judkins) Bishop was a daughter of 1811 John Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Ann (Pettway) (Spratley) (Judkins) Jones. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4], 1811 John[5])

The will of John Judkins dated April 20, 1811, and probated on September 24, 1811, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/431 listed Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins as his daughter:

. . . . Item, My will and desire is that my household and kitchen furniture should not be sold except such part as my loving wife may, during her widowhood, direct, but that the same divided equally between my said loving wife, my daughter Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins and my son John Pettway Judkins, as soon as may be, after the first day of January which will be in the year, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, or upon either the marriage of my loving wife (should that happen before said first day of January, or sooner termination of my said sons education) one third part thereof I lend to my said loving wife, Ann during her life, after her death the part assigned to her, I give equally to my two children before named - I also give the remaining two thirds to my said children to them and their heirs forever . . . . Item, I give and devise to my daughter Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins, when she shall attain the age of twenty one years or marry, in fee simple, all the Land I received in the division of the Land formerly Robert Judkins deceased, containing by a late survey forty six and a half acres - I also in like manner give to my said daughter the land I purchased of Nathaniel Berriman junior, the latter containing by a late survey thirty nine and one quarter acres, to her and her heirs and assigns forever. . . ."

The marriage bond of Elizabeth W. Judkins and Collin Bishop was dated on June 5, 1815, at Surry County, Virginia, with the consent of Micajah Holt, guardian for Elizabeth, and with Philip Smith as surety and the marriage on June 7, 1815, by Reverend Nathaniel Berriman, a Methodist minister, who listed her name as Jenkins:

"Know all men by these presents that we Collin Bishop & Philip Smith are held and firmly bound unto Wilson Nicholas esqr Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, for the time being, and to his successors in the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars to the payment of which well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves our heirs exors and admors jointly and severally firmly by these presents

Witness our hands and seals the 5th day of June 1815

The Condition of the above obligation is that if there is no lawful cause to obstruct a marriage intended to be had and solemnized between the said Collin Bishop & miss W. Judkins then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Elizabeth Wilkins (Judkins) Bishop was a daughter of John Judkins of Surry County and Ann (Pettway) (Spratley) (Judkins) Jones, married Collin Bishop on June 7, 1815, and died by 1821.

(II) 1821 John Pettway Judkins Of Surry County And His Wife Ann Faulcon (Holt) (Judkins) (Blow) (Clarke) Morris

1821 John Pettway Judkins was a son of 1811 John Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Ann (Pettway) (Spratley) (Judkins) Jones. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4], 1811 John[5])

The will of John Judkins dated April 20, 1811, and probated on September 24, 1811, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/431 listed John Pettway Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . Imprimis I hereby charge my personal estate with the payment of any legal claim which may be made on my estate, I also charge it with the maintenance of my wife and children and of the expense of my son John Pettway Judkins' education, until the first day of January which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen or until my estate be sooner divided pursuant to some provision herein after made. Item, It is my desire that my said son John Pettway Judkins should receive a good clasical Education, and be brought up to some liberal proffession, if in the opinion of my executrix hereafter named (during her widowhood) and in the opinion of my executor herein after named he is capable of taking such an Education, and shall prove himself virtusus and studious, which I trust and hope in God he may for his own honor and future welfare - But in case my executrix (during her widowhood) and my executor should at any time deem it advisable to discontinue my said son from School, I request he may be put to such occupation as they, or either of them, may judge most advisable - Item, My will and desire is that my household and kitchen furniture should not be sold except such part as my loving wife may, during her widowhood, direct, but that the same divided equally between my said loving wife, my daughter Elizabeth Wilkins Judkins and my son John Pettway Judkins, as soon as may be, after the first day of January which will be in the year, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, or upon either the marriage of my loving wife (should that happen before said first day of January, or sooner termination of my said sons education) one third part thereof I lend to my said loving wife, Ann during her life, after her death the part assigned to her, I give equally to my two children before named. . . . Item, I give and devise to my son John Pettway Judkins when he shall attain the age of twenty one years or marry with the consent of my executrix and executor, in fee simple, all the land and plantation whereon I now live, and the land adjoining thereto, given me by my father's will, also one other tract of land containing by estimation one hundred acres, be the same more or less, adjoining the lands of John Faulcon (Mill Neck) Burwell Barhams and Thomas Lanes, I give it all to him and his heirs and assigns forever, subject nevertheless to the life right of his mother as given in this my will . . . ."

The marriage bond of John P. Judkins and Ann Faulcon Holt was dated on July 20, 1820, at Surry County, Virginia, with John N. Spratley as surety and the marriage by Reverend Nathaniel Berriman, a Methodist minister:

"Know all men by these presents that we, John P. Judkins and John N Spratley are held and firmly bound unto his excellency Thomas M. The commissioners appointed by a former decretal order pronounced in this cause having made their report in these words Vizt: To the worshipfull Court of Surry County. May it please &c. Pursuant to a decree of your worships pronounced December Court 1821 in a suit in Chancery wherein Mary Pettway et al: are complainants and John Faulcon admor &c. of John P Judkins deceased and Ann F Judkins widow and relict of said John P Judkins deceased are defendants, the undersigned commissioners therein named proceeded on the 2nd day of January 1822 to divide and allot the slaves whereof the said John P Judkins, deceased died possessed, according to the directions of the said decree into two equal moieties, and allotted and assigned to the defendant Ann F Judkins, widow and relict of the said John P Judkins, deceased, the following namely, Haley, Tom, Simon Hannah, Ribianna, and Jeff being one equal moiety thereof in value, to hold for and during her natural life, as and for her portion of the said decedents slaves. Manerva and John your commissioners found it impracticable to divide in kind among the complainants, according to their respective rights, and therefore advertised them to be sold on the next succeeding Court day, when they were stopped from further proceedings therein by Nathaniel Berriman and others who were parties interested, and complainants in this cause. Your commissioners in answer to the Summons awarded against them in this cause at the last term of this Court, beg leave further to report, that in order to make fair and equitable division of the lands of the said deceased as directed by the first decree, they required a Survey of all the lands to be made, and according to the appointment of the complainants themselves, they attended for the purpose of carrying that part of the decree into effect, when they were disappointed in receiving the said Survey and plats of the lands; which they have not been able since to obtain. All which they respectfully submit to the Court.

vi. Rebecca Judkins

Rebecca Judkins was a daughter of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], 1782 Samuel[4])

The will of 1782 Samuel Judkins dated February 1, 1782, and probated on July 23, 1782, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/276 listed Rebekkah Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . Item I give to my Daughter Rebekkah Judkins my Negro Girl Rose and all her increase one Feather Bed and Furniture and one Small Trunk - Item I give to my Grand Daughter Martha Wilkins Judkins my Negro Women Fanny after my Wife death and not before I give the sd Fanny after my Wife death and her future increase to her and the Heirs of her Body lawfully begotten but if she should have no such Heir then for Fanny and her increase to return back into my Estate and equally divided among all my Children William, Saml, Joseph John and Rebekkah . . . ."

The will of Martha (____) Judkins dated on March 11, 1794, and probated on October 28, 1794, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/75, listed Rebecca Judkins as her daughter:

"In the name of God amen I Martha Judkins of the county of Surry and in the parish of Southwarke . . . . do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament.
Item I give and bequeath unto my daughter Rebecca Judkins the remaining half of the crop of Corn and fodder, my Loom Slaves and harness, one cotton wheel, one Linen ditto, two pair of Cards one large trunk and one small ditto to her and her heirs forever.

On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs:

"To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator. under the circumstances your orators are advised that the said slaves are liable to division according to the common law doctrine of jur(?) representation, giving to the said Nathl. Berryman as admor. as aforesaid one third, to the proper representatives of Joseph Judkins one other third, and to the proper representatives of John Judkins the remaining third.

Your orators therefore have frequently applied to the said Wm E. Bailey ____(?) him to make division accordingly. But so it is ___(?) To the end therefore that the said Wm. E. Bailey admor. &c of Rebecca Judkins may be made deft. hereto & may upon oath answer the premises & that as fully as if the same were here again repeated & interrogated. Your orators pray that your worships will decree a sale & division of the said slaves as herein before mentioned, and that you will make such further decree for your orators relief as may seem just & equitable. may it please &c

The answer of Wm. E. Bailey admor. of Rebecca Judkins decd. to the bill of complaint exhibited against him in this court by Joseph Judkins & others complainants. This respondent saving & reserving to himself every benefit of exception to the bill for answer thereto saith, that the several allegations in the said bill set forth so far as he is advised are substantially true & correct, & he is willing, with the approbation of the court that such decree may be rendered in the premises as prayed for by the bill: and Having answered he prays to be dismissed with his costs &c

Judkins vs. Bailey - This cause came on this day to be heard by consent of parties, upon the bill, answer & exhibits filed, & was argued by counsel: on consideration whereof the court doth adjudge order & decree that Peter T. Spratley, Philip Smith, & Joseph Barham or any two of them, after advertising the time & place of sale for ten days successively sell at public auction upon a credit of nine months, except a sum sufficient to pay the expenses of sale & the costs of this suit, the slaves in the bill mentioned, to wit, Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack: that the said commrs. or such of them as may act take a bond with good security for one third part of the nett proceeds of sale payable to Nathl. Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha W.: that the said commrs. or such of them as may act divide one other third part of the said nett proceeds of sale, as follows, taking bonds with the like security payable to the several parties entitled to the same, that is to say 1/8 part of the said one third to Wm. E. Bailey admor. of Ann Jones: one moiety of the balance of the same to Wm. E. Bailey admor. of Elizabeth W. Bishop, and the residue of the said one third to Wm. E. Bailey admor. of John P. Judkins: that the said commrs. or such of them as may act divide the remaining one third of the said nett proceeds of sale, as follows, taking bonds, with the like security, payable to the several parties entitled to the same, that is to say one third thereof to Joseph Judkins, one third thereof to John W. Judkins, & one third thereof to Edward Butts admor. of his late wife Ann L formerly Ann L Judkins, & make report &c"

This record identifies the following family relationships:

1) Original testator Samuel Judkins,
2) Hannah Judkins, widow of Samuel Judkins and who died before February 22, 1830,
3) Robert Judkins, son of Samuel and Hannah Judkins and who died shortly after Samuel Judkins,
4) Rebecca Judkins, sister of Samuel Judkins and who died in 1798,
5) Joseph Judkins, brother of Samuel Judkins and who died before 1798,
6) Children of Joseph Judkins as follows:
    a) Joseph Judkins,
    b) John W. Judkins,
    c) Ann L. (Judkins) Butts, wife of Edward Butts,
7) John Judkins, brother of Samuel Judkins and who died after 1798,
8) Ann (____) (Judkins) Jones, widow of John Judkins and who died before February 22, 1830,
10) Children of John Judkins and Ann (____) (Judkins) Jones as follows:
    a) John P. Judkins, who died before February 22, 1830,
    b) Elizabeth W. (Judkins) Bishop, who died before February 22, 1830, 11) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berryman, niece of Rebecca Judkins and wife of Nathaniel Berryman and who died after 1798 and before February 22, 1830.

As mentioned above, this record does list Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berryman as a niece and heir of Rebecca Judkins. That Martha was a daughter of Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and 1818 James Judkins. However, this record does not list Martha's brother Joseph Judkins as a nephew or heir of Rebecca Judkins. That Joseph Judkins was named as a son in the will of 1818 James Judkins. The result is that this record indicates that Joseph Judkins, the son of 1818 James Judkins, was not a son of Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and was necessarily a son of the second wife of 1818 James Judkins.

On March 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 258 to 259, in the case of Judkins vs. Blow, a complaint was filed to sell certain land of Hannah (Presson) (Judkins) Adams and divide the proceeds among the heirs of her first husband Samuel Judkins and listed :

> "To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orators and oratrixes Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, William S. Sebrell and Virginia M his wife, and Robert E. Butts, Augustus J. Butts, Eveline Butts & Edward Butts infants suing by Edward Butts their father and next friend, that some years ago Saml. Judkins departed this life, leaving a last will & testament, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will, the testator divised to his wife Hannah for life the plantation whereon he lived at the time of his death, but at the same time directed that if the said Hannah should marry, then the testator's son Robert should immediately have one half of the said plantation, and the balance on the termination of the said life estate: and the said testator by his Said will further directed that if his son Robert should die before he arrived to the age of twenty one years, that his estate should be equally divided between his brothers, and sisters & cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: and your orators and oratrixes state that the said Hannah Judkins did marry after the death of the said testator, and afterwards departed this life; & that the said Robert departed this life, under age & without issue in the life time of the said Hannah: under these circumstances, the one half of the said plantation of which the said Hannah did possess, passed under the said will, to his brother's, of whom he had two, to wit, Joseph & John, his sister Rebecca & his cousin Martha W Judkins:
> Rebecca Judkins, the sister of the testator Samuel, departed this life some time in the year ___ unmarried & without issue in the life time of her brother John leaving a will by which she makes no disposition of her interest in the said land, in consequence of which the same passed by law to the children & heirs of her deceased brothers the said Joseph & John Judkins, together with the children of her niece the said Martha Wilkins Judkins:

This is the same family listing as that set forth in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, but with the addition of the children of Ann L. (Judkins) Butts and the children of Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berryman.

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rebekkah Judkins was a daughter of 1782 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Martha (____) Judkins and died by February 1798.

b. Ann (Judkins) Champion, Her Husband Champion, And Her Descendants

Ann (Judkins) Champion was a daughter of 1740 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Anne (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3])

The will of Samuel Judkins dated April 13, 1740, and probated on October 15, 1740, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 9/223 listed Ann (Judkins) Champion as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item - I give to my Daughter Anne Champian the labour of my Negro boy Robin During her Naturall Life and after her Decease I give the sd. Negro Robin to my Grandaughter Lucy Champian for ever I likewise give my said Daughter Anne Five pound Current money
> . . . .
> Item - My Will and Desire is that my two Negroes Robin and Will before disposed of to my Two Daughters Anne and Sarah be valued and the Diference made to my Daughter Sarah out of the money my Negro Hannah sells for and the rest of the money to be Equally divided between my Two Daughters Anne and Sarah
> Item - I give to my two Daughters Anne and Sarah my Negro Hanah after my Wife's Death or on the day of her marriage to another Husband in the manner before mentioned . . . ."

The will of Ann (____) Judkins dated December 12, 1756, and probated on March 15, 1757, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/87 listed Ann Champion as one of her children and listed six Champion grandchildren:

> ". . . . Item I give to my Grandson Benjamin Champion two pounds Current Money - Item I give to my Grandson Samuel Champion two pounds Current Money - Item I give to my Grandson Charles Champion two pounds Current Money - Item I give to my Grand Daughter Lucy Champion two pounds Current Money - Item I give to my Grand Daughter Sarah Champion Two pounds Current Money - Item I give to my Grand Daughter Mary Champion two pounds Current Money - . . . . My Will and desire is that all the rest of my Estate after my Debts and Legacies and Funeral Charges is paid my be sold and the money Equally Divided Between my Two Daughters Ann Champion and Sarah Holt Except my wearing Cloths and they may Divide them between them themselves. . . ."

This record identifies the children of Ann (Judkins) Champion as follows:

1) Benjamin Champion,
2) Samuel Champion,
3) Charles Champion,
4) Lucy Champion,
5) Sarah Champion, and
6) Mary Champion.

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Ann Judkins married ____ Champion, possibly Charles Champion, before April 13, 1740, and died before December 12, 1756 and that Charles Champion died in 1756.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of Ann (Judkins) Champion and ____ Champion were the following:

1) Lucy Champion, born before April 13, 1740,
2) Sarah Champion, born before December 12, 1756,
3) Charles Champion, born before December 12, 1756,
4) Samuel Champion, born before December 12, 1756,
5) Mary Champion, born before December 12, 1756, and
6) Benjamin Champion, born before December 12, 1756,.

i. Lucy Champion

Lucy Champion was a daughter of Ann (Judkins) Champion and ____ Champion. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1740 Samuel[3], Ann[4])

The will of Samuel Judkins dated April 13, 1740, and probated on October 15, 1740, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 9/223 listed Lucy Champion as one of his grandchildren:

". . . . Item - I give to my Daughter Anne Champian the labour of my Negro boy Robin During her Naturall Life and after her Decease I give the sd. Negro Robin to my Grandaughter Lucy Champian for ever I likewise give my said Daughter Anne Five pound Current money

Although the record listed the date of probate as November 19, 1772, I believe this is a mistake. The page placement of the will indicates the probate was in 1771 and the next prior document was filed on November 19, 1771. Whatever the correct date, this record identifies the family of Martha Judkins as follows:

Children: 1) Charles Judkins,
2) Mary (Judkins) Barham,
3) Sarah (Judkins) Barham,
4) Ann (Judkins) Mooring,
5) Joseph Judkins,
6) Samuel Judkins, and
7) Jesse Judkins,

Grandchild: 1) Patty Thompson.

Southside Virginia Families, Volume 2, "Judkins of Surry", stated that John Judkins was a son of 1705 Samuel Judkins and Elizabeth (Petway) Judkins and was born between 1686 and 1690.

In her letter dated December 31, 1990, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington questioned whether John Judkins was a son of 1705 Samuel Judkins of Surry County and Elizabeth (Petway) Judkins.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1760 John Judkins and Martha (____) were the following:

1) Nicholas Judkins, born probably before 1713 or between about 1710 and 1712,
2) William Judkins,
3) Joseph Judkins,
4) Samuel Judkins, born before December 12, 1758,
5) Jesse Judkins,
6) Charles Judkins,
7) John Judkins,
8) Mary (Judkins) Barham,
9) Ann (Judkins) Mouring, born in Surry County, Virginia
10) Sarah (Judkins) Barham, and
11) ____ (Judkins) Thomson.

1765 Nicholas Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1760 John Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3])

The will of John Judkins dated December 12, 1758, and probated on May 20, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/225, listed Nicholas Judkins as one of his children:

As set forth above, this was the land given to John Judkins by his father Nicholas Judkins in his will.

Southside Virginia Families, Volume II, "Judkins of Surry" stated that Nicholas Judkins was born between 1710 and 1712.

Virginia Will Records, From The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, the William and Mary College Quarterly, and Tyler's Quarterly, listed the following in "Notes From The Records Of Sussex County":

This record may identify the wife of 1765 Nicholas Judkins as Elizabeth (Cryer) Judkins, but since the wife of 1809 Charles Judkins was also an Elizabeth (____) Judkins, further research will be required to confirm Elizabeth (Cryer) Judkins as the wife of 1765 Nicholas Judkins.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1765 Nicholas Judkins and Elizabeth (____) Judkins were the following:

1) John Judkins,
2) Jacob Judkins, born after May 20, 1742,
3) Mary (Judkins) Burt,
4) Martha (Judkins) Egerton, born before 1755,

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that the will of John Judkins was probated on June 20, 1791, at Surry County, Virginia.

ii. 1798 Jacob Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wife Sarah "Sally" (Hart) Judkins, And His Descendants

1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1765 Nicholas Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4])

The will of Nicholas Judkins dated on May 20, 1763, and probated on June 18, 1765, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/385, listed Jacob Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . I give and bequeath to my son Jacob Judkins the tract of land whereon I now live and to his heirs also I give to my son Jacob my Brandy still after he arrives at the age of twenty years until he arrives to that age my will and desire is that my Loving Wife Elizabeth Judkins shall have the use of the said still. I give to my Son Jacob one feather bed and furniture, six pewter dishes, six plates, one iron pot and ten pounds current money. . . . I also give to my Loving Wife the use of Negroes Patt and Jane, during her Widowhood or Life after her Widowhood or Death my Will and Desire is that the said two Negroes with their increase be equally divided between my four daughters Mary, Elizabeth, Martha, and Ann. I also give to my said Loving Wife the use of all the remainder part of my Estate during her Widowhood or Life and after her Widowhood or Death my Will and Desire is that all my said Estate the Legacy's excepted be equally divided between my six children; Mary, Elizabeth, John, Martha, Ann and Jacob all that part or parcel of my Fathers Estate which he gave me in his Last Will and Testament. Reference being had thereunder will more fully appear to be equally divided amongst my said six children. . . ."

The identification of Sarah Judkins, the wife of 1798 Jacob Judkins, as Sarah (Hart) Judkins, the daughter of Hartwell Hart and Lucy (Pettway) Hart, was first made by Lyndon H. Hart III based on the following documents.

The will of Edward Pettway was dated on October 3, 1765, probated on November 15, 1766, and provided in part a gift of a life estate in two slaves and their children to his daughter Lucy (Pettway) Hart and her husband Hartwell Hart with the remainder to Lucy's children:

> "In the Name of God Amen I Edward Pettway of Surry County being in Perfect Health Sound mind & memory do make this my last Will & Testament in manner following.
> Item I give the use & labour of Ben & Hannah & all their Children to my Daughter Lucy Hart & my son in Law Hartwell Hart during their natural Lives & after their Death I give the said negroes to be Equally Divided amongst my Daughter Lucy Harts Children

In about December 1805 at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1807-004, Sarah (Hart) Judkins joined other children and grandchildren of Hartwell Hart to petition the court to divide thirteen slaves in which Hartwell Hart held a life estate among Hartwell Hart, his children, and the children of Hartwell's deceased children and Hartwell Hart joined in support of that petition:

> "To the Worshipful Court of Surry County in Chancery Sitting, Humbly Complaining shew to your worships your orator and oratrixes, John Hart, Thomas Bage & Elizabeth his wife late Elizabeth Hart, Patsey Hart, Sarah Judkins, late Sarah Hart & Jesse Hart, the said John, Elizabeth, & Patsey are the Children of Edward Hart, decd. & Sarah & Jesse are the Children of Hartwell Hart, & Polly, Sally, Robert & William Hart, Children of William Hart ded. the said four children being under age, by their mother Sarah Hart, their next friend - & Pressy Hart, Jenny Hart & Ruffia Hart, Children of Joseph Hart decd. by their next frd. Hannah Hart That Hartwell Hart holds in his possession a Number of negroes to which he has a life estate, and after his death they are the property of his Children. That the said Hartwell Hart has expressed a wish to surrender his life Estate, on thirteen of the said Negroes - & is willing that the Court shall make a Decree to that effect. Your orators & oratrixes further shew that Lucy Hart one of the Children of Hartwell Hart decd. departed this life intestate and without issue, so that her proportion descends to her father. Your orators and oratrixes humbly hope that your worships will decree that the said thirteen negroes may be equally divided into six Equal parts & assigned as follows, one sixth to the Children of Edward Hart, one sixth to Joseph Harts Children, one sixth to William Harts Children, one sixth to your complainant Jesse Hart, & one sixth to your Complainant Sarah Judkins, and the remaining sixth to Hartwell Hart, the Defendant, as Heir of Law of Lucy Hart decd.

Your orator and oratrixes, humbly hope that the Court will grant such other and further relief in the premises as may be consistent with Equity.

The Answer of Hartwell Hart to the foregoing Bill,

The Defendant admits the truth of the foregoing Bill & wishes such a Decree as is prayed for.

In July 1806 the court entered a decree appointing commissioners to divide and allot the slaves among the parties and on February 28, 1806, the commissioners filed their report dated January 11, 1806, and allocated slaves Jacob and Nancy to Sarah (Hart) Judkins:

"Pursuant to an Order of the Worshipfull Court of Surry to us directed and which is hereunto annexed we divided the Slaves herein alluded to, in the following manner to wit --
. . . .
To Sarah Judkins - Jacob & Nancy and to receive from Hartwell Hart the sum of five dollars, from Jesse Hart the sum of five dollars, & from Hannah Hart Guardian to the infants of Joseph Hart the sum of fifteen dollars.

As set forth below, the will of Sarah Judkins dated June 19, 1820, and probated on March 26, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/487 made a gift of her slave Jacob to her daughter Lucy and referenced her slave Nanny, the same named slaves that had been allocated to her pursuant to the report.

These three documents taken together identify Sarah Judkins, the wife of Jacob Judkins, as the same person as Sarah (Hart) Judkins, the daughter of Hartwell Hart and Lucy (Pettway) Judkins.

The 1810 Census for Surry County, Virginia, listed Sally Judkins with the following household:

| Name of Head of Family | Free White Males | Age | Free White Female | Age | All Other Free Persons | Slaves |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Sally Judkins | 2 | 26-45 | 1 | 45+ | 1 | 9 |
| | 1 | 16-26 | 1 | 16-26 | | |

This record indicates that Sarah "Sally" (Hart) Judkins was born before about 1765.

The 1820 Census for Surry County, Virginia, listed Sally Judkins with the following household on August 7, 1820:

| Names of Heads of Families | Free White Males | Age | Free White Females | Age | Foreigners |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Sally Judkins | 1 | 26-45 | 1 | 45+ | |

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 2 | 45+ | | | | | |
| 1 | 14-26 | | | | | |
| 2 | 0-14 | | | | | |

This record indicates that Sarah "Sally" (Hart) Judkins was born before about 1775.

The will of Sarah Judkins was dated on June 19, 1820, probated on March 26, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/487, and provided as follows:

> "In the name of God amen I Sarah Judkins of the County of Surry, being aged and infirm, but of perfect mind and Memory, do make, ordain and constitute, this my last Will and Testament in Manner and form following to wit.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Nicholas H. Judkins was a son of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (____) Judkins.

(IV) William G. Judkins

William G. Judkins was a son of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Sarah (Hart) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4], 1798 Jacob[5])

The will of Jacob Judkins dated July 7, 1798, and probated on October 23, 1798, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/292 listed William G. Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . 2dly After my just debts are paid sho'ud there be any money remaining from the sale of the above mention'd perishable part of my estate, it is my will and desire that it may be equally divided between my Children - Elizabeth Burt, John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Lucy Judkins, Susanna Judkins, Mary Judkins, Jacob Judkins and William G. Judkins, for the use of them and their heirs for ever. 3dly I give unto my beloved Wife Sarah Judkins the use of my Plantation, and all my negroes to wit, Simon, James, Fanny, Ben and Anerky, during the term of her natural life or Widowhood, and after her decease or Widow, I give the same to my sons herein after mentioned, to wit, John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Jacob Judkins, William G. Judkins, equally to be divided among them, and to be enjoyed by them and their heirs for ever. . . ."

The division of the land of Jacob Judkins dated October 16, 1821, in Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 6/378 and 6/380 did not include a William G. Judkins, indicating that he had probably died before that date.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that William G. Judkins was a son of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (____) Judkins.

(V) Elizabeth (Judkins) Burt, Her Husband Edward Burt, And Her Descendants

Elizabeth (Judkins) Burt was a daughter of Judkins of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Sarah (Hart) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4], 1798 Jacob[5])

The marriage bond of Elizabeth Judkins and Edward Burt was dated on July 13, 1796, at Surry County, Virginia, with Jacob Judkins as surety and the marriage on July 14, 1796, by Reverend Samuel Butler, Rector of Southwark Parish Episcopal Church:

"Know all men by these presents that we Edward Burt & Jacob Judkins are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency Robert Brooke Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the penal sum of one hundred & fifty dollars to be paid to the said Robert Brooke Governor as aforesaid and to his Successors to which payment well and truly to be made We bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly & severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our Seals &c dated this 13th day of July 1796

Whereas there is a marriage shortly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Edward Burt & Elisabeth Judkins agreeably to the ceremonies of the Church of which they are members Now the condition of the above obligation is such that if there be no lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage then the said obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force and vlaue

Surry County Clerks Office,to wit,

I John Faulcon Clerk of the Court of said County, do hereby certify that Edward Burt, Elizabeth Burt, Nicholas H. Judkins, Rebecca Judkins, John C. Judkins & Lucy Judkins parties to the within deed of bargain and sale to Jacob Judkins, for Real estate, personally appeared before me and acknowledged the same to be their act and deed. The said Elizabeth Burt and Rebecca Judkins also relinquished before me all their right in the land conveyed. The Receipt endorsed was likewise acknowledged by the sign on thereto. Given under my hand as clerk of the aforesaid the 22nd day of April 1822."

Rejected or Suspended Applications for Revolutionary War Pensions, dated September 16, 1850, available from Ancestry.com, listed the following:

| "Names. | Residence. | Reasons for rejection. |
|---|---|---|
| Edward Burt | Sussex | Did not serve six months." |

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Elizabeth (Judkins) Burt was a daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (____) Judkins, married Edward Burt on July 14, 1796, and that they had the following children:

1) Polly Burt,
2) Patsy Burt, and
3) William Burt.

However, in her letter dated January 29, 1995, Norma J. Pennington stated that either Susanna Judkins or Mary Judkins could have married a ____ Burt and died before Sarah (____) Judkins, thereby generating the four Burt grandchildren mentioned in Sarah (____) Judkins' will. The reason for this possibility is that Jacob Judkins had a son Joseph Judkins who was born before Sarah (____) Judkins wrote her will and was not mentioned in that will, suggesting that the Burt grandchildren mentioned were children of a deceased child and not children of a living child. Elizabeth (Judkins) Burt was mentioned in Sarah (____) Judkins' will, thus suggesting that the Burt grandchildren were not hers. Further research will be required to confirm the identity of these Burt grandchildren.

(VI) Lucy Judkins

Lucy Judkins was a daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Sarah (Hart) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4], 1798 Jacob[5])

The will of Jacob Judkins dated July 7, 1798, and probated on October 23, 1798, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/292 listed Lucy Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . 2dly After my just debts are paid sho'ud there be any money remaining from the sale of the above mention'd perishable part of my estate, it is my will and desire that it may be equally divided between my Children - Elizabeth Burt, John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Lucy Judkins, Susanna Judkins, Mary Judkins, Jacob Judkins and William G. Judkins, for the use of them and their heirs for ever.
> 5thly I give unto my daughter Lucy Judkins, one feather Bed & furniture to her and her heirs for ever. . . ."

The will of Sarah Judkins dated June 19, 1820, and probated on March 26, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/487 listed Lucy Judkins as one of her children:

> ". . . . 2nd I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucy Judkins, my Negroe Man Jacob to her and her heirs forever.

On May 5, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 6/214, Lucy Judkins, as one of the children of Jacob Judkins, settled with Edward Burt his accounting for the estate of Jacob Judkins:

> "Know all men by these presents, that whereas, We John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Jacob Judkins and Lucy Judkins, children and legatees of Jacob Judkins decd., have this day had a final settlement with Edward Burt Executor of the Testament and last will of the said Jacob Judkins decd., wherein he has accounted with us, for all & singular the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said decedent, which has come to his hands or possession, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him, & have this day paid over & delivered to us respectively all the legacies bequeathed to us in the said last will and Testament: Now know ye, that for and in consideration of the premises and for the sum of one dollar to us in hand paid by the said Edward Burt, Exor as aforesaid, we the said John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Jacob Judkins and Lucy Judkins, have remised, released & forever discharged, and by these presents do for ourselves, our heirs, exors: as aforesaid, his heirs, exors: & admors: of, & for all legacies, and all manner of actions, causes of actions, controversies, agreements, damages, Judgments, costs, extent, executions, claims & demands whatsoever, in Law or in equity, which against the said Edwd. Burt executor as aforesaid, we ever had, now have, or which we, our heirs, Exors: or admors: hereafter can, shall, or may have, for or upon or by reason of the executorship aforesaid, from the commencement of the same to the day and date of these presents.

In witness whereof, we the parties have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seals, this fifth day of May 1821.

The will of Lucy Judkins dated on January 19, 1825, was probated on February 28, 1825, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 4/329 and provided as follows:

"I Lucy Judkins of Surry County being of a disposing mind do make and declare this to be my last will and Testament in manner and form as followeth to wit.

Item 1st I give unto my Brother John C. Judkins my negro Man Jacob one trunk, and looking glass, one Feather bed & furniture my part of the Land that belonged to me by the death of my Brother William Judkins dec'd and one half of the money due me by note or otherwise, to him and his heirs for ever.

Item 2d I give to my Brother Jacob Judkins one large trunk one Feather bed & furniture and one half the money due me by note or otherwise to him and his heirs forever.

Item 3rd Constitute and appoint my Brother John C. Judkins my whole and sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

At a Court held for Surry County, February 28th 1825.

The within written last Will and Testament of Lucy Judkins deceased, was presented in Court by John C. Judkins the Executor, the same being proved by the oaths of Thomas Cocks and Joseph Judkins the witnesses thereto, by the Court ordered to be recorded. The said John C. Judkins gave Bond with Thomas Cocks and Hartwell P. Hart his securities in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned as the Law directs, whereupon a certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate thereof in due form.

Exam'd Teste"

The identification of her brothers John C. Judkins, William Judkins, and Jacob Judkins identify this Lucy Judkins as the daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (Hart) Judkins.

On February 28, 1825, at Surry County, Virginia, Executors Bonds 1816-1831, page 95, John C. Judkins, Thomas Cocks, and Hartwell P. Hart filed their bond for the appointment of John C. Judkins as executor of the will of Lucy Judkins.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Lucy (Judkins) Logan was a daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (____) Judkins and married James Logan on November 11, 1805. However, since Lucy was named as Judkins and not Logan in the will of Sarah (____) Judkins written in 1820, fifteen years after the 1805 marriage date, it seems unlikely that the Lucy Judkins who married James Logan was the daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins and Sarah (____) Judkins. In addition, the marriage bond of Lucy Judkins and James Logan listed her as the daughter of John Judkins, not Jacob Judkins.

(VII) Susanna Judkins

Susanna Judkins was a daughter of Judkins of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Sarah (Hart) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4], 1798 Jacob[5])

The will of Jacob Judkins dated July 7, 1798, and probated on October 23, 1798, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/292 listed Susanna Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . 2dly After my just debts are paid sho'ud there be any money remaining from the sale of the above mention'd perishable part of my estate, it is my will and desire that it may be equally divided between my Children - Elizabeth Burt, John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Lucy Judkins, Susanna Judkins, Mary Judkins, Jacob Judkins and William G. Judkins, for the use of them and their heirs for ever.

6thly I give unto my daughter Susanna Judkins one featherbed and furniture, to her and her heirs for ever. . . ."

The division of the land of Jacob Judkins dated October 16, 1821, in Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 6/378 and 6/380 did not include a Susanna Judkins, indicating that she had probably died before that date.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Suzanna Judkins was a daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (____) Judkins.

(VIII) Mary Judkins

Mary Judkins was a daughter of Judkins of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Sarah (Hart) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4], 1798 Jacob[5])

The will of Jacob Judkins dated July 7, 1798, and probated on October 23, 1798, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 1/292 listed Mary Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . 2dly After my just debts are paid sho'ud there be any money remaining from the sale of the above mention'd perishable part of my estate, it is my will and desire that it may be equally divided between my Children - Elizabeth Burt, John C. Judkins, Nicholas H. Judkins, Lucy Judkins, Susanna Judkins, Mary Judkins, Jacob Judkins and William G. Judkins, for the use of them and their heirs for ever.

7thly I give unto my daughter Mary Judkins one feather bed and furniture to her and her heirs for ever. . . ."

The division of the land of Jacob Judkins dated October 16, 1821, in Surry County, Virginia, Deeds 6/378 and 6/380 did not include a Mary Judkins, indicating that she had probably died before that date.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Mary Judkins was a daughter of 1798 Jacob Judkins of Surry County and Sarah (____) Judkins.

iii. Mary (Judkins) Burt, Her Husband William Burt, And Her Descendants

Mary (Judkins) Burt was a daughter of 1765 Nicholas Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4])

The will of Nicholas Judkins dated on May 20, 1763, and probated on June 18, 1765, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/385, listed Mary Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Judkins one feather bed and furniture and ten pounds current money . . . . I also give to my Loving Wife the use of Negroes Patt and Jane, during her Widowhood or Life after her Widowhood or Death my Will and Desire is that the said two Negroes with their increase be equally divided between my four daughters Mary, Elizabeth, Martha, and Ann. I also give to my said Loving Wife the use of all the remainder part of my Estate during her Widowhood or Life and after her Widowhood or Death my Will and Desire is that all my said Estate the Legacy's excepted be equally divided between my six children; Mary, Elizabeth, John, Martha, Ann and Jacob all that part or parcel of my Fathers Estate which he gave me in his Last Will and Testament. Reference being had thereunder will more fully appear to be equally divided amongst my said six children. . . ."

In her letter dated January 29, 1995, Norma J. Pennington stated that Mary Judkins married William Burt and died before November 26, 1776, and that Mary (Judkins) Burt and William Burt had the following child:

1) Ann Judkins (Burt) Jemm, born before November 26, 1776.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of Mary (Judkins) Burt and William Burt was:

1) Ann Judkins (Burt) Jemm, born before November 26, 1776.

(I) Ann Judkins (Burt) Jemm And Her Husband Peter Jemm

Ann Judkins (Burt) Jemm was a daughter of Mary (Judkins) Burt and William Burt.

The marriage record of Ann Judkins Burt and Peter Jemm was dated on September 22, 1791, at Surry County, Virginia, and listed the following information for the parties:

> "Know all men by these presents that we Peter Jemm and Edward Burt are held and firmly bond unto his excellency Beverley Randolph esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the penal sum of fifty pounds current money to be paid to the said Beverley Randolph esquire Governor as aforesaid and to his successors to which payment well and truly to be made We bind ourselves our heirs, executors and Administrators jointly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 20th day of Septr 1791

Whereas there is a marriage suddenly intended to be solemnized agreeable to the ceremonies of the protestant church in Virginia between the above bound Peter Jemm and Ann J. Burt

Now the condition of the above obligation is such, that if there be no lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage then the above obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force and virtue

Sealed and delivered) Peter Jemm

On January 7, 1793, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 1/175 Anne Judkins Jemm and Peter Jemm joined other heirs of John Judkins to sell their interest in his land to Benjamin Wood:

"This Indenture made this seventh day of January Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety three Between Elizabeth Burt, Martha Egerton, Wilmot Egerton and Anne his wife, Jacob Judkins and Sarah his wife, and Peter Jemm and Anne Judkins his wife of the one part, and Benjamin Wood of the other part witnessth that they the said Elizabeth Burt, Martha Egerton, Wilmot Egerton, and Anne his wife, Jacob Judkins and Sarah his wife, and Peter Jemm and Anne Judkins his wife have by these presents granted, bargained and sold, made and conveyed unto the said Benjamin Wood and to his heirs and assigns forever all that tract or parcel of Land which descended to them by the death of John Judkins deceased late of Surry County, containing three hundred and fifty acres, be the same more or less, (the said Benjamin Wood having paid or secured to be paid the sum of Two hundred and fifty pounds & nine shillings current money of Virginia for the same the receipt whereof they do hereby acknowledge) and marked and bounded as follows, to wit, beginning on the north side of Blackwater Swamp at Grays line, thence northwardly along his line up the Mill branch to the Mill Dam and thro' the old pond to an Ash tree standing near the run, thence along the said Gray's line thro' the old field to a corner tree between the said land and Henry White's, thence along the said White's line to a corner tree of John Lanes (now Charles Judkins) thence along the said Lane's line, to the line of Jacob Judkins Land a corner tree, thence along the said Judkins line to Evans corner tree, thence along said Evan's line to Blackwater Swamp and up the run thereof to the beginning; to have and to hold the said tract or parcel of Land and all its appurtenances unto the said Benjamin Wood and to his heirs and assigns forever it being the same which was conveyed unto the John Judkins by deed of bargain and sale from Etheldred Gray as Executor of Henry Davis deceased, bearing date the twenty second of May 1775. And the said Elizabeth Burt, Martha Egerton, Wilmot Egerton & Anne his wife, Jacob Judkins and Sarah his wife and Peter Jemm and Anne Judkins his wife do further convenant to and with the said Benjamin Wood that the said parties do give this present writing as their general warrantee against themselves and their heirs as well as against all and every other person and persons whatsoever. In witness whereof they have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above. Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of Grubbs Family Tree, compiled by Kim Grubbs and available from Ancestry.com at http://www.ancestry.com, included an excerpt from The Davis Family Book compiled by Alma Scull Williams which stated as follows:

"III. 8. Wilmot Evans Egerton 9/12/1785, m. 1814, Sally King, daughter of Charles and Anne Duke King. The marriage is on record in Hall of History in Raleigh. Wilmot was named for his father's brother. They had one son, Charles Jackson. Wilmot died while this son was quite small.

IV. Charles Jackson Egerton, 6/11/1816-5/26/1880, m. Mary Turner Pitchford of Warren (p. 38). He was called Jackson. One tradition says he lived with his King grandparents. Anothe says he was reared by a relative, Hannah Egerton, who, according to the memoirs of James Albert Egerton, lived to be more than 100 years old. She is named in the first U.S. census, 1790.

Dec. 16 1835, Jackson Egerton married Mary Turner Pitchford, daughter of Sterling and Elizabeth Davis Pitchford of Warren County. Mary's uncle, Peter R. Davis, lent them $2,000 to establish a home in "The Horseshoe Bend" of Tar River. (See

Jackson and Mary Egerton are buried in the family plot at the old Egerton place. His stone bears this inscription: "A better father never lived. A devoted christian, and zealous member of the Baptist church." There was no Baptist church in Louisburg when they moved to franklin County, so they were members fo maple Springs Baptist Church. On Mary Egerton's stone are the words: "Her children will rise up and call her blessed." The graveyard is not kept up. Jackson and mary Egerton had ten children: Charles, Sallie Gertrude, Rufus, Sidney, Hugh, Annie, Mary Ida, Frank Nicholas, Willie, Robert Zollicoffer."

However, no documentation was cited which identified Charles Jackson Egerton as a son of Wilmot Evans Egerton.

v. Ann (Judkins) Egerton, Her Non-Husband And Her Husband Wilmot Egerton, And Her Descendants

Ann (Judkins) Egerton was a daughter of 1765 Nicholas Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1765 Nicholas[4])

The will of Nicholas Judkins dated on May 20, 1763, and probated on June 18, 1765, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/385, listed Ann Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Judkins one feather bed and furniture and ten pounds current money . . . . I also give to my Loving Wife the use of Negroes Patt and Jane, during her Widowhood or Life after her Widowhood or Death my Will and Desire is that the said two Negroes with their increase be equally divided between my four daughters Mary, Elizabeth, Martha, and Ann. I also give to my said Loving Wife the use of all the remainder part of my Estate during her Widowhood or Life and after her Widowhood or Death my Will and Desire is that all my said Estate the Legacy's excepted be equally divided between my six children; Mary, Elizabeth, John, Martha, Ann and Jacob all that part or parcel of my Fathers Estate which he gave me in his Last Will and Testament. Reference being had thereunder will more fully appear to be equally divided amongst my said six children. . . ."

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, listed the same accounting.

In her letter dated June 29, 1987, Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that the children of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County were as follows:

1) Joel Judkins, born before May 15, 1764,

2) Thomas Judkins, born after about 1741,

3) Jordan Judkins, born after September 17, 1750, and before September 17, 1771, and about 1757,

4) Mark Judkins, born after February 20, 1749,

5) Hannah (Judkins) Moody,

6) Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore, born probably before 1759, and

7) Sarah (Judkins) Lane.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1760 William Judkins and Rebeccah (____) Judkins were the following:

1) Joel Judkins, after 1743 and before December 10, 1760,

2) Thomas Judkins, born after about 1741 and before December 10, 1760,

3) Jordan Judkins, born after September 17, 1750, and and before December 10, 1760,

4) Mark Judkins, born on May 22 and after February 20, 1749 and before December 10, 1760,

5) Hannah (Judkins) Moody, born before December 10, 1760

6) Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore, born before December 10, 1760, and probably before 1758, and

7) Sarah (Judkins) Lane, born before December 10, 1760.

i. Joel Judkins

Joel Judkins was a son of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Joel Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item I Give & Bequeath to my Son Joel Judkins & my son Thomas Judkins Five Hundred Acres of Land I purchased of Thomas Williams lying in Granvill County in North Carolina to be Equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

In her letter dated June 29, 1987, in family group sheets and in The Judkins Journal, Vol. 6/3, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated that on May 15, 1764 at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1764-74/18 Joel Judkins was bound out:

> "Joel Judkins In Surry County Order Book 1764-74, p.18, 15 May 1764 - Ordered that the Church Wardens of this Parish (Southwark) bind out Joel Judkins, orphan of William Judkins, decd. as the law directs."

The Granville County, North Carolina, Index of Grantors of Deeds did not list any deed by a person surnamed Judkins from 1760 through 1851.

ii. Thomas Judkins, His Possible Wife Dolly (Price) Judkins And His Wife Lavina (____) Judkins, And His Descendants

Thomas Judkins was a son of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Thomas Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item I Give & Bequeath to my Son Joel Judkins & my son Thomas Judkins Five Hundred Acres of Land I purchased of Thomas Williams lying in Granvill County in North Carolina to be Equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

The Granville County, North Carolina, Index of Grantors of Deeds did not list any deed by a person surnamed Judkins from 1760 through 1851.

In her letter dated June 29, 1987, Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that in 1762 at Surry County, Virginia, Orphans Accounts Book 1762-83/12 Jesse Judkins was appointed guardian for Thomas Judkins.

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 6/3, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated as follows:

> "Thomas Judkins An Account is filed for Thomas by Jessee Judkins, his guardian from August 1762-15 September 1767. In 1767 John Andrews was paid cash "to learn him a trade." Further research of John Andrews may disclose this trade."

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 7/1, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated that Thomas Judkins was a witness to a deed dated 1778 and recorded at Bute County, North Carolina, D.B. 2/265.

The will of Jesse Judkins dated October 25, 1780, and a codicil thereto dated April 28, 1781, and probated on June 26, 1781, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/201 and on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 12/14, respectively, listed Thomas Judkins as one of his residuary beneficiaries:

> "In the name of God Amen. I Jesse Judkins . . . . make this my last Will and Testament
> . . . .
> Item I give all my wearing apparel to be divided between my Brother Saml. Judkins Thomas & Mark Judkins so none be sold.
> . . . .
> Item All the remainder of my Estate to be equally divided between my Brother John, Samuel, and Charles, Mary Barham, Ann Moring, John Judkins Son of Nicholas, Sally Lane, Fred Lane's Wife Becky, Patty Warren, Thomas, Jordon and Mark Judkins, to them and their Heirs for ever.

However, based on the information set forth below, this was probably not a marriage of Thomas Judkins, the son of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County.

The 1800 Census for Warren County, North Carolina, listed Thomas Judkins with the following household:

| Name of Head of Family | Free White Males | Age | Free White Female | Age | All Other Free Persons | Slaves |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Thomas Judkins | 1 | 45+ | 1 | 26-45 | | 3 |

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 7/1, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated that in 1820 at Warren County, North Carolina, ____ Book 22/266, Thomas Judkins was granted a license to keep a tavern in his house.

On May 23, 1825, at Warren County, North Carolina, Lavina Judkins, widow of Thomas Judkins, filed her declaration that her husband had died intestate and she renounce the right to administer his estate.

On May 23, 1825, at Warren County, North Carolina, Thomas J. Judkins, John Rodwell, and Zachariah Shaven filed their bond for the appointment of Thomas J. Judkins as administrator of the estate of Thomas Judkins.

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 7/1, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated that on September 11, 1825, at Warren County, North Carolina, D.B. 25/353 Lavina Judkins, widow of Thomas Judkins, and his two sons James W. Judkins and Thomas J. Judkins sold 550 acres of land on Little Fishing Creek to John Burges of Halifax County, North Carolina. Mrs. Pennington also stated that:

> "Lavina wrote her will 2 December 1825, leaving the following bequests, "First I give and bequeath to Thos. J. Judkins my dearly beloved son, the sum of one hundred cents, to be raised and levied out of my estate .. also, I give to my well beloved son Jas. W. Judkins whom I likewise constitute, make and ordain the sole executor of this my last will and Testement, all my property arising from the Estate (of my husband) Thomas Judkins decd. Also one bond for Seven hundred dollars, Executed to me by said Jas. W. Judkins by him freely to be possessed and enjoyed."
> It certainly appears James was the favored son, but perhaps Thomas received a large inheritance from his father.
> We have no record of the events that occurred between the day Lavina wrote her will and 28 Nov 1826, but on that day Thomas J. Judkins, not James W. Judkins, appeared at court and posted a bond as administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Lavina Judkins. There appears to be no further record of James W. Judkins in Warren County. Did he die between 2 Dec 1825 and 28 Nov. 1826, or did he join the movement west or south in search of cheap and fertile land? Thomas J. stayed in Warren County. Records show he married Rebecca Ingram (d/o Benjamin Ingram annd Letteuce Perry) of Franklin Co., N.C., 22 Jan. 1824.
> There is a portion of Warren County, North Carolina deep in tobacco country southeast of Warrenton, known as JUDKINS DISTRICT. A 1931 map of the country, which can be purchased at the courthouse, is illustrated with sketches of historical places. It shows the Thomas Judkins house, a large one and a half storied building with massive chimneys on either end, and lists c. 1800 as the time of construction."

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Thomas Judkins was a son of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County and married Dolly Price on January 3, 1797, but given the presence of Thomas Judkins in North Carolina in 1778 and the identification of his widow as Lavina, it seems unlikely that Thomas Judkins, son of 1760 William Judkins, was the Thomas Judkins who married Dolly Price.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Thomas Judkins and Lavina (____) Judkins were the following:

1) James W. Judkins, and

2) Thomas J. Judkins, born on August 5, 1801, or in about 1802 or 1803 in Warren County, North Carolina.

(I) James W. Judkins

James W. Judkins was a son of Thomas Judkins and Lavina (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], Thomas[5])

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 7/1, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated that on September 11, 1825, at Warren County, North Carolina, D.B. 25/353 Lavina Judkins, widow of Thomas Judkins, and his two sons James W. Judkins and Thomas J. Judkins sold 550 acres of land on Little Fishing Creek to John Burges of Halifax County, North Carolina. Mrs. Pennington also stated that:

> "Lavina wrote her will 2 December 1825, leaving the following bequests, "First I give and bequeath to Thos. J. (II) 1866 Thomas J. Judkins Of Warren County, North Carolina, And His Wives Rebecca A. (Ingram) Judkins And Rachel (Prendergrast) Judkins

1866 Thomas J. Judkins of Warren County, North Carolina, was a son of Thomas Judkins and Lavina (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], Thomas[5])

North Carolina, Index to Marriage Bonds, 1741-1868, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of Thomas J. Judkins and Rebecca A. Ingram on January 22, 1824, in Franklin County, North Carolina:

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 7/1, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated that in 1820 at Warren County, North Carolina, ____ Book 22/266, Thomas Judkins was granted a license to keep a tavern in his house and that on September 11, 1825, at Warren County, North Carolina, D.B. 25/353 Lavina Judkins, widow of Thomas Judkins, and his two sons James W. sole executor of this my last will and Testement, all my property arising from the Estate (of my husband) Thomas Judkins decd. Also one bond for Seven hundred dollars, Executed to me by said Jas. W. Judkins by him freely to be possessed and enjoyed."

It certainly appears James was the favored son, but perhaps Thomas received a large inheritance from his father.

We have no record of the events that occurred between the day Lavina wrote her will and 28 Nov 1826, but on that day Thomas J. Judkins, not James W. Judkins, appeared at court and posted a bond as administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Lavina Judkins. there appears to be no further record of James W. Judkins in Warren County. The 1830 Census for Warren County, North Carolina, listed Thomas J. Judkins with the following household

iii. 1798 Jordan Judkins Of Southampton County, Virginia, His Wives (Lane) Judkins And Sarah "Sally" (Warren) Judkins, And His Descendants

1798 Jordan Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, was a son of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The Black Water Monthly Meeting Records, Surry County, Virginia, listed the birth of Sarah Warren, daughter of Samuel Warren, Sr., and Hannah (Inman) Warren, on October 26, 1760.

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Jordan Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item: I Give & Bequeath to my Two sons Jordan Judkins and Mark Judkins the Land that I purchased of Anslem Bailey and the Land I purchased of John Hawkins lying in Granvill County in No. Carolina to be equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

In The Judkins Journal, Volume 6/3, Mrs. Norma J. Pennington stated as follows:

> "Jordan Judkins In Surry County Order Book 1764-74, p.267 17 September 1771 - Jordan Judkins made choice of Samuel Judkins for his guardian. This would indicate Jordan had reached the age of 14 at which time he could choose his own guardian. In the orphan's account for 1772 Jordan is provided a horse which costs 18 pounds and also a saddle and bridle. At a court held for Surry Co., 22 August 1775, Jordan came into court, most likely riding that same horse, and acknowledged to have received full satisfaction of his late guardian, Samuel Judkins, indicating that he had come of age."

The will of Jesse Judkins dated October 25, 1780, and a codicil thereto dated April 28, 1781, and probated on June 26, 1781, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/201 and on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 12/14, respectively, listed Jordon Judkins as one of his residuary beneficiaires:

> "In the name of God Amen. I Jesse Judkins . . . . make this my last Will and Testament
> . . . .
> Item All the remainder of my Estate to be equally divided between my Brother John, Samuel, and Charles, Mary Barham, Ann Moring, John Judkins Son of Nicholas, Sally Lane, Fred Lane's Wife Becky, Patty Warren, Thomas, Jordon and Mark Judkins, to them and their Heirs for ever.

Jesse Judkins

The within writing contains my last Will and wrote with my own hand and dated this twenty-fifth day of October 1780.

Jesse Judkins
. . . ."

The marriage bond of Jordan Judkins and Sally Warren, daughter of Samuel Warren, was dated on October 6, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, with Mark Judkins as surety and Thomas Sprately as a witness:

"Know all Men by these Presents That We Jordan Judkins and Mark Judkins are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency Benjamin Harrison Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the just Sum of fifty Pounds Current Money to be paid to the said Benjamin Harrison esquire and to his Successors to which Payment well and truly to be made We bind ourselves our Heirs Exors and Admors firmly by these Presents Sealed with our Seals and dated this 6th day of Octor. 1783

Whereas there is a Marriage suddenly intended to be solemnized between the above bound Jordan Judkins and Sally Warren Daughter of Samuel Warren late of sd. County decd Now the Condition of the above Obligation is such that if there be no lawful cause to obstruct the same then this Obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force

Sealed & Delivered ) Jordan Judkins in the Presence of ) Mark Judkins Thos. Spratley"

On January 26, 1785, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book 1775-1783/393 the court filed the following order:

"Jordon Judkins and Sarah his wife, Mark Judkins and Elizabeth his wife and John, Samuel, and Peggy Warren Infants by Mark Judkins their next friend complts against

Hannah Warren Exc and Devisee of Samuel Warren decd Defts

Agreeable to a former order made in this cause a Report was now returned in these words, to wit, 'In obedience to a decree of Surry Court bearing date November 1784 to us directed we have alloted and set apart one sixth part of the slaves of which Samuel Warren died seized and possessed and their increase to Jordon Judkins and Sarah his wife to wit, Dinah, Ben Isaac, and Silvia, the said Jordon Judkins and Sarah his wife paying to the other parts five pounds eight shillings and four pence: Also one sixth part to Mark Judkins and Elizabeth his wife, to wit, Moses, Lucy, Tempy, and Qually, the said Mark Judkins and Elizabeth his wife paying to the other parts - - - eight shillings and four pence. Witness our hands this 26th day of January 1785, Joel Thompson, Henry Moring, Charles Judkins - - - whereupon it is decreed and ordered that the said report be made firm, stable, and binding between the parties, that six months be given the Infants after they shall respectively arrive to lawful age to dispute the validity of this decree if they may think proper and that the cost of the same be equally borne by the parties."

This record confirms that Jordan Judkins married Sarah "Sally" Warren.

Sussex County, Virginia, Court Records 1754-1801, by Weynette Parks Haun, listed Jordan Judkins and Mark Judkins as witnesses on August 31, 1791, in the trial of William Hargrave for murder:

"At a Court held at Sussex Courthouse on the 31 day of August 1791 for the examination of William Hargrave4 on Suspicion of his being guilty of murdering Aaron Booth  Present David Mason, Robert Jones, David Mason Jun. and John Massenburg Gent.

The above named William Hargrave being Committed to the Jail of this County charged with the murder aforesaid was led to the bar in Custody of the Sheriff and thereupon divers Witnesses were sworn and examined to Wit: Mich. Sometime prior to 1801 at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1801-040, William Judkins filed his complaint for a division of the land of Jordan Judkins and alleging that Jordan Judkins had died in 1798 in Southampton County, Virginia:

"To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery sitting - Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orator William Judkins That Jordan Judkins late of this County departed this life sometime in the year 1798 intestate being seized and possessed of two tracts of land lying and being in the said County of Southampton containing ____ acres That said Jordan Judkins deceased was the father of your Orator William and of Samuel, Rebeccah, Cherry, Gray, Bynum, and Jordan Judkins and also of Martha late Martha Judkins Washington wife of Thomas Washington who is also dead leaving an only son George Washington an infant his real representative all of whom are equally entitled with your orator to a share in the aforesaid tracts of land. Your orator here represents to the Court that Cherry, Gray, Bynum and Jordan Judkins are all infants, and he prays that they by their next friend as well as said George Washington by his next friend, and all above named persons be made defendants hereto and he prays that your worships would decree that Thomas Pretlow William Bailey and Wily Delk may be appointed commissioners to divid the said tracts of land Equally between your orators and the defts Samuel, Rebeccah, Cherry, Gray, Bynum, and Jordan Judkins and George Washington assigning and setting apart to each one by proper metes and bounds one eighth part of the whole having regard to quality as well as quantity and that they make report how they have done the same and your orator prays for general Relief"

This record indicates that Jordan Judkins had died in 1798 in Southampton County, Virginia.

Sometime thereafter at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1801-040, the defendants filed their answer to the complaint of William Judkins:

"The Answer of Samuel & Rebeccah Judkins and of Cherry Judkins, Gray, Bynum, and Jordan Judkins infants by their next fried Samuel Judkins and of George Washington an infant by his next fried Thos Washington to the bill of Complaint exhibited against them in the County Court of Southampton by William Judkins. (F) Mary G. (Judkins) Davis And Her Husband Nicholas J. Davis

Mary G. (Judkins) Davis was a daughter of 1852 William Judkins of Sussex County, Virginia, and Peggy (Wallis) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1798 Jordan[5], 1852 William[6])

The marriage record of Mary G. Judkins, daughter of William Judkins, and

Nicholas J. Davis was dated on December 12, 1843, in Sussex County, Virginia:

"Register Of Marriages
Sussex County, Virginia

|---|---|
| Date of Bond | December 12, 1843 |

| Name of Wife | Mary G. Judkins |
| Parents or Guardian of Husband | . |
| Parents or Guardian of Wife | William Judkins, father |
| Security And Witnesses | Benjamin E. Hawkins |
| Minister | ." |

The accounting of the estate of William Judkins by John R. Davis dated March 4, 1859, and filed on October 5, 1859, at Sussex County, Virginia, W.B. R/149, did not list either Mary G. (Judkins) Davis or her estate as a residuary beneficiary, indicating that she had probably died before her father's death in 1852.

The 1860 Census for Chesterfield County, Virginia, listed N. J. Davis, age 45 and born in Virginia, with wife Cornelia J. Davis, age 32 and born in Virginia, and among other children a daughter Virginia J. Davis, age 10 and born in Virginia. The marriage record of Virginia Ida Channell and Robert J. Barrett dated on September 18, 1895, in Suffolk County, Virginia, listed her parents as Nicholas J. Davis and Cornelia J. and her birth in 1849. The date of birth of Virginia and the listing of her mother as Cornelia indicate that Mary G. (Judkins) Davis had died before 1849.

(III) Rebecca (Judkins) Inman And Her Husband Henry D. Inman

Rebecca (Judkins) Inman was a daughter of 1798 Jordan Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, and Sarah "Sally" (Warren) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1798 Jordan[5])

On or about February 18, 1800, at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1821-028, Pretlow v. Judkins, a summons was issued against the heirs of Jordan Judkins to answer a complaint by William Urquhart and Thomas Pretlow and Rebecca Judkins was listed as one of those heirs:

> "The Commonwealth of Virginia to the Sheriff of Southampton county greeting You are hereby commanded to summon Sarah Judkins widow & relict of Jordan Judkins, William Judkins, Martha, Samuel, Rebecca, Cherry, Gray, Bynum & Jordan Judkins Coheirs of the sd Jordan Judkins to appear before the Justices of our sd. county court at the cthouse of the said county (sitting in Chancery) on

Sometime prior to 1801 at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1801-040, William Judkins filed his complaint for a division of the land of Jordan Judkins and listed Samuel Judkins as one of those heirs:

> "To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery sitting - Humbly complaining shew unto your worships your orator William Judkins That Jordan Judkins late of this County departed this life sometime in the year 1798 intestate being seized and possessed of two tracts of land lying and being in the said County of Southampton containing ____ acres That said Jordan Judkins deceased was the father of your Orator William and of Samuel, Rebeccah, Cherry, Gray, Bynum, and Jordan Judkins and also of Martha late Martha Judkins Washington wife of Thomas Washington who is also dead leaving an only son George Washington an infant his real representative all of whom are equally entitled with your orator to a share in the aforesaid tracts of land. Your orator here represents to the Court that Cherry, Gray, Bynum and Jordan Judkins are all infants, and he prays that they by their next friend as well as said George Washington by his next friend, and all above named persons be made defendants hereto and he prays that your worships would decree that Thomas Pretlow William Bailey and Wily Delk may be appointed commissioners to divid the said tracts of land Equally between your orators and the defts Samuel, Rebeccah, Cherry, Gray, Bynum, and Jordan Judkins and George Washington assigning and setting apart to each one by proper metes and bounds one eighth part of the whole having regard to quality as well as quantity and that they make report how they have done the same and your orator prays for general Relief"

Sometime thereafter at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1801-040, the defendants, including Samuel Judkins, filed their answer to the complaint of William Judkins:

> "The Answer of Samuel & Rebeccah Judkins and of Cherry Judkins, Gray, Bynum, and Jordan Judkins infants by their next fried Samuel Judkins and of George Washington an infant by his next fried Thos Washington to the bill of Complaint exhibited against them in the County Court of Southampton by William Judkins. These defendants saving and reserving to themselves all and every benefit of exception to all errors and imperfections in the Complainants bill contained for answer thereto or to so much thereof as they are advised is necessary for them to answer, answering say. That they believe the Complainant allegations are correct and that they are willing to submit to such decree as is by him prayed for and they pray to be hence dismissed &c"

> Note: Most Defts. are residents of Tenn."

This record identifies J. W. Judkins and Albert H. Judkins as sons of Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins and Samuel Warren Judkins.

On March 9, 1849, at Logan County, Kentucky, Chancery Court File 1709, John F. Couts filed his complaint for debt due from Albert H. Judkins and on May 18, 1849, John F. Couts filed an amendment of his complaint which identified Albert H. Judkins and J. W. Judkins as children of Elizabeth (Jarrad) Judkins, who was then deceased:

> "John F Couts by leave of the Court would file the following amendment to his original bill in the Logan Circuit Court against Albert H Judkins, John Jarrad and others. He states that said original bill was written in haste, and he now perceives a mistake in setting forth the relationship of the parties. In said original Bill he stated (through mistake) that the deft Albert H Judkins was the Brother of of Sally P Powell dec'd. He is not the Brother, but the nephew of said Sally P. but it is still true as stated in his original bill that said Albert H Jud. Powell has or had when said bill was filed an interest in said tract of land described in said original bill, which he has since learned contains about 190 acres instead of 180 said interest accrued in the following way, said land belonged to said Sally P. Powell wife of Ephraim Powell & formerly Sally P. Jarrad said Sally P died without ever having had any children and having no father or mother but having the follow brothers & sisters to wit John Jarrad Nancy L Conrad wife of George C Conrad & formerly Jarred Polly N Powell (formerly Polly N Jarred) and widow of Martin Powell Powell deceased and said Albert H and J. W. Judkins who are the only children of and represent their mother Elizabeth M Judkins now deceased formerly Elizabeth M Jarred & who was sister to said Sally P. Powell deceased, so that said Albert H & J. W. Judkins as the representatives of their mother are entitled together to one undivided fourth part of said tract of land and One fourth part of the rents and profits due from said Ephraim
> . . . .
> John F Couts

This record identifies Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins as the mother of Albert H. Judkins and J. W. Judkins and indicates that Albert and J. W. were her only then surviving children.

Wikipedia stated that on August 25, 1855, the Kansas Territorial Legislature created Arapahoe County to govern the western portion of Kansas Territory in what became Colorado. In July 1858, gold was discovered along the South Platte River in Arapahoe County, precipitating the Pike's Peak Gold Rush. On February 7, 1859, the Kansas Territorial Legislature split Arapahoe County into six counties to provide local government for the gold mining region, but none of those six counties was ever organized. On October 24, 1859, the residents of the mining region voted to form their own Territory of Jefferson.

The 1860 Census for Golden City, Arapahoe County, Kansas Territory, now Golden, Jefferson County, Colorado, listed Rebecca Judkin(?) with the following household on October 4, 1860:

This record indicates that Rebecca (Hines) Judkins was born in about 1822 and that Samuel Warren Judkins had died before October 4, 1860.

Wikipedia stated that on January 29, 1861, the United States Congress admitted Kansas to the Union, but excluded the portion of the Kansas Territory west of the 25th meridian from the new state and Arapahoe County reverted to unorganized territory. On February 28, 1861, the United States Congress created the Territory of Colorado to govern the unorganized territory of Colorado. On November 1, 1861, the new Colorado General Assembly organized 17 counties, including a new Jefferson County.

The 1870 Census for Golden, Jefferson County, Colorado, listed Rebecca Judkins with the following household on August 1, 1870:

This record indicates that Rebecca (Hines) Judkins was born in about 1820.

The 1900 Census for Golden, Jefferson County, Colorado, listed Rebecca Judkins in the Charles Judkins household on June 13, 1900, her relationship as mother, her birth in May 1816 in North Carolina, and her marital status as widowed.

On April 7, 1904, the following obituary was published in the Denver Rocky Mountain News, Denver, Colorado:

> "Golden, Colo. April 6. - Mrs. Rebecca Judkins, one of the oldest among Golden's rapidly disappearing band of pioneers, died this morning at 4 o'clock, age 87 years. Mrs. Judkins came to Golden in 1860 and had resided here ever since. She is survived by three sons and a daughter, William Judkins of Evergreen, Charles Judkins of Golden and Mrs. Thomas Crippen of Denver. The funeral will be attended in a body by the Golden Pioneer Society and will occur at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of Samuel Warren Judkins and Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins were the following:

1) John W. Judkins, born on May 1, 1807, or c. 1808 in Virginia,

2) Albert H. Judkins, born in about 1810 in Virginia,

3) ____ Judkins, probably William Judkins,

This record identifies J. W. Judkins as a son of Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins and Samuel Warren Judkins.

On March 9, 1849, at Logan County, Kentucky, Chancery Court File 1709, John F. Couts filed his complaint for debt due from Albert H. Judkins and on May 18, 1849, John F. Couts filed an amendment of his complaint which identified Albert H. Judkins and J. W. Judkins as children of Elizabeth (Jarrad) Judkins, who was then deceased:

> "John F Couts by leave of the Court would file the following amendment to his original bill in the Logan Circuit Court against Albert H Judkins, John Jarrad and others. On May 18, 1849, in Logan County, Kentucky, Chancery File 1709, John F. Couts filed an amendment of his complaint which provided as follows and was on October 13, 1849, served on Albert H. Judkins:

"John F Couts by leave of the Court would file the following amendment to his original bill in the Logan Circuit Court against Albert H Judkins, John Jarrad and others. He states that said original bill was written in haste, and he now perceives a mistake in setting forth the relationship of the parties. In said original Bill he stated (through mistake) that the deft Albert H Judkins was the Brother of of Sally P Powell dec'd. He is not the Brother, but the nephew of said Sally P. but it is still true as stated in his original bill that said Albert H Jud. Powell has or had when said bill was filed an interest in said tract of land described in said original bill, which he has since learned contains about 190 acres instead of 180 said interest accrued in the following way, said land belonged to said Sally P. Powell wife of Ephraim Powell & formerly Sally P. Jarrad said Sally P died without ever having had any children and having no father or mother but having the follow brothers & sisters to wit John Jarrad Nancy L Conrad wife of George C Conrad & formerly Jarred Polly N Powell (formerly Polly N Jarred) and widow of Martin Powell Powell deceased and said Albert H and J. W. Judkins who are the only children of and represent their mother Elizabeth M Judkins now deceased formerly Elizabeth M Jarred & who was sister to said Sally P. Powell deceased, so that said Albert H & J. W. Judkins as the representatives of their mother are entitled together to one undivided fourth part of said tract of land and One fourth part of the rents and profits due from said Ephraim He states that said land is rich and valuable & has been used by said Ephraim ever since the death of his wife said Sally P. which took place about 1842 as he charges and that said land has been reasonably worth one hundred dollars per annum for rent, he states that said Albert H. Judkins on the 10th march 1849 executed a deed of mortgage of his sisters interest in said tract of land to one Miles Kirby (who is a non resident of this state) said mortgage is dated the 9th day of march 1849 and was acknowledged before the clerk of the logan County Court (in whose Office it is now of record) on the 10th of the same month about 2 Oclock, A.M. as is shown by the Clerk's certificate, on said mortgage. Your Orator believes & charges that said deed of mortgage was fraudulent & made with the fraudulent intent & design to cheat hinder & delay your Orator in the collection of his said Debts Your Orator filed his Original bill on the evening or night of the 9th of march 1849 & placed process against said Judkins immediately in the hands of the sheriff or his deputy of this County. Said Judkins being then in Town by some means heard (as your Orator believes & charges) that he had or was about to file his bill and with this Knowledge sd Judkins shut himself up in a room with his lawyer & would not let the sheriff in or permit him to see him so as to execute said process - and actually had said mortgage written & acknowledged about 2 Oclock in the morning of the 10 of march 1849, process was not executed on your Orators bill untill after day light of that morning  Now your Orator believes & charges that said mortgage was all a base & palpable fraud & made especially to Defraud your Orator and prevent him in collecting his said debt.  The mortgage was not present and your Orator charges nothing about it as he is a resident of another state.  A copy of said deed of mortgage with the Certificate thereon will be filed in due time as part hereof marked (A)  In addition to this Defendants made in his original Bill he make Miles Kirby and Mrs Polly N Powell widow of Martin Powell decd defendants to this and sd Original bill that they all answer this & his Original bill & that said Albert H Judkins & Miles Kirby answer on oath, and at a final hearing he prays that said fraudulent mortgage be set aside & that the interest of said Albert H Judkins in said tract of land which is one eighth part thereof at least & perhaps more be subjected to sale & the proceeds thereof applied to the satisfaction of his said debts interest and costs & also the interest of said Judkins, in the rents & profits due from said Ephraim Powell and grant all general & special relief &c.  Said Albert H & J W Jdukins, John Jarred George C. Conrad & wife & Miles Kirby are now residents of this state, your Orator charges specifically that his sd Original Bill herein was filed and this suit commenced and his lien attached before said deed was made or recorded and if said deed was not fraudulent the grantee therein could occupy no other claim or better condition than that of a lis pendins purchaser  He calls on said Albert H to state what his interest in said land is or was at the filing of this suit.  that Before filing his said Bill said Albert H told your Orator that he owned the interest of his brother J. W. Judkins in said land rent &c & he charges that sd Albert Owned said J. W. Judkins interest in said land &c when his said bill was filed & he sd Albert H is called on to state if this not so, that he state whether he did not buy said interest & if so did he not have & own it when sd bill was filed & what disposition he made of it & that said J. W Judkins answer the same questions on oath &c.

This record identifies Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins as the mother of Albert H. Judkins and J. W. Judkins and indicates that Albert and J. W. were her only then surviving children.

On October 3, 1849, in Logan County, Kentucky, Chancery Case 1709, Albert H. Judkins and Miles Kirby filed their answer to the complaint as follows:

> "The joint and Several answers of Albert H Judkins, and Miles Kirby two of the defendants to the original and amended Bill of John F Couts filed in the Logan Chancery Court complaining of them, Ephraim Powell, John Jarrad, J W Judkins &c. These defendants now and at all times hereafter reserving all manner of benfit and advantage to themselves of exception to the many errors, and insufficiencies, in said bill contained, for answer thereunto, or unto so much or such parts thereof as these defendants are advised is material for them to make, answer unto; they answer and day: They admit that Albert H Judkins did own the one eighth part of an undivided interest in & to the tract of land in Complainants Bill mentioned, containing about one hundred & ninety acres, but they deny that the said Albert H Judkins does, or ever did, own the interest, or any part of the interest which his brother J W Judkins inherited or in any other wise owned in said land. They state, however, that the said Albert H Judkins having failed in business in Clarksville Tennessee, did on the 9" day of March, (and not on the 10th day as charged in complainants Bill) in the year 1849, executed bonafide, & in good faith, a deed of mortgage to the said Miles Kirby, in & to all his interest in said land, for the purpose of securing the said Kirby against all loss & injury which he might sustain by reason of being bound as the security of said Judkins in a note of hand executed to one Solomon Fesin for Four Hundred dollars, of which sum about Three Hundred and forty dollars, was at the date of this execution of the deed of mortgage, and now is owing, due, and unpaid. They further admit, that the said Kirby was not present at the execution of said deed, but they state that the said Judkins had promised the said Kirby previous to its execution, to leave(?) him, so far as he could, against loss by reason of his obligations aforesaid, and that the said Judkins had authority from the said Kirby, to execute an instrument of writing to the said Kirby, whereby he might be secured against loss as aforesaid. They deny all fraud or intention of fraud whatever and Respondent Judkins in answer to that portion of Complainants Bill which charges fraud, says that so far from being prompted by an intention to defraud him, or any one else, he was actuated by an honest desire to secure a disinterested friend from loss, who had stood by him in adverse fortune, and unlike his brother in law who would force by the hard hand of the law from the husband of his sister the means of her support, had found his substance to save a friend his family from want and oppression. He would further state, that on the 9th day of March in the year 1849 previous to the filing of Complainants Bill that he released to Ephraim Powell, in consideration that he would give possession of the land in the Bill mentioned by the 25th day of December 1849, all claims which he the said Judkins had or might have against the said Powell for rent, use and profits of said land. Respondents believe and state that said deed of mortgage from Judkins to Kirby was executed before the filing of Complainants Bill. They deny that said deed was executed on the 10th day of March 1849, as charged in Complainants Bill and state that it was executed on the day it bears date. And these Prespondents deny all unlawful combination is said Bill charged and every charge & allegation therein contained, not otherwidse herein answered or avoided, and call upon Complainant for proof of the same. All which matters, and things in this then answer contained these Respondents are ready to aver & prove as this court shall direct, and pary to be hence dismissed, with their reasonable costs and charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained.

Genealogical Abstracts From Reported Deaths The Nashville Christian Advocate 1857-1860, compiled by Jonathan Kennon Thompson Smith, listed the death of Albert H. Judkins on November 22, 1860, in Clarksville, Tennessee:

"December 13, 1860

Albert H. Judkins died Clarksville, Tenn., Nov. 22, 1860 in his 51st year. . . . ."

The 1870 Census for Montgomery County, Tennessee, listed W. A. Judkins in the Jonathan F. Couts household on June 24, 1870, her age as 45 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1825. This record indicates that M. A. Judkins may have been related to John F. Couts, the plaintiff in Chancery File 1709, and appears to confirm the indication in that case that John F. Couts was a brother in law of Albert H. Judkins and, therefore, that Albert's wife was M. A. (Couts) Judkins.

(C) Judkins, Probably 1847 William Judkins Of Missouri, His Wife Mary (Huff) (Wilcox) (Judkins) Riden, And His Descendants

Judkins was a son of Samuel Warren Judkins and Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1798 Jordan[5], Samuel Warren[6])

The 1820 Census for Logan County, Kentucky, listed Samuel Judkins with one male in his household on August 27, 1820, age 0 to 10, indicating a date of birth between about 1810 and 1820.

The 1830 Census for Logan County, Kentucky, listed Samuel W. Judkins with a male age 5 to 10 in his household, indicating a date of birth between about 1820 and 1825.

If both listings were for the same person, then his date of birth would be in about 1820.

While no documentary evidence has as yet been found which identifies 1847 William Judkins of Missouri as a son of Samuel Warren Judkins and Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins, circumstantial evidence indicates that was probably the case and that evidence is set forth below.

Sharon Gammon has exhaustively researched the family of 1847 William Judkins of Missouri and was the first to note the extensive family genealogical information on 1847 William Judkins, his wife Mary, and their descendants collected by Reverend John J. Watts in the late 1800's and early 1900's and preserved in the John J. Watts Papers (R0038) in The State Historical Society of Missouri Research Center-Rolla and quoted in part below.

The circumstantial evidence for this identification is as follows.

As set forth above, an unnamed son of Samuel Warren Judkins and Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins was born in about 1820. As set forth below, 1847 William Judkins and his wife Mary executed a deed on August 26, 1844, which is consistent with a birth in about 1820.

From 1816 to 1830 Samuel Warren Judkins resided in Logan County, Kentucky, which is adjacent to the northern border of Robertson County, Tennessee, and in 1840 resided in Robertson County, Tennessee. The 1900 Census for Pulaski County, Missouri, listed 1907 John Thomas Judkins, the son of 1847 William Judkins, as born in April 1847 and the place of birth of his father as Kentucky, which is consistent with the census records for Samuel Warren Judkins and his unnamed son born in about 1820.

The 1840 Census for Robertson County, Tennessee, listed Samuel Judkins with no males in the age range of 15 to 30, indicating that the son born in about 1820 had left the household. The unnamed son of Samuel Warren Judkins born in about 1820 has not as yet been found in the Logan County, Kentucky, or Robertson County, Tennessee, records. Both points are consistent with the residence of William Judkins in Wright County, Missouri, on August 26, 1844, and his marriage to Mary (Huff) Wilcox before that date.

Logan County, Kentucky, Chancery Court File 1709, set forth above was filed on about March 9, 1849, and did not list a William Judkins as a son of Elizabeth M. (Jarrad) Judkins and Samuel Warren Judkins, which would be consistent with the death of William Judkins on January 10, 1847, in Missouri, as set forth below.

The 1850 Census for Robertson County, Tennessee, listed Samuel W. Judkins and his second wife Rebecca (Hines) Judkins with a son William Judkins in their household, born in about 1843 and the 1860 Census for Arapahoe County, Colorado, listed Samuel's widow Rebecca (Hines) Judkins with a son William, born in about 1845. These records cast doubt on the identification of 1847 William Judkins as a son of Samuel Warren Judkins. Since 1847 William Judkins was still living in 1845 when Samuel Warren and Rebecca Judkins' son William Judkins was born, it would be unusual for Samuel to have named a second of his sons as William before the first had died. It is possible that Samuel and 1847 William had lost touch with each other and Samuel believed 1847 William was dead by 1845, but this seems improbable.

The result is that while the circumstantial evidence seems to indicate that 1847 William Judkins was probably the son of Samuel Warren Judkins, further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The documentary evidence that has been found regarding 1847 William Judkins of Missouri, and Mary (Huff) (Wilcox) (Judkins) Riden is the following:

John Jones Watts was a circuit-riding Baptist minister who created notebooks of family genealogical records collected during his visits and now preserved as the John

Jones Watts Papers (R0038) in The State Historical Society Of Missouri-Rolla. His notes on the Judkins and Huff families provided as follows:

Wright County, Missouri, has had substantial records losses when the Courthouse burned in 1849, the Courthouse was partially destroyed in 1862, the Courthouse burned again on January 11, 1863, the Courthouse burned again in 1864, the Courthouse was damaged by a tornado in 1888, the County Court records were destroyed by fire in 1896, and the Courthouse burned again in 1897.

No further Judkins records in Wright County, Missouri, have as yet been found.

The 1850 Census for Texas County, Missouri, listed William C. Riden with the following household on December 9, 1850:

| Name | Age | Sex | Color | Occupation | Value of Real Estate |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Mary Riden | 30 | F | | | |

This record indicates that Mary (Huff) (Wilcox) (Judkins) Riden was born in about 1820 and that William C. Riden was born in about 1823. The listing of the three sons with different surnames identifies Mary as married first to ____ Wilcox, second William Judkins, and third William C. Riden. The listing of Joseph W. Riden as age 10/12 indicates that Mary's second husband William Judkins had died more than 19 months previously or before about May 1848.

Findagrave.com listed the grave of Mary Judkins Hill in Texas County, Missouri:

"Mary Judkins Hill

However, it is unclear on what the surname Hill was based and the listing of the body as lost or destroyed indicates that there was no stone in the graveyard and, therefore, it is unclear on what this information was based.

The marriage record of William C. Riden and Delila Gidana was dated on March 1, 1855, in Texas County, Missouri:

| "Names of Persons | Date | By whom married |
|---|---|---|
| William C Riden&Delila Gidana | 1855March 1stAug 6" | By Leroy Matthews J.P.Duly receivedC H First Me." |

This record indicates that Mary (Huff) (Wilcox) (Judkins) Riden had died before March 1, 1855.

The 1860 Census for Pulaski County, Missouri, listed William C. Riden with the following household on June 19, 1860:

GenealogyBank.com listed the following obituary of Charles H. Judkins dated May 12, 1924, in The Denver Post:

"Charles Judkins, Pioneer 'Freighter' And Friend Of Col. Cody, Dead At Golden

Old Westerner, - Picturesque Figure, Crossed Plains in '59 - Was Guard at Reformatory and Bailiff in County Court.

Golden, Colo., May 12. - Charles H. Judkins, friend of "Buffalo Bill" Cody and old-time "freighter" who crossed the plains in '59, died at his home in Golden, Sunday, after a short illness. He was 83 years old.

By his death Golden loses one of its oldest and most picturesque figures. For years the old pioneer, standing 6 feet 2 inches in height, straight as an arrow - a typical westerner of the early days - was a familiar sight on the streets of the town. He acted as a bailiff of the county court, and was known to every resident of Golden.

His life was one which might well be read into any story of the plains. He was born in Nashville, Tenn., in 1841, and when but 17 years old heard the call of adventure from the west. With a youthful chum, H. G. King, he joined a plains' caravan and made his way thru Kansas to Colorado. The pair made their home in Golden.

They chose as a means of livelihood the precarious occupation of "freighting." With teams of oxen they guaranteed to bring merchandise across the Indian-menaced plains from the Missouri river to the little colonies which dotted the banks of the Platte, or rested in the shadow of the Rockies. It was a wild life, but an exciting one, and while Judkins followed it, he became the friend and companion of Buffalo Bill, "Wild Bill" and other plainsmen whose names conjure up visions of the early west.

Judkins saw Golden installed as the capitol of the territory. He later watched Denver take prestige and succeeding honors from the smaller town, but when forced to give up freighting by the invasion of the railroads, he decided to remain in Golden. He served in odd jobs, and finally became a guard at the state reformatory. This position he left a few years ago to become the bailiff of the county court.

He fainted in the courtroom eight weeks ago and was taken to his home, where he was confined with hardening of the arteries until his death Sunday.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Thomas Crippen, 3227 West Thirty-second avenue, and a brother William Judkins, pioneer and Civil war veteran, who lives at Evergreen.

Funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Colorado Pioneer society, Wednesday, at Golden. Interment will be in the Golden cemetery."

Pueblo County, Colorado, Fifty-Niners stated the following with regard to Charles H. Judkins:

> "Judkins, Charles H., member of Colorado Pioneers' Society, and resident of Golden as late as 1920. Arrived 1859, and is said to have hauled the first load of coal into Golden in year of his arrival. He died May 11, 1924, age 83. Born Nashville, Tennessee 1841, and came with H. G. King by wagon train to Cherry Creek. He became a freighter, and was a friend of William Cody (Buffalo Bill). He is survived in 1924 by a brother, William Judkins of Evergreen, Colorado, and a sister, Mrs. Thomas Crippen of Denver. (The Trial, May 1924) His arrival was by a train of 10 wagons, through Kansas City, by Arkansas Route, and Fountain City (now Pueblo). He was but 17 years of age, and left Clay County, Missouri, his last home."

(J) 1926 William Judkins Of Denver, Colorado

1926 William Judkins of Denver, Colorado, was a son of Samuel Warren Judkins and Rebecca (Hines) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1798 Jordan[5], Samuel Warren[6])

The 1850 Census for Robertson County, Tennessee, listed William Judkins in the Samuel H. Judkins household on September 24, 1850, and his age as 7 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1843.

The 1860 Census for Golden City, Arapahoe County, Kansas Territory, now Golden, Jefferson County, Colorado, listed William Judkins in the Rebecca Judkin(?) household on October 4, 1860, his age as 15 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1845, and his occupation as laborer.

The Historical Marker Database, available at HMdb.org, listed the following news article published in the Colorado Transcript on June 9, 1869:

> "A very narrow and wonderful escape from drowning occurred here on Sunday last, to a little son of Mr. D. E. Harrison, only three years old. He was playing beside Barnes' race, near the upper bridge, when he fell in and was carried down with the swift current to the waste way, through which he was hurled by the force of the current, and down the steep incline, some fifteen feet, to the seething poor below. Here he was whirled around for some moments, by the force of the falling water, and then shot out into the raging current of the river. Providentially, the little fellow was observed when he first fell into the race by Mr. Wm. Judkins, who was on the opposite side of the river. He at once started with all possible speed to reach him by way of the lower bridge. Just as he reached it he saw the > little sufferer tumbling over the cataract above, and boldly leaped over into the rushing stream just in time to seize an arm of the child as he was rushing past him, beneath the bridge. Although he had been swept down the swift current of the race some 200 yards, and over the steep waste way into the river below, which was boiling and seething with fearful force, and carried some twenty yards further down the main stream before his rescue, it was found that he had sustained no serious injury beyond the amount of water he had swallowed, and was playing around his home as usual an hour afterwards. Mr. Judkins deserves and received the highest praise for the promptness and coolness displayed by him in the trying emergency, which was only equaled by his bravery in unhesitatingly plunging into the forceful current to save the little one. Those who know Clear Creek at high water can appreciate the courage required. An instant's hesitation and delay would have been sufficient to have carried the little fellow through the bridge, and beyond all human aid."

The 1870 Census for Golden, Jefferson County, Colorado, listed William Judkins in the Rebecca Judkins household on August 1, 1870, his age as 25 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1845, and his occupation as blacksmith.

The 1910 Census for Jefferson County, Colorado, listed William W. Judkins in the John F. Barnable household on May 7, 1910, his relationship as partner, his age as 66 and born in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1844, and his occupation as sawyer in lumber camp.

On December 7, 1926, the following obituary of William Judkins was published in the Battle Creek Enquirer, Battle Creek, Michigan, apparently a reprint of an obituary originally published in Denver, Colorado:

> "William ("Bill") Judkins, 83, one-time scout under Buffalo Bill, friend of Chief Ouray and pioneer prospector, is dead at Denver. Judkins died as he had lived, upon the trail. His body was found in the mountains fifty miles west of Denver. Judkins came here in 1861 from Nashville, Tenn., and with his brother aided in the founding of Golden, Colorado's first capital."

(K) Mary Ellen (Judkins) Crippen, Her Husband Thomas H. Crippen, And Her Descendants

Mary Ellen (Judkins) Crippen was a daughter of Samuel Warren Judkins and Rebecca (Hines) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1798 Jordan[5], Samuel Warren[6])

The 1850 Census for Robertson County, Tennessee, listed Ella Judkins in the Samuel H. Judkins household on September 24, 1850, and her age as 5 and born in in Tennessee, indicating a date of birth in about 1845.

GenealogyBank.com listed the following obituary for Thomas H. Crippen dated December 17, 1915, in the Denver Post, Denver, Colorado:

> "Thomas H. Crippen, Pioneer, Gambler and Friend of the Friendless and Poor, Dead
> Located in Goden in '59 And Made Fortune in Leadville Leases.
>
> Lost Money and Then He Became Blacksmith At Five Points.
> Death last night claimed another of Colorado's pioneers and noted characters of the early days - Thomas H. Crippen, nearly 79 years of age. Famed thru the state in his early manhood as a gambler, Crippen passed the closing years of his life as a blacksmith. A year ago he was stricken with cancer of the stomach and died last night at 9:30 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. R. P. Quest, 2311 Julian street.
> Crippen was born in Canada, Jan. 29, 1837. At the age of 22 he joined a party of adventurers who struck out across the plains for Golden, Colo., in the fall of 1859. He made Golden his home until 1882, when he removed with his family to Denver. Meanwhile he had made a fortune on Leadville leases.

In Denver he plunged heavily in the gambling game. Luck was not with him and his fortune fast ebbed away.

"His heart was too big and his brain worked to slowly for him to be a successful gambler," one of his old acquaintences said this morning. "There wasn't a fellow in hard luck but Tom Crippen would assist him. But he was a good loser and when once more he had to earn his living he opened a blacksmith shop at Five Points. So popular was he and so fair in his business dealings that he was easily the foremost blacksmith in Denver."

Crippen was married Aug. 2, 1863, to Miss Mary Ellen Judkins, who journeyed out to Golden in the summer of 1860. Six children were born to that union, four daughters and two sons. The sons ar dead. He is survived by his widow and his daughters, Mrs. C. C. Titus of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. O. M. Henry, Miss Ann Crippen and Mrs. Quest, all of Denver.

Funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Colorado Pioneers' Society at __ o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Martin undertaking establishment. The Rev. Dr. Pullem of Golden will conduct the services if he is physically able to attend. Burial will be in Reverside cemetery."

iv. 1807 Mark Judkins Of Southampton County, Virginia, His Wife Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins, And His Descendants

1807 Mark Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, was a son of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The Black Water Monthly Meeting Records, Surry County, Virginia, listed the birth of Elizabeth Warren, daughter of Samuel Warren, Sr., and Hannah (Inman) Warren, on February 26, 1763.

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Mark Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . Item: I Give & Bequeath to my Two sons Jordan Judkins and Mark Judkins the Land that I purchased of Anslem Bailey and the Land I purchased of John Hawkins lying in Granvill County in No. Carolina to be equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 6/3, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated as follows:

"Mark Judkins Jesse Judkins is appointed guardian to Mark Judkins at Surry County Court held 20 February 1770. (Order Book 1764-74, p.203) Jesse filed an annual account for Mark from 1771-1780. In Surry Co. Order Book 1775-85, p.145, at a court held 28 May 1782, is written "Ordered that Mark Judkins be added to the list of Tithables taken last June (one tithe).""

In her letter dated June 29, 1987, Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that on February 20, 1770, at Surry County, Virginia, Court Order Book _/_, Jesse Judkins was appointed guardian for Mark Judkins.

The will of Jesse Judkins dated October 25, 1780, and a codicil thereto dated April 28, 1781, and probated on June 26, 1781, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/201 and on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 12/14, respectively, listed Mark Judkins as one of his beneficiaries:

> "In the name of God Amen. I Jesse Judkins . . . . make this my last Will and Testament
> . . . .
> Item I give all my wearing apparel to be divided between my Brother Saml. Judkins Thomas & Mark Judkins so none be sold.

U.S. Quaker Meeting Records, 1681-1935, available from Ancestry.com, listed the following entry for Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins in which she was disowned from the Quakers for marrying contrary to discipline:

> "At a Monthly Meeting held at Blackwater in Surry County the 19th of the 4th Mo. 1783.
> . . . .
> Whereas Elizabeth Judkins (late Warren) having been Educated in the way of Truth as professed by us the People Called Quakers, but has lately contrary to our known principles & the advice of some of her Friends, Married a Man not in Religious fellowship with us. We do therefore hereby testify our disunion with such practices & disown her from being in Membership with us, until she manifest a sincear sorrow for such misconduct, which we desire she may expearance. Signed in & on behalf of our Monthly Meetg aforesaid by

Wyke Hunnicutt  Clerk"

This record indicates that Mark Judkins and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins were married prior to April 19, 1783.

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on September 1, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 12/30, Mark Judkins acted as a witness to a deed from the heirs of Alexander Newsum to Thomas Davis for several tracts of land bounded in part by Gray's Creek.

In June 1784 at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 12/124, Mark Judkins purchased from Sheriff Willis Wilson a Negro boy named Jimma:

> "June 1784 I do hereby certify to all whom it may concern, that I did distrain and sell agreeable to law, a Negro Boy named Jimma, belonging to the Estate of Samuel Warren dec'd. (it being done at the particular request of those interested) for the payment of the Revenue Tax of 1783.  And that Mark Judkins, bought the said Boy at the Sale, for the consideration of Fifteen pounds. Witness my hand this 22d. May 1785.

At a Court held for the County of Southampton the 19th day of June 1810. This account Current of the Estate of Mark Judkins Decd was this day returned and ordered to be recorded

Saml Kello"

The listing of the first transaction in this accounting on July 1, 1807 indicates that Mark Judkins had died before that date.

In her letter dated June 29, 1987, Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Mark Judkins died on December 17, 1811, in Sussex County, Virginia, based on the case of Davis v. Judkins, Sussex County, Virginia, Box 201 of loose papers and the Newport News Virginia Daily Press dated May 1, 1966, page 16.

The Judkins Journal, "Margaret (Judkins) Ellis of Tennessee", Vol. 6/3, stated that Mark Judkins and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins had the following daughter:

1) Margaret (Judkins) (Ellis) Fletcher, born about 1787 at Virginia.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1807 Mark Judkins and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins were the following:

1) Mary "Polly" Judkins, born before about 1786,

2) Eliza or Elizabeth (Judkins) Davis, born before about 1789,

3) Margaret B. "Peggy" (Judkins) (Ellis) Fletcher, born in about 1787 in Virginia,

4) Nancy Judkins, probably Nancy C. (Judkins) Clark, born before about 1789,

5) Thomas Judkins, born in about 1786,

6) Sally Judkins, possibly Sally (Judkins) Ellis, and

7) Jonathan Robertson Judkins, born after about 1786 and between 1790 and 1800.

(I) Mary "Polly" Judkins

Mary "Polly" Judkins was a daughter of 1807 Mark Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1807 Mark[5])

On or before December 1809 at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1810-006, Judkins v. Judkins, the heirs of Mark Judkins filed a petition for a division of the slaves of the estate of Mark Judkins which named Polly Judkins as the eldest daughter of Mark Judkins:

> "To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery Sitting - Humbly Complaining shews unto your worships your orators and oratrices - Eliza Judkins

Virginia Marriages, 1785-1940, available from FamilySearch.org, listed the marriage of Margaret B. Judkins and Caleb Ellis on December 15, 1812, in Sussex County, Virginia:

> "Name: Caleb Ellis
> Spouse's Name: Margaret B Judkins
> Event Date: 15 Dec 1812
> Event Place: Sussex, Virginia"

The Judkins Journal, "Margaret (Judkins) Ellis of Tennessee", Vol. 6/3, stated that Mark Judkins and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins had the following daughter:

1) Margaret (Judkins) (Ellis) Fletcher, born about 1787 in Virginia.

(IV) Nancy Judkins, Probably Nancy C. (Judkins) Clark And Her Husband Frederick H. Clark

Nancy Judkins was a daughter of 1807 Mark Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1807 Mark[5])

On or before December 1809 at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1810-006, Judkins v. Judkins, the heirs of Mark Judkins filed a petition for a division of the slaves of the estate of Mark Judkins which named Nancy Judkins as a daughter of Mark Judkins:

> . . . ."

The marriage of Nancy C. Judkins and Frederick H. Clark was dated on December 24, 1814, in Sussex County, Virginia:

> "Register Of Marriages
>
> | | |
> |---|---|
> | Date of Bond | December 24, 1814 |

Virginia, Select Marriages, 1785-1940, available from Ancestry.com, also listed the marriage of Nancy C. Judkins and Frederick H. Clark on December 24, 1814, in Sussex County, Virginia:

> "Name: Nancy C Judkins
> Gender: Female
> Marriage Date: 24 Dec 1814
> Marriage Place: Sussex, Virginia

Spouse: Frederick H Clark
FHL Film Number: 34154
Reference ID: 150"

The Nancy C. Judkins of this marriage record was probably the same person as the Nancy Judkins named in Chancery File 1810-006. The date and place of marriage are consistent with Chancery File 1810-006, which listed Nancy Judkins as unmarried at the time of filing. In addition, the 1850 Census for Stewart County, Tennessee, listed Frederic Clark, born in about 1790 in Virginia, and Nancy Clark, born in about 1787 in Virginia, with a son Charles Clark, born in about 1825 in Virginia, and Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Charles Roberson Clark in Flat Lick Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Herndon, Christian County, Kentucky. As set forth below, the brother of Nancy Judkins was Jonathan Robertson Judkins and the similarity of middle names suggests the common identity of Nancy Judkins and Nancy C. (Judkins) Clark. However, the absence of direct documentary evidence of Nancy C. (Judkins) Clark's parentage indicates that further research will be required to confirm this identification.

(V) 1832 Thomas Judkins Of Sussex County, Virginia, His Wife Susannah (Jelks) Judkins, And His Descendants

1832 Thomas Judkins of Sussex County, Virginia, was a son of 1807 Mark Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1807 Mark[5])

On or before December 1809 at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1810-006, Judkins v. Judkins, the heirs of Mark Judkins filed a petition for a division of the slaves of the estate of Mark Judkins which named Thomas Judkins as a son of Mark Judkins:

> "To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery Sitting - Humbly Complaining shews unto your worships your orators and oratrices - Eliza Judkins Peggy Judkins Nancy Judkins and Thomas Judkins Sally Judkins and Robertson Judkins infants by their next friend William Lane That a certain Mark Judkins of this County departed this life sometime in the year ____ intestate leaving a number of slaves to whom your orators and oratrices are equally entitled with a certain Polly Judkins eldest daughter of said Mark Judkins who has duly qualified in the Court of this County as administratrix on the estate of the said Mark Judkins -

. . . ."

This record indicates that Thomas Judkins was a minor in December 1807, indicating a date of birth before about 1786.

The marriage record of Thomas Judkins and Susannah Jelks was dated on December 25, 1823, in Southampton County, Virginia:

(VI) Sally Judkins, Possibly Sally (Judkins) Ellis And Her Husband William B. Ellis

Sally Judkins, possibly Sally (Judkins) Ellis, was a daughter of 1807 Mark Judkins of Southampton County, Virginia, and Elizabeth (Warren) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], 1807 Mark[5])

On or before December 1809 at Southampton County, Virginia, Chancery Court File 1810-006, Judkins v. Judkins, the heirs of Mark Judkins filed a petition for a division of the slaves of the estate of Mark Judkins which named Sally Judkins as a daughter of Mark Judkins:

"To the worshipful Court of Southampton in Chancery Sitting - Humbly Complaining shews unto your worships your orators and oratrices - Eliza Judkins Peggy Judkins Nancy Judkins and Thomas Judkins Sally Judkins and Robertson Judkins infants by their next friend William Lane That a certain Mark Judkins of this County departed this life sometime in the year ____ intestate leaving a number of slaves to whom your orators and oratrices are equally entitled with a certain Polly Judkins eldest daughter of said Mark Judkins who has duly qualified in the Court of this County as administratrix on the estate of the said Mark Judkins -

The Sally Judkins of this marriage record was possibly the same person as the Sally Judkins named in Chancery File 1810-006. The date and place of marriage are consistent with Chancery File 1810-006, which listed Sally Judkins as unmarried at the time of filing. However, the absence of direct documentary evidence of the parentage of Sally (Judkins) Ellis indicates that further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The 1870 Census for Surry County, Virginia, listed Martha Judkins in the James Clements household on July 21, 1870, and her age as 58 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1812.

On October 23, 1888, Martha Judkins filed her application for a pension in right of the service of her husband George W. Judkins in the Civil War and indicating that he had died in October 1864 in Sussex County, Virginia:

"Application of a Widow of a Deceased Soldier, Sailor or marine for a Pension.

I, Martha A. Judkins, residing at A. E. Clements in the County of Surry in State of Virginia, do hereby apply for aid under an act of the General Assemby entitled "An act to give aid to soldiers, sailors, or marines of Virginia, maimed or disabled in the war between the States, and to the widows of Virginia soldiers, sailors and marines who lost their lives in said war in the military service." And I do swear that I am the widow of George W. Judkins who was a member of Company D, 10th Va Battallion of Artillery and who, while in the discharge of his duty in military service during the late war between the States, lost his life. And I do further swear that I am not receiving aid from or a pension from any State or from the United States, and that I do not hold any national, State or county office which pays me in fees or salary over three hundred dollars; that my income from no source amounts to three hundred dollars; and that I do not own in my own right property of the assessed value of one thousand dollars; and that I am now entitled to receive annually the sum of thirty dollars under the terms of the aforesaid act of the General Assembly.

And I do further swear that the following answers are true:
1st. What was the name of the applicant's deceased husband? Ans. Geo W. Judkins

v. Hannah (Judkins) Moody And Her Husband Samuel Moody

Hannah (Judkins) Moody was a daughter of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Hannah Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item I give & Bequeath to my Three Daughters Hannah Judkins, Rebeccah Judkins & Sarah Judkins the Plantation I now live on and the Land belonging therewith to be equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

In The Judkins Journal, Vol 6/3, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated as follows:

> "Hannah Judkins Henry Moreing is appointed guardian to Hannah Judkins orphan of William Judkins - Surry Co. Order Book 1757-63, p.296. The annual account filed by Henry from 1763 through 21 August 1770 included quitrents of 33 acres of land. On 18 September 1770 Henry Mooring is discharged as guardian to Hannah Judkins."

The will of Jesse Judkins dated October 25, 1780, and a codicil thereto dated April 28, 1781, and probated on June 26, 1781, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/201 and on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 12/14, respectively, listed Hannah Moody as one of his beneficiaries:

> "In the name of God Amen. I Jesse Judkins . . . . make this my last Will and Testament
> . . . .
> I give to Hannah Moody and Becky Lane five hundred Pounds to be equally divided between them and their Heirs for ever.
> Jesse Judkins
>
> The within writing contains my last Will and wrote with my own hand and dated this twenty-fifth day of October 1780.
>
> Jesse Judkins
> . . . ."

In her letter dated June 29, 1987, Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Hannah Judkins married Samuel Moody and had issue.

Newspapers.com listed the following article dated May 1, 1966, in "Climbing The Family Tree" by Hugh S. Watson, Jr., and published in the Newport News Daily Press and written by Shelley Watson, Jr.:

". . . .
Hannah Moody is the relation in whom I am interested.

Hannah Moody was the daughter of William Judkins, the brother of Jesse Judkins.

This William Judkins died in Surry Co., Va. in the year 1760.

Hannah Judkins married Samuel Moody of Surry County, Virginia, the son of Blanks Moody and wife Mary (Maget) Moody, the daughter of Nicolas Maget, who was the son of Samuel Maget (died 1692 in Surry Col, Va.).

The will of Samuel Maget, who died 1692 is recorded in surry Col, Va. Court Records, in Will Book No. 4, page 302. This Samuel Maget was from Middleborough County, Ireland.

Hannah Judkins married Samuel Moody and had issue:
Rebecca Moody, married Charles Emery
Mary Moody, married John Smith
Blanks Moody married Patsey Boyce, the dau. of William Boyce, a Sheriff of Surry Co., Va. and his wife Elizabeth

This named Blanks Moody and wife Patsey (Boyce) had the following issue:
Hannah Judkins Moody
Charlotte Jane Moody
John William Moody
Samuel Archer Moddy
George Sterling Moody
Ruben Boyce Moody and a twin, who was stillborn
Martha Ann Elizabeth Boyce Moody
(this is some long name - Editor)
Blanks Moody

I have a great deal of information on these family lines, if you are interested, including dates, wills, marriages, etc. I hope this will help you concerning Hannah Moody, the niece of the said Jesse judkins.

Hannah (Judkins) Moody was my great - great - great - great - great grandmother.

I do enjoy your column, but only wish you could help me to obtain back issues of the Barham Family. (Mr. Shelley B. Watson, Jr., Box 352 Frederick College, Portsmouth, Virginia).

(Thanks to this Mr. Shelley Watson, Jr. and will gladly receive any data he wishes to send for publication. - Editor.)"

vi. Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore, Her Husbands Joseph Lane And Jesse Moore, And Her Descendants

Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore was a daughter of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Rebecca Judkins as one of his children:

". . . . Item I give & Bequeath to my Three Daughters Hannah Judkins, Rebeccah Judkins & Sarah Judkins the Plantation I now live on and the Land belonging therewith to be equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 6/3, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated as follows:

"Rebecca Judkins By 20 November 1770 Rebecca had reached the age of 12 at which time she could choose her own guardian. In Surry Co. Order Book 1764-74, p.203, her choice of Joseph Judkins is recorded. At the same time Joseph was appointed guardian to her sister, Sarah Judkins. The accounts he filed for Rebecca and Sarah also showed quitrents of thirty acres of land. The orphan account on p.304, dated 25 October 1774 states, "Joseph Lane who hath intermarried with Rebecca Judkins this day came into court and acknowledged that he received the whole of her Estate which was in the hands of Joseph Judkins her late Guardian.""

On August 24, 1773, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/327, Joseph Lane and his wife Rebecca sold to Joseph Judkins their interest in 33 acres of land bounded by Blackwater Swamp and Cypress Swamp and left by William Judkins in his will in equal shares to his three daughters:

The will of Jesse Judkins dated October 25, 1780, and a codicil thereto dated April 28, 1781, and probated on June 26, 1781, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/201 and on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 12/14, respectively, listed Becky Lane as one of his beneficiaries:

"In the name of God Amen. I Jesse Judkins . . . . make this my last Will and Testament
. . . .
I give to Hannah Moody and Becky Lane five hundred Pounds to be equally divided between them and their Heirs for ever.
. . . .

Jesse Judkins

The within writing contains my last Will and wrote with my own hand and dated this twenty-fifth day of October 1780.

. . . ."

Our Ancestors, by Miss Jessie Mae Ashford and Mrs. Adelle Brown Ashford, stated that Rebecca Judkins married Joseph Lane before August 24, 1773, and died before 1784, that Joseph Lane died about November 11, 1777, and that his will dated August 18, 1777, was probated on July 28, 1778, at Surry County, Virginia, and that Rebecca (Judkins) Lane and Joseph Lane had the following children:

1) Joseph Joel Lane, born before August 18, 1777,

2) John Lane, born before August 18, 1777, and

3) Charity (Lane) Warren, born after August 18, 1777, and probably before June 1778.

Our Ancestors also stated the following:

"On 24 August 1773, Joseph & Rebecca Lane deed Joseph Judkins 'all our tract of land, left by Wm Judkins to his three daughters.'"

In 1774 Joseph Lane, who intermarried with Rebecca Judkins acknowledges that he has received her estate from her guardian, Joseph Judkins. Surry O.B. 1764, p. 458. Recorded 25 Oct 1774."

In her letters dated June 29, 1987, and January 29, 1995, Norma J. Pennington enclosed family group sheets which stated that Rebecca Judkins married first Joseph Lane before October 25, 1774 and married second Jesse Moore before August 28, 1781.

From the evidence set forth above, the children of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane were the following:

1) Joseph Joel Lane, born before August 18, 1777,

2) John Lane, born before August 18, 1777, and

3) Charity (Lane) Warren, born after August 18, 1777 and probably before June 1778.

(I) Joseph Joel Lane And His Wife Nancy (Warren) Lane

Joseph Joel Lane was a son of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], Rebecca[5])

Our Ancestors, by Miss Jessie Mae Ashford and Mrs. Adelle Brown Ashford, stated that Joseph Joel Lane was a son of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane, married Nancy Warren on August 2, 1794, and died in 1814inNorfolk, Crany Island, Virginia, in the War of 1812, and that the inventory of his estate was filed on January 3, 1815.

Our Ancestors also stated that the following were filed in the estate of Joseph Lane:

1. Accounting on December 23, 1816,
2. Appraisal dated January 17, 1817, filed on September 27, 1819,
3. Accounting on September 27, 1819,
4. Accounting on March 26, 1821, and
5. Accounting on February 26, 1825.

(II) John Lane And His Wife Nancy (Long) Lane

John Lane was a son of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], Rebecca[5])

Our Ancestors, by Miss Jessie Mae Ashford and Mrs. Adelle Brown Ashford, stated that John Lane was a son of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane, married Nancy Long on October 5, 1803, and died about 1816 in Surry County, Virginia, and that the inventory of his estate was filed on December 9, 1816, in Surry County, Virginia.

Our Ancestors also stated that an accounting for the estate of John Lane was filed on June 22, 1818.

(III) Charity (Lane) Warren And Her Husband John D. Warren

Charity (Lane) Warren was a daughter of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4], Rebecca[5])

Our Ancestors, by Miss Jessie Mae Ashford and Mrs. Adelle Brown Ashford, stated that Charity Lane was a daughter of Rebecca (Judkins) (Lane) Moore and Joseph Lane and married John D. Warren on January 15, 1798.

vii. Sarah (Judkins) Lane And Her Husband Drury Lane

Sarah (Judkins) Lane was a daughter of 1760 William Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Rebeccah (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1760 William[4])

The will of William Judkins dated on December 10, 1760, and probated on December 16, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10/238 listed Sarah Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item I give & Bequeath to my Three Daughters Hannah Judkins, Rebeccah Judkins & Sarah Judkins the Plantation I now live on and the Land belonging therewith to be equally Divided Between them & their Heirs forever. . . ."

In The Judkins Journal, Vol. 6/3, Mrs. Norma Pennington stated as follows:

> "Sarah Judkins In an August 1773 account filed by Joseph for Sarah he listed among his purchases "one bottle of wine". In 1775 he bought "one scarlet cloke" and paid Wm Maget for teaching Psalms to Sarah. The last account for Sarah was filed in 1775."

On March 26, 1776, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/476, Drury Lane and his wife Sarah Lane of Sussex sold to Joseph Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, 34 acres of land that was part of the land William Judkins willed to his three daughters:

ii. 1818 James Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wives Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins, Lucy (Cockes) Judkins, And Mary (Rowell) Judkins, And His Descendants

1818 James Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1779 Joseph Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and ____ (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1779 Joseph[4])

1818 James Judkins of Surry County and his wives Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and Mary (Rowell) Judkins have been discussed above in Section I.A,1.a.vi, but for convenience of the reader, that material is repeated here and including the children of 1818 James Judkins by both his first wife Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and his second wife Mary (Rowell) Judkins.

The will of Ann (____) Judkins dated December 12, 1756, and probated on March 15, 1757, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/87 listed Mary Ann Judkins as one of her grandchildren:

". . . . Item I give to my Grand Daughter Mary Ann Judkins Two pounds Ten Shillings Current Money . . . ."

As set forth below, Mary Ann Judkins was the first wife of 1818 James Judkins.

The marriage bond of James Judkins and Mary Ann Judkins was dated on October 8, 1774, at Surry County, Virginia, with Samuel Judkins as surety:

> "Know all men by these presents that we James Judkins and Samuel Judkins of Surry County are held and firmly bound unto our Sovereign Lord the King his Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of Fifty pounds Current Money of Virginia, to be paid unto our said Lord the King his Heirs and Successors, to the which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our Heirs, Executors & Administrators Jointly and Severally, firmly by these Presents, Sealed with our Seals and Dated the Eight Day of October Anno Domini 1774.

The marriage record James Judkins and Lucy Cockes was dated on February 2, 1778, at Surry County, Virginia:

This was probably the second marriage of 1818 James Judkins. While it may have been the marriage of some other James Judkins, no other James Judkins has been found who was residing in Surry County at this time and who was old enough to marry. This record indicates that Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins had died before February 2, 1778.

The will of 1779 Joseph Judkins dated on October 3, 1778, and probated on February 23, 1779, at Surry County, D.&W.B. 10a/519, listed James Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Imprimis. I Give and Bequeath to my Son James Judkins my two Plantations and all the Land belonging to them, together with the Land I Bought of Benjamin Evans, also three Negroes Vizt Ben. Tiller & David, Likewise my Copper Still Tub and Worm and my best Riding Saddle to him and his Heirs for Ever.

This record indicates that Lucy (Cockes) Judkins had died prior to May 20, 1780.

The will of Jesse Judkins dated October 25, 1780, and a codicil thereto dated April 28, 1781, and probated on June 26, 1781, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 11/201 and on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 12/14, respectively, listed James Judkins as one of his beneficiaries:

This record identifies the family of 1818 James Judkins as follows:

Children:
1) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman,
2) Joseph Judkins,
3) Dolly Judkins,
4) Sally (Judkins) Chapel,
5) Betsy Judkins,
6) Mary Judkins,
7) James Judkins

Grandchild, child of Joseph Judkins:
1) James Judkins.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that James Judkins had the following children and grandchildren:

Children:
1) Joseph Judkins, and
2) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman.

Grandchildren:
1) Dolly Judkins,
2) Sally Chapel,
3) Betsy Judkins,
4) Mary Judkins, and
5) James Judkins.

But this is clearly incorrect and the grandchildren should be listed as children.

In her letter dated January 29, 1995, Norma J. Pennington stated that James Judkins was born in 1751, married first Mary Ann Judkins on October 8, 1774, married possibly second Lucy Cockes on February 2, 1778, married third Mary Rowell on May 20, 1780, and died before November 23, 1818, that Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins was born before December 1756, and died before May 20, 1780, and that James Judkins and Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins had the following children:

1) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman, born on October 18, 1776, and
2) Joseph Judkins, and that James Judkins and Mary (Rowell) Judkins had the following children:

1) Dolly Judkins,

2) Sally (Judkins) Chappell,

3) Elizabeth "Betsy" (Judkins) Inman,

4) Mary "Polly" Judkins, and

5) James Judkins, Jr., born about 1795, and that it was possible that Joseph Judkins was the son of Lucy (Cockes) Judkins.

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the child of 1818 James Judkins and Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins was the following:

1) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman, and the child of 1818 James Judkins and either Lucy (Cockes) Judkins or Mary (Rowell) Judkins was the following:

1) Joseph Judkins, born between 1775 and 1784, and the children of 1818 James Judkins and Mary (Rowell) Judkins were the following:

1) Dolly Judkins, born between 1790 and 1800,

2) Sally (Judkins) Chapel or Chappell,

3) Elizabeth "Betsy" Judkins, born between 1790 and 1800,

4) Mary "Polly" Judkins, born between 1790 and 1800, and

5) James Judkins, born in about 1795 and probably before February 21, 1796.

(I) Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman, Her Husband Nathaniel Berriman, And Her Descendants

Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berriman was a daughter of 1818 James Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1779 Joseph[4], 1818 James[5])

This couple has been discussed in Section I.A.1.a.ii.(I) above and the reader is referred to that section for further information on them and their descendants.

(II) Joseph Judkins, His Wife Selah (Warren) Judkins, And His Descendants

Joseph Judkins was a son of 1818 James Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and possibly Lucy (Cockes) Judkins or Mary (Rowell) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1779 Joseph[4], 1818 James[5])

The marriage record of Joseph Judkins and Selah Warren was dated on January 5, 1804, in Surry County, Virginia:

> "Know all men by these presents that we Joseph Judkins, and Samuel Warren are held and firmly bound unto his Excellency John Page esquire Govenor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid to the said John Page esquire Govenor as aforesaid and to his successors (for the use of the Commonwealth) to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselvs our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents - Sealed with our seals this 30th day of Decr 1803

The will of James Judkins dated on October 24, 1813, and probated on November 23, 1818, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/340 listed Joseph Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . 2nd Item I give and bequeath unto my Son Joseph Judkins the Land and plantation whereon he now lives, from Archibald Davis's lower line down to the head of the persimmon Run ajoining Holts line and and thence north down the said Run to Cherry Judkins's line in the Cypress swamp also I give and bequeath unto my said son Joseph, all the person property that I hath formerly lent him to him and his heirs forever.

On February 22, 1830, at Surry County, Virginia, Chancery Records 1790-1860, Images 199 to 214, in the case of Judkins vs. Bailey, a complaint was filed to sell the slaves of Rebecca Judkins and divide the proceeds among her heirs, but did not list Joseph Judkins, the son of 1818 James Judkins, as one of those heirs:

"To the worshipful court of Surry County in chancery sitting Humbly complaining shew unto your Worships your orators Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins, Edward Butts admin of his late wife Ann L. formerly Ann L. Judkins, Wm. E. Bailey admors. &c of Ann Jones, John P. Judkins & Elizabeth W. Bishop, & Nathaniel Berryman admor. of his late wife Martha Wilkins formerly Martha Wilkins Judkins, that some years ago Samuel Judkins departed this life leaving a will which has been duly proved, an attested copy of which is here referred to & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: by the said will the testator bequeathed to his widow Hannah for life two slaves named Betty & Sam, & after her death to her son Robert, with a limitation that if the said Robert died before he attained the age of twenty one years, the said slaves should be equally divided among the testator's brothers, and sister Rebecca and cousin Martha Wilkins Judkins: that said Robert died shortly after the death of the testator under age & without issue, since which time the said widow has also departed this life, and since the termination of the said life estate by the death of the said widow the slaves aforesaid, excluding the increase of the female have been divided & one fourth part thereof, namely Hannah, Caroline, Emily, Simon & Jack allotted to the said Wm. E. Bailey as cousin(?) & admor. of the said testator's sister Rebecca: the said Rebecca departed this life in the year 1798 leaving a will, an attested copy of which is here referred to and prayed to be considered as a part of this bill: the said Rebecca having died before she acquired possession of the said slaves, and which her interest therein was altogether contingent, she therefore made no disposition thereof by her will, but as to the same obviously died intestate, thereby leaving that portion of her estate to be transmitted under the laws to her general heirs & distributees. She had two brothers, to wit, Joseph Judkins & John Judkins, and a niece, namely the said Martha Wilkins Judkins: the said Joseph died in the lifetime of the said Rebecca, leaving as above stated Joseph Judkins, John W. Judkins & Ann L. Judkins his children & heirs: the said other brother John died after the said Rebecca leaving a widow named Ann, afterwards Ann Jones, of whom the said Wm. E. Bailey is admor. as aforesaid, and two children namely John P. Judkins & the said Elizabeth W. his sister both of whom are now represented as above mentioned by the said Wm. E. Bailey: the said widow & children of the said John Judkins were his heirs & distributees: the said Martha Wilkins Judkins married your orator Nathaniel Berryman & died after the death of the said Rebecca, since which time the said Nathaniel has become her administrator.

As mentioned above, this record does list Martha Wilkins (Judkins) Berryman, the daughter of Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and 1818 James Judkins, as a niece and heir of Rebecca Judkins, but does not list Martha's brother Joseph Judkins as a nephew or heir of Rebecca Judkins. The result is that this record indicates that Joseph Judkins, the son of 1818 James Judkins, was not a son of Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins and was necessarily a son of a second wife of 1818 James Judkins. As set forth below, Joseph Judkins was not listed as a beneficiary in any of the wills of 1818 James Judkins's children by Mary (Rowell) Judkins and this suggests a more distant relationship and that was probably half-brother, the son of 1818 James Judkins' second wife Lucy (Cockes) Judkins.

Joseph Judkins has not as yet been located in the 1830 Census.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that Joseph Judkins was a son of James Judkins and ____ (____) Judkins.

In her letter dated January 29, 1995, Norma J. Pennington stated that Joseph Judkins was a son of James Judkins and Mary Ann (Judkins) Judkins or possibly Lucy (Cockes) Judkins and married Selah Warren and that Joseph Judkins and Selah (Warren) Judkins had the following child:

1) James H.(?) Judkins, born before October 24, 1813.

(III) Dolly Judkins

Dolly Judkins was a daughter of 1818 James Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Mary (Rowell) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1779 Joseph[4], 1818 James[5])

The will of James Judkins dated on October 24, 1813, and probated on November 23, 1818, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/340 listed Dolly Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . 3rd Item I give and bequeath unto my daughters namely Dolly Judkins, Sally Chapel, Betsy Judkins and Mary Judkins to be equally divided between them, apart of the Land I now live on as follows Begining at the Mouth of the Holly bush branch at the edge of Cypress Swamp from thence twenty yards west of said Branch from thence up the said Branch on the West side twenty yards from the Main run to the fork, thence from the said fork a direct line to a large dead pine standing in the edge of the Pocoson branch, from thence up Bens Branch to the old Pocoson parth at the bunk of the Pocoson Hill thence along the said parth to the road ajoining Cherry Judkins's line thence West along said line to Thomas Coxes corner tree, thence down said swamp to the Begining, to them and their heirs forever.

On April 15, 1826, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 7/427, Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins, and Polly Judkins purchased from James Judkins a tract of 90 acres of land in Surry County:

"This Indenture made this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and Twenty six Between James Judkins of Surry County and State of Virginia, of the one part, and Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins of said County and State aforesaid of the other part, Witnesseth that the said James Judkins for and in consideration of the sum of Four hundred dollars, Virginia money in hand paid by the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins, to the said James Judkins, before the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof the said James Judkins doth hereby fully acknowledge, hath granted, bargained and sold enfeoffed & confirmed and by these presents, for himself and his heirs doth clearly and absolutely grant bargain alien enfeoff and confirm unto the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins, their heirs and assigns forever a certain tract or parcel of land situate lying and being in the County of Surry & State aforesaid & bounded as follows (to wit) by the lands of Henry Holt formerly the lands of Samuel Judkins decd. by the lands of Mary Eaton, by the lands of Accrille Savage, by the lands of Albert B. Cockes, by the lands of Henry Holt, by the lands of Joseph Judkins, by the lands of John White, by the lands of Chery Wall and by the lands of Wiley T. Savedge. To have and to hold the aforesaid tract or parcel of land, containing by estimation ninety acres, be the same more or less with the appurtenances unto the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins their heirs and assigns, to the only proper use and behoof of them the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins their heirs and assigns forever, and the said James Judkins, for himself and his heirs do covenant and grant to and with the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins, in manner and form following, that him the said James Judkins, hath good right, full power and lawful authority to grant and convey the said premises, unto the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins, and the said Dolly Judkins, Elizabeth Judkins and Polly Judkins, shall & may at all times, hereafter peaceably & quietly have, hold, hold, use and enjoy, the above land without the least suite, trouble or charge whatsoever of or by the said James Judkins his heirs or assigns or any other person or persons whatsoever, lawfully claiming any right title or interest, to the said land above mentioned or any part thereof, and the said James Judkins & his heirs, the said land doth hereby warrant & the title forever defend, against me my heirs and against all and every other person claiming or pretending to claim any right of Title to the same. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this day and year above written.

On April 12, 1855, at War of 1812 Pension File 20700/21847, Martha (Holloway) Judkins filed her declaration for bounty land in right of her husband James Judkins' service in the War of 1812:

"Virginia State
County of Surry Sct

On this 12" day of April One thousand, eight hundred and fifty five personally appeared before me Wm. H. Edwards a Justice of the peace, within and for the County and state aforesaid Martha Judkins aged 55 years a resident of Sussex County in the state of Virginia who being duly sworn according to law declares that she is the widow of James Judkins deceased who was a private soldier in the Company commanded by Captain William Parsons in the 6th Regiment of Virginia militia, commanded by Colo: Henry E Coleman in the war declared by the United States with Great Britain in the year 1813. That her said husband was drafted at Sussex County Virginia, into the United States Service on or about the 27th day of May 1814 for the term of six months and continued in actual service in said war, for the term of six months, and was honorably discharged at Norfolk in the State of Virginia on or about the 30th of November AD 1814, as will appear by the muster rolls of said company, and that she has not his discharge certificate, nor does she know that he ever had one.

She further states that she was married to the said James Judkins in Sussex County Virginia on the 20th day of April AD 1829 by one Burwell Barret a minister of the Gospel, that her name before her said marriage was Martha Holloway, and that there is no private or public record of her marriage known to her. That her said husband died at Surry County, Virginia, on the 2nd day of August AD 1834, and that she is still a widow. She has never before applied for or received land under any act of Congress whatever. She has not married since the death of her husband. She makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining Bounty Land to which she may be entitled under the Act of Congress passed March 3rd 1855.

Virginia, Deaths And Burials Index, 1853-1917, available from Ancestry.com, listed the death of Martha D. (Holloway) Judkins, widow of James Judkins, on November 10, 1880, in Chesterfield County, Virginia. This record, in conjunction with the 1870 and 1880 Census records above, identifies Julia A. (Judkins) Vaden as the daughter of 1835 James Judkins and Martha Drew (Holloway) Judkins.

The 1900 Census for Sussex County, Virginia, listed Julia A. Vaiden in the Andrew W. Holloway household in June 1900, her relationship as cousin, her birth in February 1833 in Virginia, and her marital status as widowed.

d. 1811 Samuel Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wife Charity (___) Judkins, And His Descendants

1811 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1760 John Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3])

The will of John Judkins dated December 12, 1758, and probated on May 20, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/225 listed Samuel Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item. I give unto my son Samuel Judkins the remainder of the said purchase of land I bought of Benjamin Cook with the swamp and timber from William Cooks line to a line in the swamp. I also give to my son Samuel one negro boy named Jeffery to him and his heirs forever . . . . It is my will and desire that if either of my two sons Jesse and Charles should die without any heirs of their body lawfully begotten then the other shall inherit his claim of negroes and all other things I have given them by legacy forever and I desire further that if two of my three sons Samuel, Jesse, Charles should die without any heir of their body lawfully begotten that the others will inherit all the land and negroes and all their estate I have left them by legacy forever. My will and desire is that all my sons may be prosperous and enjoy their estates when they arrive at the age of eighteen years. . . ."

As will be set forth below, the slave Jeffery given by John Judkins to his son Samuel Judkins was also listed in the 1790 and 1800 Personal Property Tax Lists for 1811 Samuel Judkins, thus identifying 1811 Samuel Judkins as the son of 1760 John Judkins.

The will of Martha Judkins dated on January 19, 1767, and probated on November 19, 1772, at Surry County, Virginia, D.&W.B. 10a/172 listed Samuel Judkins as one of her children:

(III) Robertson Holt

Robertson Holt was a son of Mary (Judkins) Holt and Michael or Micajah Holt. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1811 Samuel[4], Mary[5])

The will of Charity Judkins dated February 28, 1821, and probated on December 24, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/550 listed Robertson Holt as one of her daughter Mary (Judkins) Holt's children:

". . . . Item. I give to my daughter Mary Holt's Children, Namely, Nicholas, William, Robertson, Patsy and Samuel T. Holt the other half of my Estate to them and their heirs for ever. Except one small red Trunk. which I give to my grand daughter Patsy Holt.
. . . ."

(IV) Patsy Holt

Patsy Holt was a daughter of Mary (Judkins) Holt and Michael or Micajah Holt. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1811 Samuel[4], Mary[5])

The will of Charity Judkins dated February 28, 1821, and probated on December 24, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/550 listed Patsy Holt as one of her daughter Mary (Judkins) Holt's children:

". . . . Item. I give to my daughter Mary Holt's Children, Namely, Nicholas, William, Robertson, Patsy and Samuel T. Holt the other half of my Estate to them and their heirs for ever. Except one small red Trunk. which I give to my grand daughter Patsy Holt.

(V) Samuel Holt

Samuel Holt was a son of Mary (Judkins) Holt and Michael or Micajah Holt. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1811 Samuel[4], Mary[5]) The will of Charity Judkins dated February 28, 1821, and probated on December 24, 1821, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 3/550 listed Samuel Holt as one of her daughter Mary (Judkins) Holt's children:

iv. 1802 John Evans Judkins Of Edgecomb County, North Carolina, His Wife Rebecca (____) Judkins, And His Descendants

1802 John Evans Judkins of Edgecomb County, North Carolina, was a son of 1811 Samuel Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Charity (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1811 Samuel[4])

The will of 1811 Samuel Judkins dated January 25, 1810, and probated on November 26, 1811, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/437 listed John E. Judkins as a deceased son of his:

> ". . . . It is my will and desire that in case my grandson Joseph Bryant Judkins or any person for him does not institute a suit for Isaac senr: who was lent to my deceased son John E. Judkins) that my executors cause to be raised out the estate herein lent to Rebecca Judkins, the sum of one hundred pounds Virginia currency, and pay the same to Joseph Bryant Judkins provided he shall attain to the age of twenty five years, otherwise the said Rebecca shall be entitled to it under the reservations before mentioned . . . ."

The identification of Joseph Bryant Judkins as a grandson and John E. Evans as a deceased son and the condition that Joseph Bryant not institute suit for Isaac who was lent to John E. Evans indicates that Joseph Bryant Judkins was a son of John Evans Judkins and the identification of Rebecca Judkins as Joseph Bryant Judkins' half-sister identifies them both as children of John Evans Judkins.

In her letter dated January 29, 1995, Norma J. Pennington stated that John Evans Judkins married Rebecca ____ and left a will in 1802 at Edgecomb County, North Carolina.

From the evidence set forth above, the child of 1802 John Evans Judkins and his first wife Rebecca (____) Judkins was the following:

1) Rebecca Judkins, born before 1803, and the child of 1802 John Evans Judkins and his second wife ____ (____) Judkins was the following:

1) Joseph Bryant Judkins, born before 1803.

(I) Rebecca Judkins

Rebecca Judkins was a daughter of 1802 John Evans Judkins of Edgecomb County, North Carolina, and Rebecca (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1811 Samuel[4], 1802 John Evans[5])

The will of 1811 Samuel Judkins dated January 25, 1810, and probated on November 26, 1811, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/437 listed Rebecca Judkins as one of his grandchildren:

> ". . . . At the decease of my said daughter Charity, I give and bequeath the property of every kind and denomination herein lent to her, to the child or children of the said Charity in case she leave any, to them and their heirs forever, but should she die leaving no issue, it is then my will and desire that the Land herein left to her be divided among the children of my daughter Mary Holt (late Mary Judkins) and the balance of the estate (including negroes) be divided between my grand Daughter Rebecca Judkins, and the children of the said Mary Holt, allotting to the said Rebecca Judkins one half, to them and their heirs forever - . . . .

7. I desire that my daughter Charity do pay unto my grand daughter Rebecca the sum of four pounds p year for fifteen years . . . ."

Since there were no other male children mentioned in the will, Rebecca Judkins must have been the child of John Evans Judkins.

(II) Joseph Bryant Judkins

Joseph Bryant Judkins was a son of 1802 John Evans Judkins of Edgecomb County, North Carolina, and Rebecca (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1811 Samuel[4], 1802 John Evans[5])

The will of 1811 Samuel Judkins dated January 25, 1810, and probated on November 26, 1811, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 2/437 listed Joseph Bryant Judkins as one of his grandchildren:

". . . . In case the said Rebecca Judkins dies without issue it is my will and desire that my grand son Joseph Bryant Judkins (half brother to the said Rebecca Judkins) provided he attains to the age of twenty five years, be entitled to said estate, otherwise that the said estate be divided between the children of my daughter Charity and Mary and their heirs forever - It is my will and desire that in case my grandson Joseph Bryant Judkins or any person for him does not institute a suit for Isaac senr: who was lent to my deceased son John E. Judkins) that my executors cause to be raised out the estate herein lent to Rebecca Judkins, the sum of one hundred pounds Virginia currency, and pay the same to Joseph Bryant Judkins provided he shall attain to the age of twenty five years, otherwise the said Rebecca shall be entitled to it under the reservations before mentioned . . . ."

The identification of Joseph Bryant Judkins as a half-brother of Rebecca Judkins indicates that he was the child of a second marriage of John Evans Judkins.

e. 1781 Jesse Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, And His Wife Sally (Simmons) Judkins

1781 Jesse Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1760 John Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3])

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, stated that on September 26, 1757, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B.

7/366, Jesse Judkins and John Judkins, Sr., were witnesses to a deed from George Glover to Henry Moring for 150 acres of land bounded in part by William Judkins.

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787 also stated that on October 3, 1757, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 7/363, Jesse Judkins was a witness to a deed from John More to Moses More for 170 acres of land bounded in part by Green Swamp and Nicholas Judkins.

The will of John Judkins dated December 12, 1758, and probated on May 20, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/225 listed Jesse Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . I give to my son Jesse Judkins part of the land I purchased of William Edwards being 200 acres more or less bounding upon . . . . and is a marked line joining to my plantation whereon I now live. I also give to my son Jesse one negro boy named Tom to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Jesse two feather beds and furniture, two cows and calves, one iron pott and frying pan, three deep pewter dishes, three . . . . plates, three chairs . . . . It is my will and desire that if either of my two sons Jesse and Charles should die without any heirs of their body lawfully begotten then the other shall inherit his claim of negroes and all other things I have given them by legacy forever and I desire further that if two of my three sons Samuel, Jesse, Charles should die without any heir of their body lawfully begotten that the others will inherit all the land and negroes and all their estate I have left them by legacy forever. My will and desire is that all my sons may be prosperous and enjoy their estates when they arrive at the age of eighteen years. . . ."

On May 31, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 8/5, Nicholas Judkins and William Judkins sold to Jesse Judkins 200 acres of the 450 acres of land on the southeast side of Pigeon Swamp that William Judkins had purchased from William Edwards by Surry County Deed 6/394:

Although there is an inconsistency in the date of the inventory and the date of filing, the inventory probably should have been both dated and filed on June 26, 1781.

Surry County, Virginia Deeds and Estate Accounts 1756-1787, by William Lindsay Hopkins, listed the same inventory.

Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1607-1624/5, 4th edition, compiled by John Frederick Dorman, listed the following:

"116. Charles[5] Simmons (Mary[4] Cocke, Elizabeth[3] Mason, Lemuel[2], Francis[1]) Issue: [Simmons][360] (by 1) 299. Sarah[6], died without issue by 1780, married, (bond 22) Nov. 1774,[361] Jesse Judkins, who left will 25 Oct. 1780-26 June 1781.[362]

Southside Virginia Families, Volume II, "Judkins of Surry" stated that Jesse Judkins, the son of 1760 John Judkins of Surry County, was probably the same person as the Jesse Judkins whose will was probated in 1781 in Surry County, Virginia.

Our Ancestors, by Miss Jessie Mae Ashford and Mrs. Adelle Brown Ashford, stated that Jesse Judkins' will dated April 28, 1781, was probated on October 28, 1783, at Surry County, Virginia.

In her letter dated January 26, 1988, Kathi Abendroth enclosed family group sheets prepared by Mary Dent which stated that 1781 Jesse Judkins of Surry County married Sally Simmons.

f. 1809 Charles Judkins Of Surry County, Virginia, His Wife Elizabeth (____) Judkins, And His Descendants

1809 Charles Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, was a son of 1760 John Judkins of Surry County, Virginia, and Martha (____) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3])

The will of John Judkins dated December 12, 1758, and probated on May 20, 1760, at Surry County, Virginia, W.B. 10/225 listed Charles Judkins as one of his children:

> ". . . . Item. I give to my son Charles Judkins the plantation whereon I now live and all the rest of my land belonging thereto. I also give to my son Charles one negro boy named David to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son Charles three featherbeds and furniture, two cows and calves, three English chairs, four iron potts, . . . . hooks and rack, three deep pewter dishes, four plates, one gun and . . . . It is my will and desire that if either of my two sons Jesse and Charles should die without any heirs of their body lawfully begotten then the other shall inherit his claim of negroes and all other things I have given them by legacy forever and I desire further that if two of my three sons Samuel, Jesse, Charles should die without any heir of their body lawfully begotten that the others will inherit all the land and negroes and all their estate I have left them by legacy forever. My will and desire is that all my sons may be prosperous and enjoy their estates when they arrive at the age of eighteen years. . . ."

On October 15, 1771, at Surry County, Virginia, D.B. 10/156, Martha Judkins gave to her son Charles Judkins her crop and stock of hogs and cattle:

> "Know all Men by these presents that I Martha Judkins for Divers good Causes as well as for Natural good Will & Affection that I have unto my Son Charles Judkins do give unto the said Charles Judkins all my part of the Crop that's now on the Ground likewise my Stock of Hoggs & Cattle to the only proper use & behoof of him the said Charles Judkins & I do for myself my Heirs Exors: Admrs: & Assigns warrant & will by these presents ever defend the above mentioned Articles to him the said Charles Judkins & his Heirs for ever. This record identifies the wife of Charles Judkins, the son of 1760 John Judkins of Surry County, as Elizabeth (____) Judkins.

Will of Elizabeth Wager, dated Sept. 1784, proved Dec. 1784. Legatees: Rebecca Clack, Mary Mooring eldest daughter of Henry Smith, Elizabeth Judkins daughter of George Cryer, Mary Smith daughter of Samuel Magot, Nicholas Cryer, Rebecca daughter of William Waller, Sally daughter of John Barnes, Elizabeth daughter of Ann Ross, Benjamin Chapman, Samuel Cryer.

This record may identify the wife of 1809 Charles Judkins as Elizabeth (Cryer) Judkins, but since the wife of 1765 Nicholas Judkins was also an Elizabeth (____) Judkins, further research will be required to confirm Elizabeth (Cryer) Judkins as the wife of 1809 Charles Judkins.

This record indicates that Elizabeth (____) Judkins was born before about 1765.

Notable Men Of Alabama, edited by Joel C. DuBoise and published in 1904, included the following regarding Charles Judkins in a biographical sketch of William Thomas Kendrick:

> ". . . .Doctor Kendrick was married April 30, 1878, at Auburn, Ala., to Marie Antoinette Dixon, daughter of George W. and Mary Narcissa ( Judkins ) Dixon, of Auburn. Mrs. Kendrick's father was a captain in the Confederate army and was noted for his bravery and distinguished gallantry on the battle-field. She is a descendant, on her mother's side, from Charles Judkins, a colonel of the American Revolution, about whom cluster a number of interesting traditions. One of these, which appears to be well authenticated, relates an experience which befell him while he was visiting his family in disguise, his home having fallen into the hands of the British. It seems that while he was in the house talking to his wife four soldiers were seen approaching, and, yielding to his wife's entreaties, the colonel withdrew to a meadow nearby, leaving orders with a negro servant to notify him immediately if any indignities were offered his wife. Being informed in a few minutes that his wife wanted his protection, Colonel Judkins, who was a large and powerful man, returned to the house, and attacked all four of the soldiers. Three of them he shot as they came out of the house, and he cut off the head of the fourth, after a hard hand-to-hand struggle. As evidence of the struggle the house showed for many years the marks of the axe, indented into the wall, when the soldier dodged the blows intended for him, and the blade cut into the wood. . . . ."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1809 Charles Judkins and Elizabeth (____) Judkins were the following:

1) George Judkins, born between 1767 and 1784 and before April 5, 1784, and

2) Mary Drew (Judkins) Smith.

History Of Alabama And Dictionary Of Alabama Biography, Volume III, by Thomas McAdory Owen, published in 1921, listed the following regarding George Judkins in a biographical sketch of John Christopher Judkins at page 952:

> "Judkins, John Christopher, planter, was born May 27, 1809, in Surrey County, Va., and died in 1871 in Elmore County; son of George and Margaret (Lucas) Judkins, the former also a native of Surrey County, Va., a planter, captain in the War of 1812, and who in 1821 removed to Alabama and settle on lands on the Tallapoosa River, nine miles from Montgomery, where he established Judkins ferry, which was the first on that river and has been in continuous use for a century. The Judkins family is of Scotch origin. . . . ."

Recollections of the Early Settlers of Montgomery County, Alabama, by W. G. Robertson, reprinted in 1961, included the following regarding Margaret (Lucas) Judkins in a sketch of her brother Henry Lucas:

> "HENRY LUCAS.
> Mr. Lucas was a very eccentric and peculiar man in some respects. His sister had a very valuable plantation on the river, known as the Judkins Ferry place. She had three sons, Tom, John and James Judkins, and when she died the place was valued at sixty thousand dollars. The sons could not agree upon a settlement. Mr. Lucas interfered, and asked Tom what he would take for his interest in the estate and he told his uncle he would take twenty thousand. His uncle gave him a check for the amount. He then asked John what he would take and John replied that he would take the same, and his uncle gave him a check; and then turning to James, he said: "Now, Jimmy, I give it all to you." James was the favorite nephew of his uncle and transacted all of his uncle's financial affairs. Mr. Lucas died at a good old age. He had no children."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1827 George Judkins and Margaret (Lucas) Judkins were the following:

1) William Thomas Judkins, born in about 1805 and between 1805 and 1810 in Virginia,

2) John Christopher Judkins, born in about 1805 or between 1805 and 1810 or on May 27, 1809 in Virginia, and

3) James Henry Judkins, born between 1810 and 1820 or on April 27, 1811, in Surry County, Virginia.

(I) 1869 William Thomas Judkins Of Montgomery County, Alabama, His Wives Elizabeth E. (Bulger) Judkins, Barbary (Lewis) Judkins, And Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins, And His Descendants

1869 William Thomas Judkins of Montgomery County, Alabama, was a son of 1827 George Judkins of Montgomery County, Alabama, and Margaret (Lucas) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1809 Charles[4], 1827 George[5])

The 1830 Census for Montgomery County, Alabama, listed Margaret Judkin with one male in her household aged 20 to 30. Since both her sons William Thomas Judkins and John Christopher Judkins were born between 1805 and 1810, this male could be either of them.

Alabama, Select Marriage Indexes, 1816-1942, available from Ancestry.com, listed the marriage of William T. Judkins and Elizabeth E. Bulger on November 2, 1830, in Montgomery County, Alabama:

This record indicates that Barbary (Lewis) Judkins had probably died in about 1845 probably in Montgomery County, Alabama.

Alabama, Marriages, Deaths, Wills, Court, and Other Records, 1784-1920 and Alabama, Marriage Index, 1800-1969, available from Ancestry.com, and Alabama Marriages, 1816-1957, available at FamilySearch.org, listed the same marriage of William T. Judkins and Sarah Ann Simmons.

The 1850 Census for Montgomery County, Alabama, listed William T. Judkins with the following household on September 18, 1850:

| Name | Age | Sex | Color | Occupation | Value of Real Estate |

This record indicates that William Thomas Judkins was born in about 1805 and that Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins was born in about 1824. The ages of the children when compared to the dates of marriage of William Thomas Judkins indicate that the first two children were from his first marriage to Elizabeth E. (Bulger) Judksin, the next four children were from his second marriage to Barbary (Lewis) Judkins, the last child Sarah was from his third marriage to Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins, and the two Simmons children listed were from the first marriage of Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins - a very blended family.

The 1860 Census for Montgomery County, Alabama, listed Thomas Judkins with the following household on August 22, 1860:

| Name | Age | Sex | Color | Occupation | Value of Real Estate |
| Thomas Judkins | 55 | M | | Planter | 34,000 |

This record indicates that William Thomas Judkins was born in about 1805 and that Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins was born in about 1825. Although Drew Judkins was listed as a male aged 19, this was probably William Thomas Judkins' daughter Virginia D. Judkins who was once listed as Virginia Drucilla Judkins and would have been 19 years old in 1860.

Confederate Applications for Presidential Pardons, 1865-1867, available from Ancestry.com, listed the Application of William T. Judkins for a Presidential Pardon on August 4, 1865:

"To Hon Lewis E. Parsons Governor of the State of Alabama

Your petitioner William T. Judkins hands you herewith his application for pardon & solicits your approval. And now proceeds to answer the interrogatories propounded by your Excellency.

1st I am not under arrest

2 I did not order advise or aid in the taking of Fort Morgan or Mount Vernon Arsenal

3 I have not served on any Vigilance Committee whatever.

No one has been shot or hung by my order or by my aid for real or supposed disloyalty to the Confederate States. And hunted any one with dogs

I was not in favor of the so called ordinance of secession of Alabama at the time it was passed on the 11 day of Jany 1861.

I will be a peaceable & loyal citizen in the future.

No proceedings have been instituted against my property under the Confiscation Act.

My plantation is now in possession of the United States Authorities but not as abandoned, I being on the place when they took possession of the same. It was taken possession of by the freedman's Beaureau on account of its convenience to their Headquarters, they promising to arrangee with petitioner for it.

Sworn to & subscribed before me this 4 day of August A D 1865.

Findagrave.com also stated with regard to this grave as follows:

> "BURIAL LOCATION For William Thomas Judkins & his 3 wives: The early Judkins burials were in a place called the "Judkins Family Burials grounds" It is referred to in early Judkins death notices as their place of burial. My great grandmother (1874-1962) who was a Judkins, had been there during her childhood. My parents, now both deceased, tried for years to locate the cemetery. Some people said they had "heard of it, but also heard that it was very overgrown and difficult to get to." It is believed that the location is near Wetumpka, Elmore County, Alabama. The Judkins owned a lot of land around Montgomery and Wetumpka.
> YAY!!!
> The "Judkins Family Cemetery" near Wetumpka, Elmore, Alabama has FINALLY been found thanks to the help of Mike Reeves!"

Newspapers.com listed the following news article regarding the estae of William T. Judkins published on January 25, 1870, in The Weekly Advertiser, Montgomery, Alabama:

> "Alabama Legislature.
> Senate. Wednesday, Jan 19, 1870.
> . . . .
> Also, adversely on bill to enable the administrator of Wm. T. Judkins to sell the lands of said estate. Concurred in, and bill passed.
> . . . ."

This record indicates that the administration of the estate of William Thomas Judkins had been instituted prior to January 19, 1870.

Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins has not as yet been found in either the 1870 Census or the 1880 Census.

He then asked John what he would take and John replied that he would take the same, and his uncle gave him a check; and then turning to James, he said: "Now, Jimmy, I give it all to you." James was the favorite nephew of his uncle and transacted all of his uncle's financial affairs. Mr. Lucas died at a good old age. He had no children."

1) Eliza (Judkins) Ray, born in November 1829 or on November 24, 1831, or in about 1832 in Alabama, and

2) Margaret (Judkins) Williams, born in about 1834 in Alabama, and the children of 1869 William Thomas Judkins and Barbary (Lewis) Judkins were the following:

1) Elizabeth A. (Judkins) Murray, born in February 1837 or in about 1838 or 1839 or 1840 in Alabama,

2) Mary Ncarcissa (Judkins) Dixon, born in about 1838 or in November 1839 or in October 1840 or in about 1842 in Alabama,

3) Virginia Drue or Drew or Drucilla (Judkins) Powell, born in about 1840 or 1841 or in March 1846 in Alabama, and

4) Frances Judkins, born in about 1843 in Alabama, and the children of 1869 William Thomas Judkins and Sarah Ann Catherine (Taylor) (Simmons) Judkins were the following:

1) Sarah Jane "Sllie" (Judkins) McCarty, born in about 1847 or 1848 or 1849 or1850 in Alabama,

2) William Thomas Judkins, born in May 1852 or in about 1853 in Alabama,

3) Alice (Judkins) Johnston, born on September 19, 1854, or in about 1855 or 1856 in Alabama, and

4) R. Judkins, born in about 1860 in Alabama.

(A) Eliza (Judkins) Ray, Her Husband Henry N. Ray, And Her Descendants

Eliza (Judkins) Ray was a daughter of 1869 William Thomas Judkins of Montgomery County, Alabama, and Elizabeth E. (Bulger) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1809 Charles[4], 1827 George[5], 1869 William Thomas[6])

The 1840 Census for Montgomery County, Alabama, listed William T. Judkins with two females under age 5, one of whom was probably Eliza Judkins.

may have been in 1873 rather than 1883.

Memorial Record Of Alabama, published in 1893, listed the following biographical sketch of Robert S. Williams:

> "DR. ROBERT S. WILLIAMS, retired physician and surgeon of Mount Meigs, Montgomery county , was born at Petersburg, Va. , August 27, 1827. He is a son of Rev. John D. and Mary Johnson ) Williams, the former of whom was born near Oxford , N. C. , and the latter in Dinwiddie county, Va. Rev. Mr. Williams was, for the most part, a self made man, and early in life engaged in the ministry, having charge of the colored population of Petersburg , Va. Being a man of means, his church work was performed largely without compensation. In 1835, he came to Alabama, located at Wetumpka, still following the ministry. He was a Missionary Baptist, and in 1839 he established a Baptist paper, "The Family Visitor", which he edited and published for some years. During this time he republished "Jones' Church History," a very popular work. He was a very progressive and enterprising man, and having considerable capital, he thought it well to invest some of it in railroad stock, and he and others began the construction of a railroad from Wetumpka to the mineral lands of northern Alabama, but lost what he invested. He continued to follow active church work until his death, which occurred in 1868, in his seventieth year. He was one of the most prominent men in the state, and was universally esteemed. His father, Lawdon Williams, died near Oxford, N. C., and his father, John Williams, was a commodore in the navy of the United States, during the Revolutionary war. He is said to have been a descendant of Roger Williams, the great Baptist divine of Rhode Island, Mrs. Mary Williams, the mother of Dr. Robert S. Williams, died in 1870, aged about seventy -five years. She was married twice. Her father, William Johnson, was a native of Virginia, and lived and died in his native state. He was a relative of the Randolphs, Riveses and other prominent families in Virginia. Three of his sons came south at an early day, viz.: Theodoric, who became a prominent merchant of Wetumpka; William, a prominent planter and cotton factor, of Selma, and Littleton, who settled in west Tennessee. Dr. Robert S. Williams is the second of a family of four, two sons and two daughters, viz.: Hon. Thomas Benjamin, a prominent lawyer of Wetumpka, who was member of congress from the Wetumpka district; Robert S., Martha, widow of Milton Cooper, and Inda, deceased wife of Henry Ware, deceased, who was a large cotton dealer and merchant of Selma, then of New Orleans, and still later of New York. Dr. Williams wis educated at Wetumpka until he was about twelve years old. He then learned the art of printing, in the office of his father, and soon afterward decided to go to Marion and work on the Alabama Baptist, but his father opposed his going. His mother, however, consented, and he ran away, took the boat to Selma, and walked the rest of the way. His mother gave him $5 when he left home. When he reached Marion he learned that the office had been closed under mortgage, and the press and other material were soon sold. He was urged by Gen. King to buy it, and although he had only $2.50 left, the outfit was purchased, and he published the paper about two years. He then returned to Wetumpka and read medicine, pursuing his studies until the Mexican war broke out. When Gen. Taylor called for troops for his relief at Fort Brown, he joined an independent company commanded by Rush Elmore, which was incorporated into the Sixth Alabama, and landed near the mouth of the Rio Grande. He remained about four months with Gen. Taylor, when he was transferred to Gen. Scott's army, and spent about two months under that general, the latter part of that time being detailed to the hospital at Vera Cruz, where he obtained valuable knowledge and experience in connection with the yellow fever. In 1919 he graduated from Jefferson medical college, at Philadelphia, and began the practice of his profession at Line Creek, in Montgomery county. One year later he remored to Macon county. In 1860 he returned to Wetumpka, where he practiced medicine until after the war. He then abandoned the profession, gave his valuable medical library to the State Medical association, of which he was one of the most prominent members, and engaged in farming. Since then he has been engaged in agricultural pursuits, owning a fine, large plantation near Mount Meigs. He was widely known as one of the best informed, and most skillful physicians in the county, and was frequently consulted by the ablest physicians in practice. He was married, in 1853, to Miss Margaret Judkins, daughter of William Thomas Judkins, who was a native of, and died in, Montgomery county. Mrs. Williams was born and educated in Montgomery county, and was a very highly cultured and very elegant lady. She died in 1883, having borne six children, viz.: Inda, deceased; Mollie, wife of Lawrence Judkins, of Macon county, Ala.; William Thomas, deceased; John, deceased; Lule, deceased, and Clanton, now of Macon, Ga. In 1876, Dr. Williams married Miss Sadie K. Chadwick, daughter of John C. and Mary (Fudger) Chadwick, the former a native of England, the latter of Ireland. Mr. Chadwick s father belonged to the English army for some years, married in Ireland, and after coming to the United States, was engaged for some years in the sale of silk goods. He now lives with his son-in-law, Dr. Williams. Mrs. Chadwick died a few years ago. Mrs. Williams was born near Tipperary, Ireland, but was brought to the United States in infancy. She is a member of the Protestant Episcopal church. Dr. Williams was opposed to secession and the war, and declined a commission as surgeon of a division of the Confederate army, but as a humanitarian, tendered and rendered great service on the battlefield during the seven days' fight around Richmond, and remained with the sick and wounded as long after the battle as his services were required, feeling as much interest in Federal sick and wounded as he did for the Confederates. The pension that Dr. Williams receives as a Mexican soldier is given by him to the different churches, to be used by them in the promotion of virtue and morality. Dr. Williams was the first to declare that quinine, when given in heroic doses, was a toxic agent, causing blindness, deafness, etc. He is a royal arch Mason, and a member of the Missionary Baptist church."

This record indicates that Margaret (Judkins) Williams died in 1883, which would in turn indicate that she and Robert S. Williams divorced before his second marriage in 1876.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Robert S. Williams published on February 20, 1896, in The Montgomery Advertiser, Montgomery, Alabama:

"Dr. Robert S. Williams.

Death of a Distinguished Resident of This County at His Home at Mount Meigs Yesterday.

Yesterday morning death removed on of Montgomery County's most honored citizens. Dr. Robert S. Williams died at his home at Mount Meigs.

From the pages of "Memorial Alabama" much that is interesting about the lamented deceased is learned:

Dr. Robert Williams was born at Petersburg, Va., in about 1827, son of Rev. Mr. Williams, a Missionary Baptist minister and editor, and a man of considerable prominence, who died at Wetumpka in 1868. The grandfather of Dr. Williams was a Commodore in the United States Navy during the Revolutionary war; his grandmother was of the Virginia Johnsons, related to the Randolphs and Rives's of that State.

Dr. Williams was educated at Wetumpka, edited the Alabama Baptist while it was published at Marion, and when Gen. Taylor called for troops he went into the Mexican war, serving in the Sixth Alabama under Colonel Rush Elmore. In this service he obtained valuable experience in connection with yellow fever. At the Jefferson medical College of Philadelphia in 1849, Dr. Williams received his degree and returned to Wetumpka and practiced medicine until after the war. He then abandoned the profession, gave his valuable medical library to the state Medical Association, of which he was one of the most prominent members, and engaged in farming, owning a large, fine plantation at Mount Meigs, in this county. He was widely known as one of the best informed and most skillful physicians in the county, and was frequently consulted by the ablest physicians in practice.

In 1853 Dr. Williams was married to Miss Margaret Judkins, daughter of William Thomas Judkins, deceased, of Montgomery County. She died in 1883, leaving one daughter, Mrs. Mollie Lawrence Judkins of Macon County, and one son, Clanton Williams. In 1886 Dr. Williams was married to Miss Sadie K. Chadwick, a most excellent lady, who survives him. His brother, Hon. Thos Williams, also survives him.

Dr. Williams was opposed to secession and the war, and declined a commission as surgeon of a division of the Confederate Army, but as a humanitarian tendered and rendered great service on the battlefield during the seven day's fight around Richmond, and remained with the sick and wounded as long after the battles as his services were required.

The pension that Dr. Williams received as a Mexican soldier was given by him to the churches. He was a Royal Arch Mason and a member of the First Baptist Church of this city for many years before his death. His remains reached the city last night from Mt. Meigs and will be carried to Wetumpka this morning where the funeral services will take place."

This record indicates that Margaret (Judkins) Williams died in 1883, but also indicated that Robert S. Williams married his second wife in 1886, rather than 1876 as set forth above. This suggests that the death date of Margaret (Judkins) Williams was possibly incorrectly stated as well and may have been in 1873 rather than 1883. Further research will be required to confirm the correct date of death.

Findagrave.com listed the gravestone of Robert S. Williams in Wetumpka City Cemetery, Wetumpka, Elmore County, Alabama:

"Robert S. Williams M.D.

Died
Feb. 19, 1896
Father let thy grace be given,
That we may meet in Heaven.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Sadie Kate (Chadwick) Williams, the second wife of Robert S. Williams, published on July 11, 1905, in The Montgomery Advertiser, Montgomery, Alabama:

"Death of Mrs. Williams.

Excellent Montgomery Woman Passed Away In Birmingham.

The death of Mrs. Sadie K. Williams which occurred in birmingham yesterday removes from Montgomery and Montgomery County one among it's oldest and best women.
In 1874, she was married to Robert S. Williams of Mount Meigs, and since his death has made her home with her step-children, Mrs. Irda E. Cornell and Clanton W. Williams, of this city.
. . . ."

The statement that Robert S. Williams's second wife was living with the children from his first marriage suggests that his first wife Margaret (Judkins) Williams had predeceased him rather than that they had divorced.

W. Dixon of Auburn Ala aged about 50 yrs. and Mrs. W. T. Kendrick of Montgomery Ala aged about 36 yrs

That your petitioner, being a son-in-law of said deceased, an inhabitant of this State, above the age of twenty-one years, and in no respect disqualified under the law from serving as an administrator, believing that the said estate should be immediately administered, to the end that the said property may be collected and preserved for those who shall appear to have a legal right of interest therein, does, therefore, by virtue of his right under the statute, pray that your Honor will grant Letters of Administration to W. T. Kendrick on said estate to him upon his entering into bond in such sum as is required by the statute, and with such securities as shall be approved by your Honor.

W. T. Kendrick

The State of Alabama, )
Lee County. )

I W T Kendrick being duly sworn, deposes and says that the facts averred in the above petition re true according to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.

W. T. Kendrick

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23 day of August 1893

W C Robinson
Judge Probate Court, Lee County."

The 1900 Census for Montgomery, Montgomery County, Alabama, listed Mary A. Dixon in the William T. Kendrick household in June 1900, her relationship as boarder, and her birth in October 1840 in Alabama.

Notable Men Of Alabama, edited by Joel C. DuBoise and published in 1904, included the following biographical sketch of William Thomas Kendrick:

"WILLIAM THOMAS KENDRICK, M. D. . . . . Doctor Kendrick was married April 30, 1878, at Auburn, Ala., to Marie Antoinette Dixon, daughter of George W. and Mary Narcissa (Judkins) Dixon, of Auburn. Mrs. Kendrick's father was a captain in the Confederate army and was noted for his bravery and distinguished gallantry on the battle-field. She is a descendant, on her mother's side, from Charles Judkins, a colonel of the American Revolution, about whom cluster a number of interesting traditions.. . . ."

This record indicates that Virginia Drue or Drucilla (Judkins) Powell was born in March 1846 and that James Walker Powell was born in about January 1830.

U.S. City Directories, 1822-1995, available from Ancestry.com, listed James W. Powell and Virginia D. Powell in Montgomery, Montgomery County, Alabama, in 1902 and 1903.

Notable Men Of Alabama, edited by Joel C. DuBoise and published in 1904, included the following biographical sketch of James W. Powell:

> "CAPT. JAMES W. POWELL, one of the most prominent Confederate veterans in Alabama, is a native of the State in which he has resided nearly three-quarters of a century, and was from first to last an ardent, willing and consistently loyal supporter of the Southern Confederacy. His first exercise of political suffrage was in casting his vote for Troupe and Quitman, secession candidates for president and vice president. In the convention which met in Montgomery to determine the question whether his State should secede from the Union, he took an important part. His first service to the new-born nation was as special messenger under commission from the governor to Alabama soldiers in Virginia. He then arranged his private affairs and organized a company for the Forty-sixth Alabama regiment, commanded by the irrepressible Col. Mike Woods. This regiment as part of Gen. Tom Taylor's brigade and General Stevenson's division, took part in the battles of Tazeweil, Tenn., and Perryville, Ky. Retreating from Kentucky and at Readyville, Tenn., the Forty-sixth, together with the Twentieth, Twenty-third, Thirtieth and Thirty-first Alabama regiments, became an Alabama brigade and General Tracy its brigadier, and was sent forthwith to Vicksburg, Miss., where Captain Powell was assigned to duty on general court martial, serving three months. After the fali of Vicksburg, the Army of Tennessee was reorganized at Demopolis, Ala. Gen. E. W. Pettus, now Alabama's representative in the senate of the United States, was made brigadier in place of the lamented Garrett. Stevenson's division was ordered to Lookout Mountain. In the Battle of the Clouds on the mountain and the next day at Missionary Ridge, Captain Powell was present, taking an active part. At midnight the Confederates retreated to Dalton, Ga., where the winter was spent in quiet and recuperation, until the enemy's advance again put them in motion. Then began the ever memorable campaign to Atlanta, comprising many weeks of fighting by day, retreating by night. Captain Powell was in all of this, enduring the constant danger, hunger, thirst, rags and wretchedness which the Southern soldier was called to suffer. General Johnston being relieved and Hood being invested with command, hope fled from the hearts of the veterans, but the old patriots became stolid to do or die for Dixie. The enemy went around Hood, marching for the sea, while the Southern army faced about and force marched into Tennessee, the poorest fed, clad and equipped body of men ever called an army, but with a heaven-born inspiration inciting them to do and dic for their country. After the battles of Columbia and Franklin and two in front of Nashville, the once splendid Army of Tennessee had shrunk to a shadow of its former self, and was forced to retreat before an enemy more than three times its number. Now began Hood's retreat from Nashville surpassing both in adversity and heroism the French retreat from Moscow. In the last grand battle of the war at Bentonville, N. C., Gen. Joseph E. Johnston being again in command, the Army of Tennessee had its last triumph. Pettus' Alabama brigade was sent to meet Stoneman's raiders, who were marching to destroy Confederate supplies and prisons at Salisbury. The enemy was met, but would not fight; having completed the destruction of both prisons and supplies they went their way. Captain Powell, with three companies, was ordered to report to Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, commandant of the post at Salisbury, for provost duty, and was by him appointed provost marshal and invested with authority as post quartermaster and post commissary. Captain Powell was serving the city of Montgomery as alderman when military governors took control of the State, county and municipal affairs. Captain Powell is descended from colonial settlers of Virginia, North and South Carolina, his grandfather Powell being the youngest of eight brothers who fought for their country in the Revolution. His grandfather Powell married Miss Mary Alston, of Portsmouth, Va. They spent the remainder of their life on their plantation on the Roanoke river in Warren county, N. C. His ancestors on his mother's side, were colonial settlers of South Carolina, and Revolutionary war heroes. In 1794 his grandfather Morgan married Eliza beth Whatley and at once moved west taking their negroes with them. They settled in the unexplored wilderness which is now Southern Alabama. John Powell, Capt. Powell's father, came to Alabama from North Carolina, in 1818, bringing with him only one negro boy, and in 1825 he became the husband of Matilda Morgan. In 1830 James W. Powell was born to them at Fort Claiborne, then the largest and most important town in Alabama. Three years later they moved to Montgomery, where they lived long and happily, in great prosperity, loved and honored by all. Captain Powell was twice married. His first wife, Ann Eliza Bunting, traced her ancestry through the McQueens of North Carolina to the noble house of Bruce. His second wife was Virginia Drue Judkins. She traced her lineage to colonial Virginians, who were distinguished in America's struggle for independence. By his first wife, Captain Powell had three children: Richard Bunting, now a resident of Arkansas; David James, a lawyer of San Antonio, Texas, and Mary Carolina, now Mrs. Oliver of Montgomery. One son was born to him by his present wife, Thomas Judkins, now general manager of the Natchez and Bayou packet line, a resident of Natchez, Miss."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Virginia Drew (Judkins) Powell published on October 13, 1906, in The Montgomery Times, Montgomery, Alabama:

"Mrs. J. W. Powell Dies After A Long Illiness

Mrs. James W. Powell, after a prolonged illness of a year's duration, died last night at 10:30 o'clock at her home, 34 Wilson street.

Mrs. Powell belonged to a family long identified with Montgomery city and county. Her whole life, barring her earlier years at Mt. Meigs, her birthplace, has been entwined with the life of this city.

Before marrying her husband, Jas. W. Powell, she was Miss Virginia Drew Judkins, the daughter of Thos. Judkins, a man prominent in the affairs of this part of the state. Mrs. Powell is survived by her husband, one son, Capt. Thomas J. Powell, three sisters, Mrs. James Dixon and Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, of Montgomery, and Mrs. M. E. McCarty, of Birmingham and one brother, Thomas Judkins, of Montgomery.

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Court street Methodist church, of which she was a member, the pastor, Dr. J. A. Rice, officiating."

The 1910 Census for Montgomery, Montgomery County, Alabama, listed Captain James W. Powell in the Nannie(?) Lee household on April 19, 1910, his relationship as boarder, his age as 80 and born in Alabama, and his marital status as widowed. This record indicates that David P. Johnston was born in June 1847.

Notable Men Of Alabama, edited by Joel C. DuBoise and published in 1904, included the following biographical sketch of David Johnston:

> "DAVID JOHNSTON, of Montgomery, Ala., clerk of circuit court, Montgomery, was born in Tuskegee, Macon county, Ala., Jan. 21, 1847. He is the son of Dr. John Gerdine, and Mary J. ( Low) Johnston. The father is a native of Georgia; the mother, of Alabama. The great- grandfather, Dr. Lancelot Jolinston, was a sur geon in the Revolutionary war. The family have a pair of knee buckles that was presented to him by General George Washington. The family are of Scotch-Irish descent. They owned large estates. Dr. Lancelot Johnston was educated in Dublin, Ireland, but came to this country and settled in Caswell county, N. C. There were three brothers, Dr. Lancelot, David, and John Johnston, who came over together. The Johnston family are a family of physicians, there being ten in number, from the great-grandfather to the present generation. The paternal grandfather, David Johnston, was also a physician, and moved from North Carolina to Georgia and settled first in Walton county, and then at Tuskegee, Macon county, Ala., about 1843. The father of David Johnston was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania medical department in 1839, when he was but nineteen years of age. He practiced in Tuskegee till the war broke out, when he was sent to Richmond, Va., by Governor John G. Shorter, to look after the wounded. He later went to Pensacola, Fla., on the same mission. He was subsequently appointed surgeon to look after the camps. In December, 1865, he located in Montgomery, and practiced his profession until his death in 1868. His wife died February, 1879. They had a family of six children, three living, David, Lancelot, and John Gerdine. David was reared in Tuskegee, attending the schools there. He took the collegiate course at Tuskegee Collegiate institute. The war coming on, he left school when only sixteen years of age and went out as a sergeant in Company A, Sixty-third Alabama. He was promoted to sergeant major of the Sixty-third Alabama. He was captured at Blakeley, Alabama, and sent to Ship Island, and then carried to Vicksburg, where he was exchanged to be paroled at Meridian, Miss., in May, 1865. He returned to his home at Tuskegee, when, after straightening up matters, he moved to Montgomery, Ala., in February, 1866. He clerked in a store and farmed until 1896, when, in February, he was appointed by Governor Oates to fill an unexpired term as circuit clerk, and in 1898 he was re-elected to the same office, carrying every precinct in the county. This was a heated campaign, and he had several popular opponents. He has made a good and efficient officer. He is also ex-officio deputy clerk of the city court, criminal division. He is a member of the National Union. He was married in 1876 to Alice, daughter of William T. Judkins and his wife, Sallie Judkins, a native of Alabama. Allie May, Nettie D., and Sarah T. are their three children. Mrs. Johnston died in 1900."

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of David P. Johnston published on May 29, 1908, in The Montgomery Advertiser, Montgomery, Alabama:

"D. P. Johnson Passes Away

Clerk of a Montgomery Court.

He Was Popular Citizen

Native of Tuskegee and 61 Years Old.

End Come Suddenly and was Great Shock to Wide Circle of Friends Here and Elsewhere.

David P. Johnston, well known and greatly loved in Montgomery, died suddenly at his residence, 221 Catoma Street, at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Johnston had lived in this city many years, and the unexpectedness of his death was a severe shock to the community. For thirteen years he had been clerk of the Circuit Court, and his admirable character and lovable personality had greatly endeared him to his associates.

Mr. Johnston was born in Tuskegee, January 23, 1847, and spent his boyhood in that town. When war was declared between the North and the South, he was too young at the beginning to join the Southern forces, but enlisted in an Alabama regiment at the age of 16 years, and fought valiantly despite his youth, until captured at Fort Blakely a short while before the termination of the struggle. He was then sent to Shipp's Island where he remained a prisoner until the close of the war.

Shortly afterward he came to Montgomery where he had since lived. In 1876 he married Miss Alice Judkins of Mount Meigs, she died some years ago; three children, Misses Alice Mary Johnston, Nettie B. Johnston and Sarah Taylor Johnston being the issue of the marriage.

Engaging in business in this city, Mr. Johnston soon attained an enviable position, being widely known for his integrity and greatly loved by those who came within the circle of his acquaintanceship.

About thirteen years ago, during the administration of General W. C. Oates as Governor of Alabama, he was appointed Clerk of the Circuit Court, an office which he held until his death. In the discharge of his duties, he displayed uniformly those qualities which distinguish the man of character, and he possessed the esteem and confidence of his associates in an unusual degree.

He is survived by his wife (second marriage) and two of the children named above, Miss Nettie Johnston and Mrs. T. M. Robertson, both of Montgomery.

The funeral will take place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. T. M. Robertson, 63 Jefferson Davis Avenue. The services will be conducted by Rev. O. C. McGhee, and the interment will be made at Oakwood Cemetery."

"The State of Alabama )
Montgomery County ) July 28th 1865

To His Excellency Lewis E. Parsons
Prov. Gov. Ala

Sir:

Your petitioner, John C. Judkins of Macon County Alabama herewith respectfully presents for your endorsement, his application, addressed to President Johnson under his Proclamation of May last and prays your favorable consideration thereof;

Your petitioner is not under arrest on any charge.

Petitioner did not order, aid or advise the taking of Fort Morgan or Mount Vernon Arsenal or either of them. Petitioner has never served during the war on any "Vigilance Committee" of any sort.

No person has been shot or hung by his order for real or supposed disloyalty to the Confederate States and he has not shot or hung, or ordered in shooting or hanging any person for real or supposed disloyalty to the Confederate States; neither has he ordered or been employed in hunting any person with dogs, who was disloyal to the Confederate States, or supposed to be.

Petitioner was not in favor of the Secession of Alabama on the 11th of January 1861, but acquiesced therein after the Ordinance was passed believing the same represented the will of the majority of the State, and believing it his duty to support, as a good citizen, the authorities that be Petitioner will, in the future, be a good and loyal citizen.

No proceedings have been commenced against the property of the petitioner, that he is aware of under the Confiscation Act of Congress.

The United States authorities do not hold, as abandoned property, any thing belonging to petitioner. The United States forces seized and appropriated in April last 17 mules and horses, 2000 bushels corn, 20,000 lbs Fodder, 5000lbs bacon, the property of petitioner and they burned one gin house, and 130 bales of cotton, and his house, and destroyed all his valuable and destroyed his private papers. His loss exclusive of the value of the negroes, is not less than twenty five thousand dollars.

Petitioner has not speculated during the war, and what he has made has been freely appropriated by him to the support of the families of soldiers, and others in want.

Your petitioner respectfully asks your favorable endorsement of his application for pardon, and now has the honor to subscribe himself

Your Excellency's Obedient servant
John C Judkins

Findagrave.com listed the following letter of endorsement of the plan of John Christopher Judkins to migrate to Brazil dated February 1867:

"The United States of America, The State of Alabama, City of Montgomery, February 1867
To all Strangers Greeting,

Our friend Mr. John C. Judkins intending to leave his home in Alabama, to seek residence in the Empire of Brazil, we present him this paper as a testimonial of our appreciation of his merits, our best wishes for his welfare and prosperity, and of our many regrets at parting from him.

He is a man most worthy of confidence and esteem in all the relations of life; and for years has been one of the largest and most successful cotton planters in this State. He has developed the art of cultivating cotton to its highest perfection, managing and controlling the labor of a large number of slaves with a system and success which have been the admiration of all who knew him. He has repeatedly represented his County in the Legislature of the State of Alabama and resigned a position in that body to his emigration to Brazil.

We commend him most heartedly to the kind attention of all to whom these presents may come, and the best wish that we can give him is that he may find friends in his new home with hearts as kind and true as his own.

"Last Will and Testament.

I, John C Judkins, a citizen of the County of Macon and State of Alabama being of sound mind and disposing memory, do by these presents make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others that I have heretofore made.

First. I will that all my just debts be paid as soon as possible out of such money that may be in hand, out of the credits that may be due to me, and out of the crops that may be on hand.

Secondly. After the payment of all of my just debts, in consideration of the love and affection which I bear to my wife, Eliza Jane Judkins, who has been to me a loving and affectionate wife throughout my life, and is the mother of all my children, I give and bequeath to her absolutely, and without charge, all of my Estate, of every kind and species of property which I may own and possess at the time of my death. And in making to my beloved wife this gift of all of my estate, I request her to support and maintain in such manner as we have done for several years last past, our daughter Fanny Jane Oliver, and also our granddaughter Jane Oliver, now about seven years old, and to educate our granddaughter, Jane Oliver, in such manner and style as we have educated our own daughters. And I also request my beloved wife to take to live with her our youngest son Boling Young Judkins for the purpose of managing and conducting the business of my estate to a final settlement. And after the settlement of all business of my estate, to aid her in the management of such business of her own that may arise, or she may think proper to set on foot, and carry out. And I will also suggest and recommend her to advise with and consult in all of the business of my estate, as well as her own, my brother James H Judkins, who will at all times, I believe, make himself useful and pleasant to her in business.

And in conclusion, I do by these presents appoint and constitute my beloved wife, Eliza Jane Judkins, sole Executrix of this my last will and testament, and she is not to be required to give bond and securities for the discharge of the duties of Executrix.

Made and signed in the presence of my friends as witnesses, at my own Residence, in the County of Macon, and State of Alabama, this the 9th day of January A.D. 1871

History Of Alabama And Dictionary Of Alabama Biography, by Thomas McAdory Owen, Volume 3, published in 1921, included the following biographical sketch of John Christopher Judkins:

"JUDKINS, JOHN CHRISTOPHER, planter, was born May 27, 1809, in Surrey County, Va., and died in 1871, in Elmore County; son of George and Margaret (Lucas) Judkins, the former also a native of Surrey County, Va., a planter, captain in the War of 1812, and who in 1821 removed to Alabama and settled on lands on the Tallapoosa River, nine miles from Montgomery, where he established Judkins ferry, which was the first on that river and has been in continuous use for a century. The Judkins family is of Scotch origin. John Christopher Judkins received his education in the local schools of his native state and in his boyhood began the life of a farmer upon the parental lands. He bought, at government sale, lands on Line Creek, Montgomery County, and at the beginning of the War of Secession he had accumulated a landed estate of nearly seven thousand acres, and owned two hundred and fifty slaves. In 1866 he was elected to the Alabama legislature from Macon County and served on the committee on ways and means. During the following year he resigned his office and in company with Col. James Porter of Montgomery and John Shackelford of Macon County, removed to Brazil, where he purchased land and slaves. Mr. Judkins and his associates intended colonizing the new home land with relatives and friends from Alabama, planters who had suffered the loss by emancipation of their former slaves, but the severance of old ties and distance from former associations deterred many from perfecting their plans for emigration when the time drew near, and in 1868, the leader returned to Alabama, where he died and was buried in the family graveyard on the Tallapoosa River. He was a Whig and opposed secession, but followed his state as a matter of patriotism. Married in 1838, in Elmore County, to Eliza Jane, daughter of Bernard Chappell and wife, who was a Mrs. Harris, the former of Irish parentage, and it is not clear in the family records whether he was born in Ireland, 1781, or in Virginia, where he later lived. He removed to Georgia, where in 1810, he was married. Later, with his wife and three stepsons, he removed to Alabama, settling on the Tallapoosa River, where he reared a family of seven daughters and two sons. At the time of his death, 1860, he owned a number of slaves and above two thousand acres of land. Children: 1. Rebecca Evans, m. Col. Thomas Williams (q. v.); 2. George Bernard (q. v.), m. Sarah Webb, Wetumpka; 3. James Henry (q. v.); 4. John Christopher, jr., planter and an officer on Gen. Clanton's staff, C. S. Army, m. Eva Pinkston, Shorters; 5. Fanny Jane, m. James Oliver; 6. William Thomas, student at the University of Alabama, member of Capt. Starr's cadet company, C. S. Army, and killed at Greenport in skirmish with Rosseau's raid, July 18, 1864; his body was never located; 7. Lawrence Dawson, planter, m. Mary Williams; 8. Bolling Young, d. unmarried; 9. Peggy Lucas, m. Arthur Jemison Brooks, Huntsville; 10. Dolly Evalina, m. McDuff Cain, Wetumpka; 11. Harriet Susan, m. Henry Shellman; 12. Mary Euphemia, m. George Mathews, Mathews. Last residence: Elmore County."

Wife: Eliza Jane

Children:
1) Rebecca Evans (Judkins) Williams,
2) George Bernard Judkins,
3) James Henry Judkins,
4) John Christopher Judkins, Jr.,
5) Fanny Jane (Judkins) Oliver,
6) William Thomas Judkins,
7) Lawrence Dawson Judkins,
8) Bolling Young Judkins,
9) Peggy Lucas (Judkins) Brooks,
10) Dolly Evalina (Judkins) Cain,
11) Harriet Susan (Judkins) Shellman,
12) Mary Euphemia (Judkins) Mathews.

Recollections of the Early Settlers of Montgomery County, Alabama, by W. G. Robertson, reprinted in 1961, included the following regarding John Judkins in a sketch of John's uncle Henry Lucas:

"HENRY LUCAS.

Henry Lucas moved from Georgia and settled a valuable plantation on the Tallapoosa river, not far from Mt. Meigs. When he left Georgia he was badly involved with debt to a bank called Daryan, but he soon settled with the bank and then commenced to make money very rapidly. He added land to land and negroes to negroes, and when he died he was the richest planter in the State.

He had five separate plantations and probably as many hundred negroes. His plantations were known as the lower and upper Tallapoosa river plantations, the King plantation, the Line creek plantation and the Macon plantation, and a beautiful residence and homestead at Mt. Meigs. Mr. Lucas married a widow, Mrs. Taylor, daughter of Mr. Ross, as has been noticed in a previous chapter. She had two children by her first marriage. Before Mr. Lucas died he willed each separate plantation and everything on it, including negroes, stock, etc., as follows: He willed his lower river place to his wife's grand children, the Charles. The upper place, and the homestead at Mt. Meigs, he gave to James H. Judkins, his nephew. The King place he gave to Augustus Smith, who married a relative. The Line creek place he gave to Dr. Freeny, and his Macon county place to John Judkins. These parties are all dead except Augustus Smith and W. T. Charles. Mr. Lucas was a very eccentric and peculiar man in some respects. His sister had a very valuable plantation on the river, known as the Judkins Ferry place. She had three sons, Tom, John and James Judkins, and when she died the place was valued at sixty thousand dollars. The sons could not agree upon a settlement. Mr. Lucas interfered, and asked Tom what he would take for his interest in the estate and he told his uncle he would take twenty thousand. His uncle gave him a check for the amount. He then asked John what he would take and John replied that he would take the same, and his uncle gave him a check; and then turning to James, he said: "Now, Jimmy, I give it all to you." James was the favorite nephew of his uncle and transacted all of his uncle's financial affairs. Mr. Lucas died at a good old age. He had no children."

From the evidence set forth above and additional evidence set forth below, the children of 1871 John Christopher Judkins and Eliza Jane (Young) Judkins were the following:

1) Rebecca Evans (Judkins) Williams, born in March 1834 or on March 16, 1835, or in about 1836 in Montgomery County, Alabama,

2) George Bernard Judkins, born on March 4, 1837, or in about 1838 in Montgomery County, Alabama,

3) James Henry Judkins, born in about 1838 or on February 2, 1839, or in February 1840 in Line Creek, Montgomery County, Alabama,

4) John Christopher Judkins, Jr., born on September 24, 1840, or in about 1841 in Macon County, Alabama,

5) Frances Jane (Judkins) Oliver, born in about 1841 or on December 19, 1842, or in about 1843 or in August 1846 in Newton, Dale County, Alabama, or Montgomery County, Alabama,

6) William Thomas Judkins, born in about 1843 or on November 17, 1845, in Alabama,

7) Lawrence Dawson Judkins, born in about 1845 or 1846 in Alabama,

8) Bolling Young Judkins, born in about 1847 or on February 9, 1848, in Alabama,

9) Margaret Lucas (Judkins) Brooks, born in about 1849 or on March 27, 1850, or in about 1851 in Montgomery County, Alabama,

10) Dolly Evalina (Judkins) Cain, born in January 1848 or in about 1850 or on January 24, 1852, or in about 1853 in Alabama,

11) Harriet Susan (Judkins) Shellman, born in about 1851 or in March 1854 or in about 1855 in Alabama, and

12) Mary Euphemia (Judkins) Mathews, born in about 1853 or 1856 or on April 26, 1857, in Alabama.

(A) Rebecca Evans (Judkins) Williams, Her Husband Thomas Williams, And Her Descendants

Rebecca Evans (Judkins) Williams was a daughter of 1871 John Christopher Judkins, Sr., of Macon County, Alabama, and Eliza Jane (Young) Judkins. (1672 Samuel[1], 1705 Samuel[2], 1760 John[3], 1809 Charles[4], 1827 George[5], 1871 John Christopher[6])

The 1850 Census for Montgomery County, Alabama, listed Rebecca Judkins in the John C. Judkins household on October 25, 1850, and her age as 15 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1835.

The marriage record of Rebecca E. Judkins and Thomas Williams was dated on August 15, 1852, in Troup County, Georgia:

This record indicates that Rebecca Evans (Judkins) Williams was born in about 1834 and that Thomas Williams was born in about 1826.

Memorial Record Of Alabama, Volume 1, published in 1893, included the following biographical sketch of Thomas Williams:

> "HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS, the most extensive planter of Elmore county, was born in Greenville county, Va., August 11, 1825, the son of John Davis and Mary (Johnson) Williams, born in Granville county, N. C., in 1800, and in Greenville county, Va., in 1796, respectively. He was a Baptist minister, and in the course of his ministry his work called him to Virginia, where he met and married the companion of his life, and after several years of work in Petersburg and other points in Virginia, in 1834, he settled at Wetumpka, where he remained in the ministry until his death, in 1871. He is said to have been one of the ablest divines of his denomination in central Alabama. He built more churches, married more people and preached more funerals than any other minister before or after him. He was a man of the highest type of integrity and honor, and was known and loved by all men. He was thoroughly temperate and conservative on all subjects, and had no fellowship with hypocrisy or sham. He was a splendid type of the earnest, honest, christian exponents of the "humble man of Gallilee." He was the son of Thomas and Anna (Davis) Williams. Thomas Williams was a sturdy Welshman, who was killed in the war for American independence at King's mountain. Several years after, his widow went from her home with a negro boy, in an ox cart, disinterred the remains of her beloved soldier-husband and buried them beneath the rose and lilac trees of her own garden. The mother of Hon. Thomas Williams died at the advanced age of ninety-three, a pious Christian, a loving mother, and a faithful wife. Hon. Thomas Williams is the eldest of three sons and three daughters. He had but limited education. Up to his twenty - first year, his life had been spent between the plow handles. After this, he did collecting for a year or two, and thus earned sufficient money to defray his expenses through East Tennessee university. He then read law, and at the age of twenty- seven years he was admitted to the bar and practiced for twenty-two years with phenomenal success. He was married August 20, 1852, to Rebecca E., daughter of John C. Judkins, of Virginia. The following children were the result of the union: Robert, William Yancey, Sampson H., Jennie D., wife of Peter A. Buyck; Harry L., a lawyer; Thomas J., Mary Johnson and Sett Storrs, the last named two dying in infancy. The home of Hon. Thomas Williams is two miles north east of Wetumpka, and is one of the most attractive and beautiful country seats in the state. He has, beside this, about 12,000 acres of fine land in Elmore county, so that he enjoys the ideal of an educated southern gentle man -- broad acres and a fine home. In 1891, the splendid place, with all its furniture, barns and provisions were destroyed by fire, destroying many valuable articles that money could not reproduce. Mr. Williams has been a justice of the peace and registrar in chancery and prison inspector. In 1878, he was nominated in a hopelessly republican district for the legislature, and, to the surprise of everybody, was elected, and shortly there after he was elected to congress. He began his congressional career in the extra session of the forty-sixth congress, and served with ability and distinction. He served on the committees of public lands, private claims, expenditures, etc. He and his family are Methodists, and belong to one of the best families in the state."

Notable Men Of Alabama, edited by Joel C. DuBoise and published in 1904, included the following biographical sketch of Thomas Williams:

"HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS, deceased, formerly of Elmore county, Ala., was born in Greensville county, Va., Aug. II, 1825. He was the son of John Davis and Mary (Johnson) Williams; the former born in Granville county, N. C., in 1800, the latter in Greensville county, Va., in 1796. John Davis Williams was a Baptist minister. His work carried him to Petersburg, Va., where he married; some years afterwards he removed to Alabama, becoming a resident of Elmore county in 1834, living there until his death in 1871. He was a son of Thomas and Ann (Davis) Williams, the former being killed in the Revolutionary war, at King's Mountain. Hon. Thomas Williams received a limited education, his life being passed on a farm until he was twenty-one years of age. By teaching for a time he saved enough to enable him to enter the University of East Tennessee, at Knoxville, from which he graduated. Law appealed to him and he took up the study of that profession, being admitted to the bar at the age of twenty-seven. He practiced his profession for twenty-two years, and at various times was justice of the peace, register in chancery and prison inspector. At the time of his death he was a trustee of Auburn college. Though in public life and active in politics, he was never an aspirant for public office, but an appreciative people sought him out and elected him to the legislature of Alabama in 1878. In the same year he was elected to the national Congress and was re-elected for three consecutive terms. A zealous worker, he served throughout with ability and distinction. Mr. Williams was one of the largest land holders in the State, owning some twelve hundred acres in Elmore county, besides a beautiful homestead near Wetumpka, in that county. He was a splendid type of the Southern gentleman, well educated, polished, and generous to a fault. On Aug. 15, 1852, he married Rebecca E., daughter of John C. Judkins and his wife, Jane Young. Mr. Judkins was a native of Virginia, but a long time resident of Montgomery county, Ala.; his wife was a daughter of Bernard Young, of Montgomery county. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were parents of the following children: Robert Silas, born July 11, 1853, now a resident of Durant, I. T.; he was married Jan. 5, 1876, to Mary S. Moore, a daughter of Dr. Merriwether Moore, of Wetumpka, Ala., and is an extensive cotton buyer. Jane Judkins, born Dec. 15, 1854, married in Feb., 1874, to Peter Buyck, a banker, of Wetumpka; died March 8, 1898. Mary Johnson, deceased in infancy; William Young, a farmer, of Elmore county, born July 28, 1857; he was married Oct. 15, 1884, to Mary Jewett Williams, a daughter of Milton Williams, of Elmore county. Samson Harris, of Wetumpka, Ala., born March 17, 1859; married Louie Bell Thomas, a daughter of John Thomas, of South Carolina, Jan. 14, 1897; died Dec. 31, 1900. Henry Lucas, an eminent attorney of Wecumpka, born June 18, 1860, single. Thomas Judkins, register in chancery and deputy sheriff of Elmore county, living at Wetumpka; born Dec. 4, 1865; on Feb. 24, 1887, married Clara Mae Due, a daughter of Elexander Due, of Wetumpka. Seth Storrs, born Jan. 31, 1870, deceased. On the 13th of April, 1903, the Hon. Thomas Williams was called home to his Maker. In life he was loved, and in death mourned by the people whom he had served so well. His wife survives him, living at Wetumpka."

The 1910 Census for Elmore County, Alabama, listed Rebecca Williams in the Tom J. Williams household on April 19, 1910, her relationship as mother, her age as 75 and born in Alabama, indicating a date of birth in about 1835, and her marital status as widowed.

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary for Rebeca Williams dated August 2, 1917, and published in The Weekly Herald, Wetumpka, Alabama:

"Mrs. Rebeca Williams Passes Away.

Mrs. Rebecca Williams, one of Wetumpka's oldest and most beloved women passed away on last Sunday morning, at eleven o'clock at her home in East Wetumpka. Mrs. Williams, who was eighty-two years of age, had been a semi-invalid for a number of years; but her death came without any immediate warning and was a great shock to her many friends and loved ones. She seemed as well as usual on Sunday morning and her sudden collapse is attributed to heart trouble.

She was born March 16th, 1835 in the beautiful old ante bellum home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Judkins, in Montgomery county. She was married when very young to Col. Tom Williams, a typical Southern gentleman, soldier and statesman; and the history of their courtship and married life would make a most beautiful and interesting romance. By her request, [a] packet of their old love letters was buried with her. As a beautiful bride she was brought to Col. Williams' home about three miles out from Wetumpka where she lived the greater part of her life.

Mrs. Williams, "a belle of the fifties," possessed a very vivid personality; and even in extreme old age was a most charming and interesting person. She was a life long member of the M. E. Church and her good works are numberless. During the past few years of weary invalidism she has been a very patient sufferer; and death coming so peacefully without any trace of pain brought to a beautiful close this long and useful life.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon from the residence by Rev. S. G. Boyd of the M. E. Church, and interment was made in the Wetumpka cemetary. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends were present, and numberless esquisite floral offerings betokened the love and esteem in which this beautiful character was held.

The pall Bearers were Cliff Judkins, Lawrence Judkins, Tom Judkins, Woodford Judkins, Clifford Durr, nephews of the deceased, E. J. Cain, L.C. Smith and Dr. E P. Moon.

Whe leaves three sons, R. S. Williams of Mineral Wells, Tex., W. Y. Williams and T. J. Williams of Wetumpka; one brother, J. M. Judkins of Montgomery, two sisters, Mrs. Frances Oliver of Dothan, and Mrs. J. A. Brooks of Birmingham, a number of grand children and great grand children and a wide family connection throughout the South."

The will of Rebecca E. Williams was dated on February 7, 1908, probated on August 22, 1917, at Elmore County, W.B. B/101, and provided as follows:

"The State of Alabama, )
Elmore County. )

Mindful of the uncertainty of life and being now of sound mind and memory, I, Rebecca E. Williams, a resident of the County of Elmore and State of Alabama, do hereby make my last Will and Testament and declare the same to be as follows, to-wit:

First Item: I hereby direct my executor hereinafter named to pay my just debts and such expenses as may be incurred in my last illness and in the decent and Christian burial of my body, out of any of the assets of my estate.

Item Second: I give and bequeath to my granddaughter, Jenedeane Buyck one Hundred Dollars in cash and the mattresses, bed quilts and blankets now used by her.

Item Three: I give and bequeath to my son, Thomas J. Williams the balance of my household furniture of every kind and description and all family portraits and all pictures and all crockery glass-ware and kitchen furniture that may belong to me at the time of my death:

Item Four: The Residue of my Estate, both real and personal property, I direct shall be sold and the net results of the sale thereof together with any cash that may be on hand at the time of my death and that may be derived from the collection of any debts that may be due me at the time of my death and that may be derived from the rent of my lands and from any contract or contracts entered into by me for the cultivation of my lands, after deducting therefrom the amount necessary for the payment of my just debts, and the legacy named in the Second Item of this will, I direct shall be divided into five equal shares: One share of which I devise to my grand children, John D. Williams, Robert S. Williams Jr. and Moore Williams, sons of my son Robert S. Williams in equal shares to be held and managed for them by my Son, said Robert S. Williams during his life, whom I hereby appoint as my trustee without bond for that purpose and I hereby authorize and empower him to manage said legacy as he may deem best, paying to the legatees in equal shares at such times as he deems best the net results of the income derived from such share; and One share of which I devise to my grand-daughters, Rebecca E. Gaddis and Jenedeane Buyck, in equal share, share and share alike: and one share of which I devise to my grand children, Milton Yancey, Lucas Evans, Thomas B. and Bernardine Williams, children of my son, William Yancey Williams, to be managed for them by their father, the said William Yancey Williams during his life time, whom I hereby appoint as my trustee without bond for that purpose and I hereby authorize and empower him to manage and administer said legacy in any manner he may deem best to the best interest of said legatees, paying over to them in equal shares the net results of the income derived there from at such times as to him may seem best: and one share of which I devise to my grand son, Thomas Harris Williams, Son of my deceased son, Sampson Harris

Williams to be managed for him by my brother, James H. Judkins until my said Grand son shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and I hereby appoint my said brother, James H. Judkins, to be the testamentary guardian of the legacy named in this item of my Will without bond and I hereby invest him with full power and authority to manage said legacy as to him may seem to the best interest of my said grand son, no part of the principal nor of the interest derived in the management of said legacy shall be paid to my said grand son, until he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years; but if my said grand son die before he reaches the age of twenty-one years, then in that event the share of my estate hereby bequeathed to him shall revert to the other legatees name in the Will as follows, that is to say one-fourth of the same shall revert to my grand children, the children of my Son, Robert S. Williams, one-fourth to my grand daughters Rebecca E. Gaddis and Jenedeane Buyck, one-fourth to my grand children, the children of my Son William Yancey Williams and one-fourth to my grand daughter Jenine Mae Parish, the duaghter of my Son Thomas J. Williams, and in the event of the death of my grand son before he attained the age of twenty-one years, then my brother, James H. Judkins shall proceed at once to pay over to the trustees the principal and the interest accrued on the legacy devised to my said grand son in the proportion in and under such reversion and my said trustees are empowered to manage and control the same as they are respectively instructed to manage and control the other legacy entrusted to them respectively, and the one-fourth part of such reverted legacy devised in this Will to my grand daughters, Rebecca E. Gaddis and Jenedeane Buyck shall be paid to them in equal shares and I hereby direct that my said brother as such testamentary guardian shall not be required to render to any Court of the State of Alabama having jurisdiction of the administration of the estate of minors, on account of his administration as such testamentary guardian: and if my said brother shall at any time desire not longer to Continue to act as such testamentary guardian, then and in that event I hereby authorize and empower him, to appoint his successor and to the person so appointed I hereby grant the powers in the management of said legacy and to the final payment to my said grand son as are herein granted to and required of my said brother as the testamentary guardian of said legacy: and one share of which I hereby devise to my grand daughter Jenine Mae Parish, daughter of my son Thomas J. Williams, to be managed for her by her father, the said Thomas J. Williams, during his lifetime, whom I hereby appoint as my trustee, and empower him to manage and administer the same according to his best judgment, paying over to said legatee at such times as he may deem best the net income derived, in the management of said legacy.

I hereby nominate and appoint my brother, James H. Judkins, executor of this Will, without bond, and hereby authorize and empower him to sell all of my real estate and personal property at private or public sale, for cash or on such terms as he may deem to the best interest of my legatees, and I hereby empower him with authority to execute and acknowledge all conveyances necessary to convey the real estate sold: and I hereby direct him to wind up the administration of my estate as soon as practicable and further direct that he shall not be required to render to any Court of the State of Alabama having jurisdiction of the administration of estates of deceased persons, an account of his administration of my estate. I further that the trustees herein appointed shall not be required to render to any lawfully established Court having jurisdiction of the administration of estates on account of their respective administration.

Witness my hand this the Seventh day of February A. D. 1908.

Rebecca E. Williams

We, the undersigned witnesses hereby certify that the foregoing paper-writing was signed by Rebecca E. Williams in our presence and that we each in her presence and in the presence of each of the other have hereto signed our names as witnesses at her request and we further certify that at the time she signed the foregoing paper-writing she declared the same to be her last Will and Testament.

This record indicates that George Bernard Judkins was born in about 1837 and that Sarah J. (Webb) Judkins was born in about 1842.

Memorial Record Of Alabama, Volume 1, published in 1893, included the following biographical sketch of George Bernard Judkins:

> "DR. GEORGE B. JUDKINS, the capable physician and surgeon in charge of the penitentiary at Wetumpka, was born in Montgomery (now Elmore) county, Ala., in 1837, the son of Hon. John C. and Jane E. (Young) Judkins, born in Virginia and Georgia, respectively. Both came to what is now Elmore county with their parents, where they were married and where they spent the greater part of their lives. They both died in 1871. He was a wealthy farmer of limited education, but a most successful business man, and left a large estate. He represented Macon county in the legislature in 1866. He was a whig formerly, and opposed secession, but went with his state as a matter of patriotism. He was the son of George Judkins, a Virginian by birth, but came at a very early day to Alabama, and died in Montgomery county. He was of Scotch descent, and a man of great industry. Bernard Young, the maternal grandfather of Mr. Judkins, was born in Georgia, and came to what is now Elmore county at an early day. Mr. Judkins belongs to a family of six sons and six daughters, four of whom beside himself served with distinction in the late war, namely: James H., adjutant of a regiment in Clanton's brigade; John C., an officer of Clanton's staff, who died in 1870; William T., also on Clanton's and Rosseau's staffs, and was killed in 1861. Dr. Judkins was reared on a farm, and his early education was obtained among the common schools of his home, but he graduated from the university of Virginia in 1854. Afterward he read medicine with Dr. T. B. Ligon, of Macon county, and then took another course at the Jefferson Medical college, of Philadelphia, graduating there in 1859, and practiced his profession in Montgomery county until 1861, when he joined Clanton's cavalry, where he saw hard service at Pensacola, Montgomery and in northern Alabama, and in 1863 he was made assistant surgeon of a regiment in Clanton's brigade. He did duty in the same capacity in several brigades, but with Clanton's brigade at the close of the war. In all his perilous military career he was never wounded nor captured. After the war he returned to his old home in Macon county, where he practiced medicine until 1888, when he was made physician in charge of the penitentiary at Wetumpka, which position he still holds. He was married in Tarch, 1864, to Sarah, daughter of Conrad and Eliza J. Webb, natives of Virginia and South Carolina, respectively. The union was blessed with two daughters - Sarah, wife of Lamar Smith, and Mary Virginia. Dr. Judkins is a master Mason, and a censor of the county medical society. He is neither a politician nor an aspirant for office. His wife is a devout Methodist."

History Of Alabama And Dictionary Of Alabama Biography, by Thomas McAdory Owen, Volume 3, published in 1921, included the following biographical sketch of George Bernard Judkins:

"JUDKINS, GEORGE BERNARD, physician, was born in 1837, in Montgomery, now Elmore County, and died in 1908 in Wetumpka; son of John Christopher and Eliza Jane (Young) Judkins (q. v.). He was reared upon a plantation and his early education acquired in the schools of the community. He entered the University of Virginia from which he graduated, 1854. He read medicine under Dr. T. B. Ligon, Macon County, and graduated from Jefferson medical college, Philadelphia, 1859. He located in Montgomery, where he practiced his profession until 1861, when he joined Clanton's cavalry, C. S. Army, and saw active service in Pensacola, Montgomery and northern Alabama. In 1863 he was made assistant regimental surgeon in Clanton's brigade and served until the close of the war. After hostilities ceased he located in Macon County, where he practiced medicine. In 1888 he was appointed physician to the penitentiary at Wetumpka. He served at one time as a censor of the Macon County medical society. He was a Mason and a Methodist. Married: March, 1864, to Sarah, daughter of Conrad and Eliza J. Webb, natives, respectively, of Virginia and South Carolina. Children: 1. Sallie Evans, m . William Lamar Smith (q. v.); 2. Mary Eugenia, m . George Holmes Smith (q. v.)."

letter from J. H. Judkins dated June 29, 1914, summarizing the service of George B. Judkins in the Civil War:

"In Re: Sarah W. Judkins - Pensioner.

The pensioner is the widow of Dr George B Judkins. In the spring of 1861 Dr Judkins enlisted as a private soldier in the Montgomery Mounted Rifles which company was organized as a 12 - month Co. and was not of any regiment but was an independent organization. Dr Judkins served in this company until the fall or winter of 1861, when the company was reorganized and enlisted for the war. Dr Judkins was Lieutenant in the company which became a part of the First Alabama Regiment of Cavalry and designated as Company K. Later on Dr Judkins was appointed assistant surgeon in Regiment of Clantons Brigade in which capacity he served to the end of the war.

When his widow applied to be placed on the Pension roll of the State, her application to show her elegability was certified to by Mr W. A Gunter and myself. The widow also obtained a cross of honor from the Daughters of the Confederacy upon a similar application which likewise was established Mr Gunter & myself. She is seventy years of age and resides at Wetumpka Elmore County Alabama

Newspapers.com listed the following obituary of Sarah Webb Judkins dated on October 15, 1925, in The Weekly Herald, Wetumpka, Alabama:

"Passing of Beloved Wetumpka Woman

Early on last Friday morning Mrs. Sarah Webb Judkins answered the last call and her spirit passed quietly and peacefully from earth into the gloryland.

This dear "Mother in Israel" had been in declining health for several years and tho her going was not unexpected it brought deep sorrow and a sense of great loss into the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Smith, where she resided and into the hearts of loved ones and friends.

Sarah Webb Judkins was born at Sandy Ridge, Lowndes County, Alabama, on July 12th, 1841. She later lived in Macon County and came to Wetumpka to reside about thirty-five years ago. She was married in 1864 to Dr. George B. Judkins, who predeceased her across the great divide twenty-five years ago. Mrs. Judkins was a greatly beloved woman, of beautiful Christian character, she was unselfish to a marked degree and was never so happy as when doing a kindness toward others. In her family she was a thoughtful and loving administerer to all and her beautiful spirit of cheerfulness and devotion radiated to neighbors and friends. She was a consecrated member of the Presbyterian church and was always ready to do her Master's work.

Funeral services were conducted from the home of Judge and Mrs. L. C. Smith at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon by Rev. A. C. Windham and interment followed in the Wetumpka Cemetery, where she was tenderly laid away in the last sleep beside the resting place of her beloved husband. A large concourse of relatives and friends were present and lovely floral offerings covered the new made grave.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Geo. Smith of Luverne and Mrs. L. C. Smith of Wetumpka; four grandchildren, Mrs. Klein Bentley and Mr. Holmes Smith of Luverne, Mrs. C. R. Bachelor and Mr. G. B. Smith of Wetumpka; five great grand children; one sister, Mrs. Joe W. Treston of Charlottesville, Va. and a wide family connection.

The pall bearers were two grandsons, Mr. G. B. Smith and Mr. Holmes Smith, two grandson's-in-law, Mr. Klein Bentley and Mr. C. R. Bachelor and four nephews, Mr. E. J. Cain, Mr. Tom Judkins, Mr. Clifford J. Judkins and Mr. Woodford J. Judkins.

Out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mrs. John Durr and Miss Lucy Durr, Miss Wylula Judkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Judkins and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Judkins, Mr. Tom Judkins, Mr. D. W. Young and Miss Ludie Young, Dr. J. W. Ray, Mrs. D. B. Hurst and Miss Josephine Hurst, Miss Evelyn Mathews, Miss Eva Bullock, Mrs. J. L. Boyd and Mr. J. K. Boyd, all of Montgomery and Mrs. Archie Herren of Tallahassee."

"Executive Department
Montgomery, Ala., Oct 23d 1862

Hon Geo W Randolph
Secty of War Richmond Va

Dr Sir

Let me call your attention to the claims of Jas H Judkins Jr of this State - a youth of promise & character. He has been in active service since the war broke out - entered as a private & was promoted by Col Clanton to position of Adjutant which position he has filled for more than 12 months to the satisfaction of the Regiment. That position he has recently resigned in consequence of a new Col takeing command. He is a brother of private Jno C Judkins Jr who at Iuka recently distinguished himself for bravery. His connections are large & influential & active in the cause of the Country. He is willing to go into the ranks as he is determined to serve the Country but would prefer to be assigned a position & I hope you can & will do so. He will satisfy the Department & the Country.

Yrs Respy
Jno Gill Shorter
Gov of Alabama."

"Mrs. Mary E. Judkins

Many friends here were grieved to learn of the death of Mrs Mary E Judkins, wife of J. H. Judkins, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs John W Durr, in Montgomery on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs Judkins lived for a number of years at their Country home near Wetumpka. She was a lovable, christian woman, a true wife, a tender mother and a loyal friend and neighbor A large circle of friends regretted her removal to Montgomery some years ago and she always received a hearty welcome on her return visits to our community. She lived a useful life: reaching the age of 74 years. Many relatives here receive the sympathy of our people in her loss

The remains were laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery, Montgomery on Tuesday afternoon.

She is survived by her husband, J. H. Judkins; two daughters, Mrs J. W. Durr and Mis Willulah Judkins; four sons, Thomas W. Judkins, C. J. Judkins L. G. Judkins and W. J. Judkins and two sisters Mrs Marion Lynch and Mrs E. T. Cook, all of Montgomery."

The joint will of James H. Judkins and Mary L. Judkins dated November 9, 1914, and a codicil dated July 27, 1915, were probated on August 3, 1922, at Montgomery County, W.B. 10/46, and provided as follows:

"Last Will And Testatment Of )
Mary L. Judkins And Jas. H. Judkins, Deceased )

We, Mary L. Judkins and James H. Judkins (wife and husband) being of sound mind and memory, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by us or either of us do now declare our last will and testament to be as follows:

Having by deeds of conveyance bearing even date with this will conveyed to each of our children (who are Lucy J. Durr, wife of John W. Durr, Thomas W. Judkins, Cliff James Judkins, Lawrence G. Judkins, Willulah Judkins and Woodford J. Judkins) contains lands and real estate described in said deeds, which said deeds are to be effective at the death of who of us last surviver, (which said deed shall be taken and construed as a part of this will). We now declare that after the payment of debts the use and possession of all the lands conveyed by said deed and all other property of every kind and description shall enure to the benefit of that one of us that last survivor; and at the death of that one of us who last survives, all the property of every kind and description, not described in said deed, shall belong to our daughter, Willulah Judkins: we further direct that from the revenues derived from the lands deeded as above said to our children, each shall pay to our daughter Willulah the sum of twenty-five dollars annually during her life. We make this provision because our daughter, Willulah is delicate and in consequence not able of her personal efforts to provide for her sustenance and comfortable living: we feel sure that each of children will enter into our sypathetic effort to provide for their daughter, and out of an abundant love make further provision for if it becomes necessary.

The one of us that survives shall be executor or executrix of this will without bond, and at the death of the one of us who survives our daughter Willulah shall be the executrix of this will without bond.

We further declare our will is that our daughter Willulah after the death of one of us shall receive one-half of the net revenue that may be derived from our real estate.

Given under our hand this 9th day of November A. D. 1914.

Mrs. Mary L. Judkins
James H. Judkins

Witnesses: Cliff J. Durr
Lucy Durr

Codicil:

Hereby ratifying and confirming in all things the foregoing will we now add this codicil to be taken and construed as a part of said will, and by this codicil we direct that each of other children shall, out of the revenue derived from the use of the lands deeded to them, respectively, pay our daughter, Willulah annually during her life an additional sum of fifteen dollars.

Dated July 27th, A. D. 1915

I hereby direct that my said husband Lawrence D. Judkins have the sole and exclusive control of all my property during his life time. I am indebted to British and American Mortgage Company (Limited) in the sum of Seventeen Hundred and Eighty nine and 80/100 Dollars, which indebtedness is secured by a mortgage executed by me to said company on to wit: the 9th day of April A.D. 1891, which said mortgage is recorded in the office of the Probate Judge of said County of Montgomery in Book 107, at page 488. This indebtedness I direct my said husband to pay out of the income arising from my property, and if the income arising from my property should not be adequate to pay this indebtedness at the time the same became due, I hereby authorize and empower my said husband the said Lawrence D. Judkins, to negotiate a loan and hereby authorize and empower him to execute acknowledge and deliver to the person with whom he negotiates the loan a mortgage on my real estate thereby conveying the fee simple estate in the real estate so mortgaged to secure the payment of the loan so negotiated; and if my said husband, the said Lawrence D. Judkins, should decide that it is to the best interest of my estate to sell any part of my real estate to pay the mortgage indebtedness herein before referred to, then in that event I hereby authorize and Empower him to negotiate a sale of any part of my real estate, the proceeds of such sale to be applied to the payment of said mortgaged indebtedness, and should he make such sale, I hereby authorize and Empower him to execute acknowledge an ddeliver to the purchaser a deed conveying thereby the estate in fee to the land so sold. The income arising from my property I direct shall be applied by my said husband, the said Lawrence D. Judkins, to the payment of the said mortgage indebtedness aforesaid, and also to the maintenance and support of himself and my children, who are James H. Judkins, Inda Thompson, John C. Judkins, George B. Judkins, Robert S. Judkins, Bolling Y. Judkins, during the life of my said husband, (Lawrence D. Judkins) in such manner as my said husband may desire. After the death of my said husband I direct that the property then constituting my estate shall be equally divided among my children then living, share and share alike, and if any of them be dead at the time leaving children then such child or children shall take the share the deceased parent or parents if living would have taken under this will.

I hereby appoint my said husband, Lawrence D. Judkins, to be the Executor of this will and hereby exempt him from giving bond as such Executor, and I further direct that he shall not be required to make any settlements or accounts of his administration with any courts.

I hereby appoint my sons James H. and John C. Judkins to be the Executor of this will after the death of my husband and exempt them from giving bond and from accounting to any court of this State for their administration of the affairs of my estate; but require them to proceed at once to wind up the affairs of my estate and to make the distribution of the effects thereof according to the terms of this will.

In making the distribution to the legatees I authorize them to divide the lands into shares of equal value, as near as may be, and to convey the same to the legatees by deed, but if the lands cannot be so divided as to effect an equal distribution among the legatees. I hereby empower them to sell the lands and make distribution of the results of the sale thereof to the legatees; and I hereby authorize them to execute, acknowledge and deliver all deeds necessary to effect a distribution of the lands among the legatees or in the sale thereof, for the purpose of effecting an equal division of the Effects of my estate according to the terms of this will.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand this the 22nd day of January A. D. 1901.

"Source of burial from obituary from contributor Don Sharp. I just visited Wetumpka Cemetery a few weeks ago (February 2020) looking for another Judkin and Buyck burial.

March 24, 2020
I went to Wetumpka City Cemetery to see if I could find his grave. I could not but I posted a photo of the likely lot he is buried in. There are two spaces, with a potential of being double deep, in the lot that holds the remains of George Bernard and Sarah Webb Judkins. All of these family members, Judkins, Williams, Cain, Buyck and Gaddis are buried very close to each other. The flag is in the center of the G.B. and S.W. Judkins lot."

Confederate Veteran Passes In Huntsville At Age Of 82

Huntsville, Ala., Nov. 5 - (AP) - A. J. Brooks, 82, Confederate veteran, died at his home here Monday following an extended illness. He is survived by his widow, one son, Dr. O. J. Brooks, and one granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Brooks."

Newspapers.com also listed the following obituary of Arthur J. Brooks published on November 7, 1928, in the Chattanooga Daily Times:

> "Plea For Party Last Act Of Old Soldier
> Huntsville, Ala., Nov. 5. - Arthur J. Brooks, 82, prominent Confederate veteran and for many years a merchant in Wetumpka, Ala., died today after a long illness here. He had been a resident of Huntsville twelve years, following his retirement from business, and had become a member of the Egbert Jones camp of Confederate veterans, taking an active interest in its affairs until the end of his life. He served four years with the famous Forty-sixth Alabama infantry regiment.
>
> He was keenly interested in politics, and with twelve other ex-Confederate soldiers signed an appeal which was published today asking democrats to stand together and remain true to the principles that the Confederate soldier had fought for and which, it was said, had been won, although they had lost the war. He was a life-long member of the Baptist church.
> The death of Mr. Brooks leaves only about thirty Confederate veterans in Madison county, of an estimated total of above 5,000, who went into the service in the sixties. He is survived by his widow; one son, Dr. O. J. Brooks, and a granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Brooks."

Alabama Pension Commssioner, Montgomery.

Dear Sir:

At the instance of Hon. Edward B. Almon, Representative in Congress, who desired that you be furnished with the military record of Arthur J. Brooks, Company B, 46th Regiment Alabama Infantry, Confederate States Army, dated March 6, 1862, the only roll of said company on file in this office. The U. S. records of prisoners of war show, however, that one A. J. Brooks, who is described as a private of Company F, 46th Regiment Alabama Infantry, Confederate States Army, was captured July 4, 1863, at Vicksburg, and paroled July 10, 1863, at the same place. Other records show that Arthur J. Brooks made an application for an appointment as 1st Lieutenant and regimental adjutant of the 46th Alabama Infantry which application was approved January 18, 1864. No later record of him has been found.

Very respectfully,

P C Harris
The Adjutant General."

Findagrave.com listed the following obituary of H. S. Shellman published on April 8, 1912, in the Columbus Ledger:

"Columbus Ledger Monday, Apr. 08, 1912 Page 6

WELL KNOWN PHENIX CITY MAN DIES EARLY SUNDAY MORNING AFTER ILLNESS OF THREE WEEKS

After an illness of three weeks, Mr. H. S. Shellman, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Phenix City, breathed his last at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning at his home, corner West Broad street and Fifth avenue, at the age of 63 year.

Mr. Shellman was a member of the Methodist church, a quiet, unostentatious and unassuming gentleman who enjoyed the utmost confidence and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. He was a kind affectionate and devoted father, always accommodating to his neighbors and friends, and was very charitably inclined. His death will be sincerely mourned by every one who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

The deceased gentleman is survived by four sons, Messrs. B. Y., L. D., H. S., Jr., and Bernard Shellman, and one daughter Miss Mollie Shellman, all of Phenix City, who have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their father.

The funeral was held from the late home of the deceased yesterday afternoon at 2? o'clock, the services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. W. Hamner, and the interment was in Pine Grove cemetery, the pallbearers being Albert Norris, Ralph Ensley, Will West, Ornsby McSwain, Otis Richards and D. L. Forsyth."
